RULE 1. DUTIES AND RIGHTS OF THE SPEAKER
CHAPTER A. DUTIES AS PRESIDING OFFICER

Sec. 1. ENFORCEMENT OF THE RULES. The speaker shall enforce, apply, and interpret the rules of the house in all deliberations of the house and shall enforce the legislative rules prescribed by the statutes and the Constitution of Texas. (Sec. 1.01.)

Sec. 2. CALL TO ORDER. The speaker shall take the chair on each calendar day precisely at the hour to which the house adjourned or recessed at its last sitting and shall immediately call the members to order. (Sec. 1.02.)

Sec. 3. LAYING BUSINESS BEFORE THE HOUSE. The speaker shall lay before the house its business in the order indicated by the rules and shall receive propositions made by members and put them to the house. (Sec. 1.03.)

Sec. 4. REFERRAL OF PROPOSED LEGISLATION TO COMMITTEE. All proposed legislation shall be referred by the speaker to an appropriate standing committee with jurisdiction, subject to correction by a majority vote of the house. (Sec. 3.112.)

Sec. 5. PRESERVATION OF ORDER AND DECORUM. The speaker shall preserve order and decorum. In case of disturbance or disorderly conduct in the galleries or in the lobby, the speaker may order that these areas be cleared. No signs, placards, or other objects of similar nature shall be permitted in the rooms, lobby, gallery, and hall of the house. The speaker shall see that the members of the house conduct themselves in a civil manner in accordance with accepted standards of parliamentary conduct and may, when necessary, order the sergeant-at-arms to clear the aisles and seat the members of the house so that business may be conducted in an orderly manner. (Sec. 1.04.)

Sec. 6. RECOGNITION OF GALLERY VISITORS. On written request of a member, the speaker may recognize persons in the gallery. The speaker shall afford that recognition at a convenient place in the order of business, considering the need for order and decorum and the need for continuity of debate. The request must be made on a form prescribed by the Committee on House Administration. (Sec. 1.06.)

Sec. 7. STATING AND VOTING ON QUESTIONS. The speaker shall rise to put a question but may state it sitting. The question shall be put distinctly in this form: “As many as are in favor (here state the question or proposition under consideration), say ‘Aye,’” and after the affirmative vote is expressed, “As many as are opposed say ‘No.’” If the speaker is in doubt as to the result, or if a division is called for, the house shall divide: those voting in the affirmative on the question shall register “Aye” on the voting machine, and those voting in the negative on the question shall register “No.” Such votes shall not be printed in the journal unless a record vote of yeas and nays is ordered in accordance with the rules. (Sec. 1.05.)

Sec. 8. VOTING RIGHTS OF THE PRESIDING OFFICER. The speaker shall have the same right as other members to vote. If the speaker, or a member temporarily presiding, has not voted, he [or she] may cast the deciding vote at the time such opportunity becomes official, whether to make or break a tie. If a verification of the vote is called for and granted, the decision of the speaker, or a member temporarily presiding, to cast the deciding vote need not be made until the verification has been completed. In case of error in a vote, if the correction leaves decisive effect to the vote of the speaker, or a member temporarily presiding, the deciding vote may be cast even though the result has been announced. (Sec. 1.05.)

Sec. 9. QUESTIONS OF ORDER. (a) The speaker shall decide on all questions of order; however, such decisions are subject to an appeal to the house made by any 10 members. Pending an appeal, the speaker shall call a member to the chair, who shall not have the authority to entertain or decide any other matter or proposition until the appeal has first been determined by the house. The question on appeal is, “Shall the chair be sustained?”

(b) No member shall speak more than once on an appeal unless given leave by a majority of the house. No motion shall be in order, pending an appeal, except a motion to adjourn, a motion to lay on the table, a motion for the previous question, or a motion for a call of the house. Responses to parliamentary inquiries... and decisions of recognition made by the chair may not be appealed. (Sec. 1.07.)

