HCR 63--ADOPTED

Mr. Heatly offered the following resolution:

HCR 63

WHEREAS, The Honorable Hilary B. Doran, Jr., former state representative from District 70, has retired after eight years of illustrious public service in the Texas House of Representatives; and

WHEREAS, Highly esteemed by his colleagues and constituents, this eminent Texan ably and proficiently performed the difficult task of representing an expansive and diverse area almost the size of the State of West Virginia. His South Texas district was the largest unit of the state represented in the Texas House; it consisted of 22,162 square miles and nine counties; and

WHEREAS, During the four called sessions of the 62nd Legislature, Representative Doran served as vice-chairman of the powerful and prestigious Committee on Appropriations. In the 63rd Legislature, he was an active and influential member of the Committees on Agriculture and Livestock, Liquor Regulation, and State Affairs; and

WHEREAS, A native and lifelong resident of Del Rio, this successful attorney, who is a graduate of Southwest Texas State University and The University of Texas Law School, has been involved in numerous civic activities over the years, including Lions International; and

WHEREAS, This exemplary statesman served the people of his district with utmost integrity, and his legislative accomplishments have contributed significantly to the betterment of the state; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the State of Texas, the Senate concurring, That the 64th Legislature hereby commend the Honorable Hilary B. Doran, Jr., on his exceptional public service as a state legislator and extend best wishes to him for continued success and happiness on his retirement from the House of Representatives of the Texas legislature; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be prepared for the Honorable Hilary B. Doran, Jr., as an expression of appreciation and high regard from the 64th Legislature of the State of Texas.

The resolution was read and unanimously adopted.

On motion of Mrs. McBee, the names of all the members of the House were added to HCR 63 as signers thereof.

WHEREAS, He received a royal pardon from the King of Spain after spending three years in Louisiana and promptly returned to San Antonio de Bexar to help rebuild the city; and

WHEREAS, In 1821, at age 26, Don Jose Antonio Navarro became the Alcalde of the city of San Antonio, the last one under Spanish rule; and

WHEREAS, After a period of service as land commissioner for the Bexar District and the DeWitt Colony, and following the Treaty of Cordova and Mexican Independence from Spain, he was elected in 1829 to represent the Department of Bexar in the Chamber of Deputies at Saltillo, capital of the Mexican state of Coahuila and Texas; and

WHEREAS, Don Jose Antonio Navarro was again chosen by the people of Bexar to represent them at the Convention of 1836 at Washington-on-the-Brazos and there became one of two native Texans who took part in the signing of the Texas Declaration of Independence and the only native Texan who served on the special committee which drafted the Constitution of the Republic; and

WHEREAS, In 1838-39, as the congressman from Bexar County to the Third Congress of the Republic, he cosponsored the Public School Act, which provided that three leagues of land be set aside in each county for primary schools or academies and fifty leagues for establishment of two colleges or universities; and

WHEREAS, In 1841, while acting as a commissioner on the ill-fated Santa Fe Expedition, he was captured by Santa Anna's forces and sentenced to death, but when the sentence was later commuted to life imprisonment, he was eventually able to arrange an escape from Mexico; and

WHEREAS, In the transition of the Republic of Texas to statehood, Don Jose Antonio Navarro participated as a member of the State Constitutional Committee in 1845, and as an authority on Spanish law he gave to Texas four fundamental laws of today, the laws of community property, the law of separate property rights for married women, the laws of descent and distribution, and the homestead law; and

WHEREAS, A delegate to the convention at Austin that joined the Republic of Texas to the United States in 1846, he also became the first senator from Bexar County to the Texas legislature when statehood was achieved; and

WHEREAS, He died in January of 1871, one of the most highly honored and revered citizens of Texas; and

WHEREAS, As an expression of appreciation for his patriotic service, the State of Texas named Navarro County in honor of Don Jose Antonio Navarro and named its county seat, Corsicana, to commemorate his father's birthplace, the Island of Corsica; and

WHEREAS, It is appropriate that Texans be reminded of the contributions of this devoted patriot on the occasion of the 180th anniversary of his birth; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the 64th Legislature of the State of Texas, the Senate concurring, That the Texas legislature pay tribute to Don Jose Antonio Navarro, one of the foremost statesmen and patriots in Texas history; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That the week of February 23 to March 1, 1975, be designated as Don Jose Antonio Navarro Week in Texas; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be prepared for Navarro House, his old home in San Antonio, and for his direct descendants, Adela M. Navarro and Jose Antonio Navarro V, both of San Antonio, as a tribute by the Texas legislature in memory of an illustrious figure in Texas history, Don Jose Antonio Navarro.

In Memory of
The Honorable
Joe Shannon Sr.

HCR 66

WHEREAS, The State of Texas has lost a distinguished citizen and members of the Texas legislature a good friend and former colleague with the death of former State Representative Joe Shannon, Sr., on January 18, 1975, at the age of 59; he was the last representative to serve from the Tarrant flatorial district and had been a prominent attorney in Fort Worth for many years; and

WHEREAS, A long-time resident of Fort Worth, Mr. Shannon was the son of Dr. J. B. Shannon, a physician in that city for 38 years, and attended North Texas Law School; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Shannon became interested in state politics at the early age of 18, when he actively campaigned through North Texas for the gubernatorial candidate, Tom Hunter. Two years later, he became a candidate for state representative; he finished first out of ten candidates, but lost in the run-off election; and

WHEREAS, In 1942, he became a member of the United States Army Air Corps, serving as a tailgunner on B17s during 32 missions over Europe, and earning the Air Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters and the Distinguished Flying Cross. Having participated in missions over Berlin and Normandy during D-Day, this courageous military man was once involved in a mission that dropped supplies to the underground in Warsaw, Poland, and went on to land in Russia before returning to England; and
