NOTICE GIVEN
Mr. Harrington gave notice that he would on the next Legislative day call from the Journal the motion to reconsider the vote by which the Bell amendment to H. B. No. 391 was adopted, and the motion to reconsider the vote by which House Bill 391 failed to pass to engrossment.

CONGRATULATING THE HONORABLE GRAINGER W. Mcllhany

Mr. Gladden offered the following resolution:

H. S. R. No. 554

Whereas, On April 28, 1918, the very Honorable Grainger W. McLlhany was born to a destiny of happiness and success in the service of his beloved State of Texas; and

Whereas, The House recognizes the significance of our fellow Member's birthday and wishes to honor also his wife, Dorothy, and his three children, Tom, Bill and Anne, who live in Wheeler in District 87; and

Whereas, Our meditative friend, Grainger Mcllhany, operates according to the wise counsel of Emerson who wrote: "Place yourself in the middle of the stream of power and wisdom which animates all whom it floats, and you are without effort impelled to truth, to right and to a perfect contentment"; and

Whereas, On this, his forty-third birthday, the House of Representatives commends Grainger Mcllhany for his encouragement of other Members in their search for equitable legislation, enjoys him for his good will as expressed in his going more than half-way with his fellowmen, and respects him for his sincere appreciation for the contributions others make to the enrichment of his own life; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives of the Fifty-seventh Legislature congratulates Grainger McIlhany and wishes him many more birthdays as a Member of the House.

The resolution was read.

On the motion of Mr. Hinson, the names of all Members of the House were added to the resolution as signers thereof.

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

Austin, Texas, April 27, 1961 Hon. James A. Turman, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Sir: I am directed by the Senate to inform the House that the Senate has passed the following:

S. B. No. 125, Amending Section 19, Article 3.01 of the Insurance Code to include electronic data processing systems in definition of “net assets,” and declaring an emergency.

S. B. No. 325, Relating to the filing by a married woman of a state-mangement of her separate property in counties in which she owns real castle; and providing an emergency.

S. B. No. 426, To provide for registration of out-of-State registered nurses without examination; and declaring an emergency.

S. B. No. 57, To permit contributions by employers to premiums for contracts insuring their employees; and declaring an emergency.

S. B. No. 234, To provide for inclusion of military duty in World War I in calculating retirement benefits; and declaring an emergency.

S. B. No. 278, Amending Chapter 1 of House Bill No. 11, Article 20.01, Subsection b, Acts of 1959, Sth Texas Legislature, 3rd Called

13.08a of the Texas Election Code, providing for increased assessments for candidates for the Office of State Senator and State Representative in counties having a population of nine hundred thousand ($90,000) or more; and declaring an emergency.

S. B. No. 213, Validating the annexation of territory by all cities of five hundred ($500) inhabitants or less heretofore incorporated under the General Laws of Texas, and being located within two counties, one of which having a population of five hundred thirty-eight thousand four hundred thirty-five ($38,456), and the other having a population of forty-seven thousand, four hundred thirty-two (47,432); validating the boundary lines thereof; providing that this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of any annexation; and declaring an emergency.

S. B. No. 433, Creating Lomax Municipal District, and conservation and reclamation district, and declaring an emergency.