Sec. 10. APPOINTMENT OF SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE AND TEMPORARY CHAIR. The speaker shall have the right to name any member to perform the duties of the chair and may name a member to serve as speaker pro tempore [for a period not to exceed one year] by delivering a written order to the chief clerk and a copy to the journal clerk. A permanent speaker pro tempore shall, in the absence or inability of the speaker, call the house to order and perform all other duties of the chair in presiding over the deliberations of the house and perform other duties and exercise other responsibilities as may be assigned by the speaker. If the house is not in session, and a permanent speaker pro tempore has not been named, or if the speaker pro tempore is not available or for any reason is not able to function, the speaker may deliver a written order to the chief clerk, with a copy to the journal clerk, naming the member who shall call the house to order and preside during the speaker's absence. The speaker pro tempore shall serve at the pleasure of the speaker. (Sec. 1.08.)

Sec. 11. EMERGENCY ADJOURNMENT. In the event of an emergency of such compelling nature that the speaker must adjourn the house without fixing a date and hour of reconvening, the speaker shall have authority to determine the date and hour of reconvening and to notify the members of the house by any means the speaker considers adequate. Should the speaker be disabled or otherwise unable to exercise these emergency powers, the permanent speaker pro tempore, if one has been named, shall have authority to act. If there is no permanent speaker pro tempore, or if that officer is unable to act, authority shall be exercised by the chairman (chair) of the Committee on State Affairs, who shall preside until the house can proceed to the selection of a temporary presiding officer to function until the speaker or the speaker pro tempore is again able to exercise the duties and responsibilities of the office. (Sec. 1.09.)

Sec. 12. POSTPONEMENT OF RECONVENING. When the house is not in session, if the speaker determines that it would be a hazard to the safety of the members, officers, employees, and others attending the legislature to reconvene at the time determined by the house at its last sitting, the speaker may clear the area of the capitol under the control of the house and postpone the reconvening of the house for a period of not more than 12 hours. On making that determination, the speaker shall order the sergeant-at-arms to post an assistant at each first floor entrance to the capitol and other places and advise all persons entering of the determination and the time set for the house to reconvene. The speaker shall also notify the journal clerk and the news media of the action, and the action shall be entered in the house journal. (Sec. 1.10.)

Sec. 13. SIGNING BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS. All bills, joint resolutions, and concurrent resolutions shall be signed by the speaker in the presence of the house, as required by the constitution; and all writs, warrants, and subpoenas issued by order of the house shall be signed by the speaker and attested by the chief clerk, or the person acting as chief clerk. (Sec. 1.11.)

CHAPTER B. ADMINISTRATIVE DUTIES

Sec. 14. CONTROL OVER HALL OF THE HOUSE. The speaker shall have general control, except as otherwise provided by law, of the hall of the house, its lobbies, galleries, corridors, and passages, and other rooms in those parts of the capitol assigned to the use of the house; except that the hall of the house shall not be used for any meeting other than legislative meetings during any regular or special session of the legislature unless specifically authorized by resolution. (Sec. 1.21.)

Sec. 15. JURISDICTION OVER OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES. The speaker shall select and appoint all officers and employees of the house except employees of individual members and committees and shall have the right to discharge any of them. This authority may be delegated to the Committee on House Administration to the extent and for the length of time the speaker determines. In the event of the absence, resignation, or death of any officer or employee of the house, the speaker may designate a person to take charge of and attend to all the duties of the office affected until the officer returns or until a successor is chosen. Officers and employees of the house shall receive the compensation that the speaker or Committee on House Administration determines. (Sec. 1.22.)

Sec. 16. STANDING COMMITTEE APPOINTMENTS. (a) The speaker shall appoint the chairman [chair] and vice-chairman [vice-chair] of each standing substantive committee and shall also appoint a minimum of one-half of the remaining membership of the committee.

(b) If members of equal seniority request the same committee, the speaker shall decide which among them shall be assigned to that committee.

