We also remember other great statesmen who have graced this chamber with their stalwart stand for that which is honest, decent, and courageous. Grant, we pray Thee, that these Thy servants, shall also receive a double portion of that spirit, as they work together to achieve a common cause: the greater welfare of all the people in this State of Texas.

Save these who labor here from all compromise which crucifies principle, from all shoddy workmanship which betrays the possible best, and from cowardly expediency which is treason to the highest integrity.

For we ask it in our Saviour's name. Amen."

APPENDIX

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORT

The Temporary Committee on Rules filed a favorable report on H. S. R. No. 17.
In Memory of

C. Read Granberry

Mr. Cotten offered the following resolution:

H. C. R. No. 1, In memory of C. Read Granberry.

Whereas, This House of Representatives is a changing institution. Great men have come, served well in these hallowed halls, and have gone on to other public service to illumine the history of their State and Nation; and

Whereas, One among them stayed, and none will be more sorely missed than C. Read Granberry, a man dedicated to education and good government, and who ended that dedication in the service of this Body with his demise August 21, 1962; and

Whereas, This was a man of orderly mind, detached and wise. His objectivity was pure, befitting the sterling quality of his mind. He was content to use that intellect in an official capacity which does not lead to wide public acclaim, but which is vital nonetheless to continuing, efficient government. He was Parliamentarian of the Texas House of Representatives for 18 Legislatures and an authority in the field of law. He had become an expert in many facets of the law and an expert on appropriations measures and the computations on which revenue bills were figured; and

Whereas, It is fitting that we should here review his life of service to Texas, where for 53 years he had been a familiar figure in this Capitol, coming first as a page boy in this hall when Sam Rayburn was Speaker of the House. His intellectual capabilities, asserted in law, education, engineering and the arts, were disclosed at an early age. He was president of his graduating class at Austin High School in 1918, but even before this time he served as parliamentarian of this Body. In 1918 and for 18 Legislatures thereafter he served in this capacity. When he became director of the Texas Legislative Council in 1955, supervising research on legislation, he continued to sit beside Speakers of the House advising them on parliamentary procedure; and

Whereas, Paralleling his career in government was dedicated service to The University of Texas, where his name was equally illustrious. He entered the University as a student in 1918, was elected to the Students Assembly in 1919 and 1920 and was president of the Students Association in 1921. He received the degree of Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering and Master of Science in Electrical Engineering from the University, and took additional courses in physics and electrical engineering toward a doctorate. In the same period he was a member of the United States Naval Reserve; and

Whereas, Mr. Granberry was appointed at the Department of Electrical Engineering in 1926 as an instructor, and served succes slvely as assistant professor, associate professor, and professor after 1938. He was director for The University of Texas of the Engineering, Science and Management War Training Program from 1939 to 1946. He became an Assistant to the President and Professor of Electrical Engineering in 1945, serving in this capacity until 1950 when he became Assistant to the Chancellor. He administered The University of Texas Off-Campus Research Center, now Balcones Research Center, from 1946 to 1953. Even with these responsibilities, he managed to teach at least one course each semester, serve on many University committees, among them the Athletic Council, the building committee, the public relations committee; he administered the Fran Reaugh and Samuel E. Gideon art collections, and he was Editor of the Journal of Architecture, Engineering and Industry at the University in 1947. He was a member of Phi Kappa Sigma, Eta Kappa Nu, and Silver Spurs, fraternal, scholarly and service organizations; and

Whereas, Mr. Granberry's duties with this House were not his only services to Texas government. He edited the Texas Legislative Manual for 18 Legislatures. He was a member, and chairman since 1953, of the Texas Surplus Property Agency; member and chairman, from 1949 to 1955, of the Governor's Advisory Committee on Veterans Education, and Executive Assistant to Governor Allan Shivers in 1954 and 1955. He had been executive director of the Texas Legislative Council since January 1, 1958; and

Whereas, With the enormous energy and initiative that sometimes accompanies a small physical stature, Mr. Granberry found time to pursue many other interests. He was an Episcopalian, a vestry member for several years and senior warden in 1956. He was a Mason. The rewards of aesthetics did not elude him. He was a watercolorist and his paintings were collected and exhibited. He was a collector of Central Texas Indian artifacts; and

Whereas, Recognition of his accomplishment is witnessed by his inclusion in Who's Who in America, Who's Who in Engineering, Who's Who in American Education, and in American Men of Science, all dictionaries of outstanding Americans; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives, the Senate concur-ing, stand in grateful acknowledgement of the services to Texas given throughout his lifetime by this honorable man and that a page in the House Journal be set aside in his memory; and, be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this Resolution be given to his faithful and beloved wife, Ruth McMillan Granberry, who continues to serve this House; and, be it further

Resolved, That when the Legislature adjourns this day it do so in loving memory and tribute to C. Read Granberry.

COTTEN

Mr. Cotten moved that the resolution be adopted.

On the motion of Mr. Markgraf the names of all Members of the House were added to the resolution as signers thereof.

The resolution was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.
Mr. Cook offered the following resolution:

H. S. R. No. 19, In memory of The Honorable Jack Richardson.

Whereas, The House of Representatives convenes at this Regular Session of the 88th Legislature and pauses before considering its many problems to honor the memory of one of the former Members of the Texas Legislature, Jack Richardson, whose death is a great loss to the State of Texas; and

Whereas, Jack Richardson was born January 16, 1906, in Roosevelt, Texas, the son of Walter and Fannie Richardson, and had lived in Uvalde since 1935, having married Sarah H. Beechcroft on February 6, 1950, in San Marcos; and

Whereas, Jack Richardson was elected to the Texas Legislature and served the district comprised of Uvalde, Medina, Dimmit and Zavala Counties during the 55th and 56th Legislatures and will always be remembered by his colleagues as a man of principle who always voted his convictions, regardless of the situation or opposition, who considered the problems of the State without regard to his own welfare, who considered the job of law-making a serious assignment to be undertaken with sincerity, and who met this responsibility and made decisions with the betterment of State government always uppermost in mind; and

Whereas, He was an active and dedicated member of St. Phillip's Episcopal Church, a member of the Mononis Shrine Temple in Fort Worth, McCullough Lodge No. 278 in Mason, a member of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers' Association, the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association and the American Quarter Horse Association; and

Whereas, He will be missed by his many friends who held him in such high affection and esteem; now therefore be it

Resolved, By the House of Representatives of the 88th Legislature, That we express our heartfelt sorrow to the family of Jack Richardson, including his widow, his daughter, Mrs. Wesley Kyle and his granddaughter, Kathryn Kyle of Uvalde; his mother, Mrs. L. D. Van Cleve of Junction; his brothers, H. T. Richardson of Uvalde and C. L. Richardson of Dallas; and his sister, Mrs. Forrest Deal of Gouldbank; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this Resolution be prepared as a tribute to him and sent to members of his family, that a page in the House Journal be set aside in his honor, and that when the House adjourns today it do so in memory of Jack Richardson.

COOK

On motion of Mr. Hendrix the names of all Members of the House were added to the resolution as signers thereof.

The resolution was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.
