139th day 30 last day for House to adopt CCRs last day for Senate to concur in House Amendments or adopt CCRs	140th day 31 Corrections only in House and Senate last day of session	NOTE 1: The house rules do not contain an express deadline for committees to report measures, but technically, this is the last day for a house committee to report a measure in order for the measure to have any chance of being placed on a house calendar. However, this deadline does not take into consideration the time required to: (1) prepare the bill analysis; (2) obtain an updated fiscal note or impact statement; (3) prepare any other paperwork required for a committee report; or (4) print the committee report for distribution to the members of the house as required by the rules. Realistically, it normally takes a full day or more for a bill to reach the Calendars Committee after the bill has been reported from committee. NOTE 2: The house deadlines for passing house bills and joint resolutions do not take into consideration the new senate deadline for reporting all bills and joint resolutions from committee. If a house bill or joint resolution is not passed until the last day that the house can consider house measures, the measure will not be received by the senate in time to be referred to and reported from a senate committee by the 123rd day. NOTE 3: The senate deadline for passing all bills and joint resolutions does not take into consideration the house deadline for passing senate bills and joint resolutions. Realistically, to be eligible for consideration by the house under its end-of-session deadlines, senate bills and joint resolutions must be passed by the senate and received by the house before the 130th day.