(c) In announcing the membership of the standing substantive committees, the speaker shall designate which are appointees and which acquire membership by seniority.

(d) The speaker shall appoint the chairman and vice-chairman of each standing procedural committee and the remaining membership of the committee.

(e) All chairmen and vice-chairmen appointed by the speaker under these rules shall serve at the pleasure of the speaker.

[Sec. 1.24. DESIGNATION OF CHAIR OF STANDING SUBCOMMITTEES. The speaker shall designate the chair of each standing subcommittee.]

Sec. 17. DESIGNATION OF CHAIRMAN [CHAIR] FOR BUDGET AND OVERSIGHT. For each substantive committee to which portions of the general appropriations may be assigned, the speaker shall designate a member of that committee to serve as the chairman [chair] for budget and oversight. (Sec. 1.25.)

Sec. 18. APPOINTMENT OF SELECT AND CONFERENCE COMMITTEES. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the rules of the house or as otherwise specifically directed by the house, the speaker shall appoint all select committees and all conference committees. The speaker shall name the chairman [chair] of each select committee and each conference committee, and may also name the vice-chairman [vice-chair] thereof. (Sec. 1.26.)

Sec. 19. INTERIM STUDIES. When the legislature is not in session, the speaker shall have the authority to direct standing and select committees to make interim studies for such purposes as the speaker may designate, and the standing and select committees shall meet as often as necessary to transact effectively the business assigned to them. (Sec. 1.27.)

Sec. 15. APPEALS FROM RULINGS OF THE CHAIRMAN (Chair).
Appeals from rulings of the chairman (chair) of a committee shall be in order if seconded by three members of the committee, which may include the member making the appeal. Procedure in committee following an appeal which has been seconded shall be the same as the procedure followed in the house in a similar situation. (Sec. 3.087.)

Sec. 16. PREVIOUS QUESTION. Before the previous question can be ordered in a committee, the motion therefor must be seconded by not less than 4 members of a committee consisting of 21 or more members, 3 members of a committee consisting of less than 21 members and more than 10 members, or 2 members of a committee consisting of 10 members or less. If the motion is properly seconded and ordered by a majority vote of the committee, further debate on the proposition under consideration shall be terminated, and the proposition shall be immediately put to a vote of the committee for its action. (Sec. 3.088.)

Sec. 17. QUORUM. A majority of a committee shall constitute a quorum.
No action or recommendation of a committee shall be valid unless taken at a meeting of the committee with a quorum actually present, and the committee minutes shall reflect the names of those members of the committee who were actually present. No committee report shall be made to the house unless ordered by a majority of the members of the committee, except as otherwise provided in the rules, and a quorum of the committee must be present when the vote is taken on reporting a bill or resolution or on taking any other formal action within the authority of the committee. No committee report shall be made except by record vote of the members of the committee, with the yeas and nays to be recorded in the minutes of the committee. Proxies cannot be used in committees. (Sec. 3.089.)

Sec. 18. MOVING A CALL OF A COMMITTEE. (a) It shall be in order to move a call of a committee at any time to secure and maintain a quorum for any one or more of the following purposes:

1. for the consideration of a specific bill, resolution, or other matter;
2. for a definite period of time; or
3. for the consideration of any designated class of bills or other matters.

(b) When a call of a committee is moved for one or more of the foregoing purposes and seconded by two members, one of whom may be the chairman (chair), and is ordered by a majority of the members present, no member shall thereafter be permitted to leave the committee meeting without written permission from the chairman (chair). After the call is ordered, and in the absence of a quorum, the chairman (chair) shall have the authority to authorize the sergeant-at-arms to locate absent members of the committee and to compel their attendance for the duration of the call. (Sec. 3.090.)

