Notes Regarding End-Of-Session Deadlines

- Note 1: The house rules do not contain an express deadline for committees to report measures, but technically, this is the last day for a house committee to report a measure in order for the measure to have any chance of being placed on a house calendar. However, this deadline does not take into consideration the time required to: (1) prepare the bill analysis; (2) obtain an updated fiscal note or impact statement; (3) prepare any other paperwork required for a committee report; or (4) print the committee report for distribution to the members of the house as required by the rules. Realistically, it normally takes a full day or more for a bill to reach the Calendars Committee after the bill has been reported from committee.
- Note 2: This deadline assumes that the house will not suspend the 5-day posting requirement in order to hold a public hearing, nor will a house committee avail itself of the formal meeting in order to consider a senate measure.
