

67th LEGISLATURE—REGULAR SESSION

WHEREAS, Cedar Grove Limited alleges that registration fees were not due in connection with that purchase and that it should be permitted to seek a refund of the registration fees; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the State of Texas, the Senate concurring, That Cedar Grove Limited is granted permission to sue the State of Texas and the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation for any relief to which it may be entitled as a result of this claim; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That in the event suit is filed, service of citation and other required process be made on the attorney general of the State of Texas and on the state engineer-director of the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation and that the suit be tried as other civil suits; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That nothing in this resolution may be construed as an admission by the State of Texas, or by any of its employees, agents, departments, agencies, or political subdivisions, of liability or of the truth of any allegation asserted by the claimant, but the alleged cause of action must be proved under the laws of this state as in other civil suits; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That nothing in this resolution may be construed as a waiver of any defense, of law or fact, available to the State of Texas or to any of its employees, agents, departments, agencies, or political subdivisions, but every defense is specifically reserved.

Adopted by the House on May 15, 1981, by a non-record vote; adopted by the Senate on May 27, 1981.

Approved May 29, 1981.

Filed with the Secretary of State, June 1, 1981.

SUIT AGAINST STATE—GENE NEISHULER AND MARSHALL EICHENAUER

H.C.R. No. 173

WHEREAS, Gene Neishuler and Marshall Eichenauer allege that as partners they purchased the Pleasant Oaks Village Mobile Home Park in Seagoville, Dallas County, Texas, on or about July 2, 1979; and

WHEREAS, Gene Neishuler and Marshall Eichenauer allege that in connection with that purchase they paid the state registration fees in excess of $10,000 on approximately 32 mobile homes that were included in the purchase; and

RESOLUTIONS

WHEREAS, Gene Neishuler and Marshall Eichenauer allege that registration fees were not due in connection with that purchase and that they should be permitted to seek a refund of the registration fees; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the State of Texas, the Senate concurring, That Gene Neishuler and Marshall Eichenauer are granted permission to sue the State of Texas and the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation for any relief to which they may be entitled as a result of this claim; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That in the event suit is filed, service of citation and other required process be made on the attorney general of the State of Texas and on the state engineer-director of the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation and that the suit be tried as other civil suits; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That nothing in this resolution may be construed as an admission by the State of Texas, or by any of its employees, agents, departments, agencies, or political subdivisions, of liability or of the truth of any allegation asserted by the claimants, but the alleged cause of action must be proved under the laws of this state as in other civil suits; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That nothing in this resolution may be construed as a waiver of any defense, of law or fact, available to the State of Texas or to any of its employees, agents, departments, agencies, or political subdivisions, but every defense is specifically reserved.

Adopted by the House on May 15, 1981, by a non-record vote; adopted by the Senate on May 27, 1981.

Approved May 29, 1981.

Filed with the Secretary of State, June 1, 1981.

COMMENDATION—JACK VALENTI

H.C.R. No. 175

WHEREAS, Jack Valenti is a distinguished native Texan and his activities, which range from involvement in national politics to leadership in the entertainment industry, are truly commendable; and