Sec. 19. MINUTES OF PROCEEDINGS. (a) The chairman (chair), or the member acting as chairman (chair), shall keep complete minutes of the proceedings in committee, which shall include:

1. the time and place of each meeting of the committee;
2. a roll call to determine the members present at each meeting of the committee, whether that meeting follows an adjournment or a recess from a previous committee meeting;
3. an accurate record of all votes taken, including a listing of the yeas and nays cast on a record vote;
4. the date of posting of notice of the meeting; and
5. other information that the chair shall determine.

(b) Committee minutes shall be corrected only at the direction of the chairman (chair) as authorized by a majority vote of the committee. Duplicate originals of committee minutes shall be maintained, one to remain with the committee chairman [chair] and the other to be filed within five days with the office of the house committee coordinator, where it shall be available at all reasonable business hours for inspection by members or the public.

(c) The committee coordinator shall maintain the minutes and records safe from loss, destruction, and alteration at all times, and may, at any time, turn them, or any portion, over to the Committee on House Administration. (Sec. 3.091.)

Sec. 20. RECORDING OF TESTIMONY. (a) All testimony before a committee or a subcommittee in public hearing shall be electronically recorded. All recorded testimony shall be delivered to the Committee on House Administration.

(b) A transcript of the testimony will be furnished by the Committee on House Administration to any member requesting it, with the expense of the transcript to be charged to the contingent expense account of the member.

(c) Copies of the electronic recordings shall not be released to anyone by the Committee on House Administration, except that a member of the house may get a copy of the electronic recording of the member's own remarks, with any expense for the copy to be charged to the contingent expense account of the member. (Sec. 3.092.)

Sec. 21. SWORN STATEMENT OF WITNESSES. (a) The Committee on House Administration shall prescribe the form of a sworn statement to be executed by all persons other than members appearing before committees. The statement shall provide for showing:

1. the committee or subcommittee;
2. the name, home address, business address, and telephone number of the person appearing;
3. the person, firm, corporation, class, or group represented;
4. the type of business, profession, or occupation of the person or entity represented;
5. the business address of the person or entity represented; and
6. the matter before the committee on which the person is appearing and whether for or against the matter.

(b) No person shall appear in favor of or opposition to a matter before a committee until the sworn statement has been filed with the chairman [chair] of the committee.

(c) Sworn statements shall be attached to the copy of the minutes of the meeting filed with the house committee coordinator.

(d) All persons, other than members, appearing before committees shall give their testimony under oath, and each committee may avail itself of additional powers and prerogatives authorized by law. (Sec. 3.093.)

Sec. 22. POWER TO ISSUE PROCESS. By a record vote of not less than two-thirds of those present and voting, a quorum being present, each standing committee shall have the power and authority to issue process to witnesses at any place in the State of Texas, to compel their attendance, and to compel the production of all books, records, and instruments. If necessary to obtain compliance with subpoenas or other process, the committee shall have the power to issue writs of attachment. All process issued by the committee may be addressed to and served by either a sergeant-at-arms appointed by the committee or by any peace officer of the State of Texas. The committee shall also have the power to cite and have prosecuted for contempt, in the manner provided by law, anyone disobeying the subpoenas or other process lawfully issued by the committee. The chairman [chair] of the committee shall issue, in the name of the committee, the subpoenas and other process as the committee may direct. (Sec. 3.094.)

Sec. 23. MILEAGE AND PER DIEM FOR WITNESSES. Subject to prior approval by the Committee on House Administration, witnesses attending proceedings of any committee under process of the committee shall be allowed the same mileage and per diem as are allowed members of the committee when in a travel status, to be paid out of the contingent expense fund of the house of representatives on vouchers approved by the chairman [chair] of the committee, the chairman [chair] of the Committee on House Administration, and the speaker of the house. (Sec. 3.095.)

Sec. 24. POWER TO REQUEST ASSISTANCE OF STATE AGENCIES. Each committee is authorized to request the assistance, when needed, of all state departments, agencies, and offices, and it shall be the duty of the departments, agencies, and offices to assist the committee when requested to do so. Each committee shall have the power and authority to inspect the records, documents, and files of every state department, agency, and office, to the extent necessary to the discharge of its duties within the area of its jurisdiction. (Sec. 3.096.)

CHAPTER C. COMMITTEE FUNCTIONS

Sec. 25. INTERIM STUDIES. Standing committees, en banc or by subcommittees, are hereby authorized to conduct interim studies that are authorized by resolution adopted by the house or designated by the speaker pursuant to Rule 1, Section 19 [Section 1.27]. For this purpose, the chairman [chair] of the standing committee shall have authority to name the subcommittees necessary and desirable for the conduct of the interim studies. Use of select committees to conduct the interim work of the house when the legislature is not in session is hereby prohibited, unless authorized by the house through passage of a resolution creating a select committee for a specific interim task, or authorized by the speaker. (Sec. 3.111.)

Sec. 26. MOTION PREVENTING REPORTING. No motion is in order in a committee considering a bill, resolution, or other matter that would prevent the committee from reporting it back to the house in accordance with the Rules of the House. (Sec. 3.113.)

Sec. 27. FINAL ACTION IN FORM OF REPORT. No action by a committee on bills or resolutions referred to it shall be considered as final unless it is in the form of a favorable report, an unfavorable report, or a report of inability to recommend a course of action. (Sec. 3.114.)

Sec. 28. VOTE ON MOTION TO REPORT. Motions made in committee to report favorably or unfavorably must receive affirmative majority votes, majority negative votes to either motion being insufficient to report. If a committee is unable to agree on a recommendation for action, as in the case of a tie vote, it should submit a statement of this fact as its report, and the house shall decide, by a majority vote, the disposition of the matter by one of the following alternatives:

1. leave the bill in the committee for further consideration;
2. refer the bill to some other committee; or
3. order the bill printed, in which case the bill shall go to the Committee on Calendars for assignment to a calendar and for application of an appropriate rule for house consideration. (Sec. 3.115.)

Sec. 29. FORM OF REPORTS. (a) Reports of standing committees on bills and resolutions shall be made in duplicate, with one copy to be filed with the journal clerk for printing in the journal and the other to accompany the original bill.

(b) All committee reports must be in writing, be endorsed by the committee coordinator, and shall:
1. be signed by the chairman [chair], or the member acting as chairman [chair], or a majority of the membership of the committee;
2. be addressed to the speaker;
3. contain a statement of the recommendations of the committee with reference to the matter which is the subject of the report;
4. contain the date the committee made its recommendation;
include the fact that a copy of a bill or resolution was forwarded to the Legislative Budget Board for preparation of a fiscal note; include the record vote by which the report was adopted, including the vote of each member of the committee; contain the recommendation of assignment to a local or consent calendar if applicable; state the name of the house sponsor of all senate bills and resolutions; and state whether the bill or resolution proposes new law or amends existing law.

(c) Except for the general appropriations bill, each committee report on a bill or joint resolution, including a complete committee substitute, and, to the extent considered necessary by the committee, a committee report on any other resolution, must include in summary form a detailed analysis of the subject matter of the bill or resolution, specifically including:

(1) background information on the proposal;
(2) what the bill or resolution proposes to do and whether it proposes new law or amends existing law;
(3) either a section-by-section analysis of the content of the bill or resolution or a synopsis of the bill or resolution, as determined by the chairman;
(4) a statement generally describing the scope of and the reasons for any rulemaking authority delegated to a state officer, department, agency, or institution, and, if the chairman determines that cost and economic impact can reasonably be estimated, a statement of the cost of implementation for state and local governments and the economic impact on persons to whom the rules would apply for the first five years that the rulemaking authority is in effect;
(5) a statement of substantial differences between a complete committee substitute and the original bill; and
(6) a summary of the committee hearing on the bill or resolution.

(d) It shall be the duty of the committee chairman, on all matters reported by the committee, to see that all provisions of Rule 13 (Subchapter F of Chapter 5) are satisfied, except that insertions and underlining shall not be required on appropriations bills, redistricting bills, local bills, game bills, recodification bills, and bills not purporting to amend existing statutes. If the proposal to amend an existing portion of the constitution or a statute involves a complete redraft of the entire text, to the extent that it would confuse rather than clarify to show additions and deletions, the requirement for insertion and underlining shall not apply. The chairman shall strictly construe this provision to achieve the desired purposes (Sec. 3.118).

Sec. 30. FISCAL NOTES. (a) It shall be the duty of the chairman of each standing committee, immediately after the bill or resolution has been referred to the standing committee, to determine whether or not a fiscal note is required, and, if so, to send a copy of the bill or resolution to the Legislative Budget Board for the preparation of the fiscal note. The chairman shall advise the Legislative Budget Board of the standing committee to which the bill or resolution has been referred and request that the fiscal note be returned to the committee. The Legislative Budget Board shall forward a copy of each fiscal note to the author or sponsor of the affected bill or resolution. The fiscal note shall be attached to the affected bill or resolution before a committee hearing can be conducted.

(b) Any bill or joint resolution which authorizes or requires the expenditure or diversion of any state funds for any purpose, except the general appropriations bill, shall have a fiscal note signed by the director of the Legislative Budget Board attached to the bill or resolution on first printing, outlining the fiscal implications... and probable cost of the measure each year for the first five years after its passage and a statement as to whether or not there will be a cost involved thereafter. The fiscal note shall include the number of additional employees considered in arriving at the probable cost.

(c) Any bill or joint resolution that has statewide impact on units of local government of the same type or class and that authorizes or requires, presently or in the future, the expenditure or diversion of local funds, or that proposes any new local tax, fee, license charge, or penalty, or any increased or decreased local tax, fee, license charge, or penalty, shall have a fiscal note signed by the director of the Legislative Budget Board attached to the bill or resolution on first printing, outlining the fiscal implications and probable cost of the measure to the affected unit or units of local government each year for the first five years after its passage and a statement as to whether or not there will be a cost involved thereafter.

If the Legislative Budget Board is unable to acquire or develop sufficient information to prepare the fiscal note required by this subsection within 15 days of receiving a bill or resolution, the director of the Legislative Budget Board shall so state in the fiscal note, in which case the fiscal note shall be in full compliance with the rules.

(d) Before any bill or joint resolution that has impact on any particular unit or units of local government and that mandates, presently or in the future, the expenditure or diversion of local funds, or that mandates any new local tax, fee, license charge, or penalty can be heard in committee, it shall have attached to it a statement prepared by the author giving the author's best estimate of the fiscal implications and probable cost of the measure each year for five years after its passage and a statement as to whether or not there will be a cost involved thereafter. This subsection does not apply to a bill or joint resolution covered by Subsection (c) of this section.

(e) In Subsections (c) and (d) of this section [Sections 3.119(c) and 3.119(d)], “unit of local government” means county, city, town, school district, conservation district, hospital district, or any other political subdivision or special district.

(f) In preparing a fiscal note, the director of the Legislative Budget Board may utilize information or data supplied by any person, agency, organization, or governmental unit that the director deems reliable and shall state the source or sources of the information or data used and may state the extent to which the director relied on the information or data in preparing the fiscal note. If the director determines that the fiscal implications of the bill or resolution cannot be ascertained or that the bill or resolution authorizes an unlimited expenditure or diversion of funds for any period to which the fiscal note applies, the director shall so state in the fiscal note, in which case the fiscal note shall be in full compliance with the rules.

(g) In the event that a bill or resolution is amended by the committee so as to alter its fiscal implications, either an updated fiscal note or author’s statement, whichever is applicable, shall be obtained by the chairman [chair] and attached to the bill or resolution as a part of the committee report.

(h) All fiscal notes or author’s statements, original and updated, shall remain with the bill or resolution throughout the entire legislative process, including submission to the governor. (Sec. 3.119.)
Review Board, attached to the bill or resolution before a committee hearing may be held on it and attached to the bill or resolution on first printing.

(b) An actuarial analysis is not required for the general appropriations bill, a bill or resolution that would change the financial obligations of a retirement system only by modifying the compensation of members of the system, or modifying the administrative duties of the system, or a bill or resolution that would change the financial obligations of a retirement system only by imposing an expense on the system in the same manner that the expense is imposed on other agencies or units of government.

(c) In this section, "public retirement system" means a continuing, organized program of service retirement, disability retirement, or death benefits for officers or employees of the state or a political subdivision, but does not include a program for which benefits are administered by a life insurance company, a program providing only workers' compensation benefits, or a program administered by the federal government.

(d) An actuarial analysis must show the economic effect of the proposed bill or resolution on the public retirement system, including a projection of the annual actuarial cost or liability imposed by the proposal on the system, the effect of the legislation on the amortization schedule for liabilities of the system assuming various levels of payroll increases, and the estimated dollar change in the unfunded liability of the system. If the bill or resolution applies to more than one public retirement system, the projections in the analysis may be limited to each affected statewide public retirement system and each affected system in a city having a population of 200,000 or more, according to the results of the 1980 (1970) federal census.

(e) An actuarial analysis must state the actuarial assumptions and methods of computation used in the analysis and, using an advanced funding actuarial cost method, must state whether or not the bill or resolution, if it becomes law, will make the affected public retirement system actuarially unsound or, in the case of a system already actuarially unsound, more unsound. The actuarial information in an actuarial analysis must be prepared by an actuary who has at least five years of experience working with one or more public retirement systems and who is a fellow of the Society of Actuaries, a member of the American Academy of Actuaries, or an enrolled actuary under the federal Employees Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. An actuarial analysis must contain a certification by the actuary that the contents of the analysis fulfill the requirements of this section. The actuary may include an explanation or description of the actuarial information contained in the analysis.

(f) As soon as practicable after a bill or joint resolution is referred to a standing committee, the committee chairman shall determine whether or not an actuarial analysis is required. If the chairman determines that an actuarial analysis is required, the chairman shall send a copy of the bill or resolution, with actuarial analysis attached, to the Legislative Budget Board with a request that a review of the actuarial analysis be prepared and sent to the committee, and a copy to the Pension Review Board with a request that its review and comment be prepared and sent to the committee. The director of the Legislative Budget Board shall return a copy of the actuarial analysis, together with his statement of review, to the committee that requested it, to the author or sponsor of the affected bill or resolution, and to the State Pension Review Board; and the executive director of the Pension Review Board shall send a copy of its review and comment to the committee and to the author or sponsor.

(g) If the actuarial analysis and the review of the Legislative Budget Board are attached, a committee hearing may be held on the bill or resolution without the review and comment of the Pension Review Board.
(h) If a bill or resolution for which an actuarial analysis is required is amended by a committee in a way that alters its economic implications, the chairman of the committee shall request the Legislative Budget Board to prepare an updated actuarial analysis and shall request the Pension Review Board to prepare an updated review and comment. An updated actuarial analysis must be attached to the affected bill or resolution as a part of the committee report and, if timely received, the updated review and comment of the Pension Review Board must also be attached. All actuarial analyses, review statements of the Legislative Budget Board, and any statements of review and comment timely received from the Pension Review Board must remain with the bill or resolution throughout the legislative process, including the process of submission to the governor. (Sec. 3.120.)

Sec. 32. REPORTS ON HOUSE AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS. Committee reports on house and concurrent resolutions shall be made in the same manner and shall follow the same procedure as provided for bills, subject to any differences otherwise authorized or directed by the rules. (Sec. 3.122.)

Sec. 33. MINORITY REPORTS. The report of a minority of a committee shall be made in the same general form as a majority report. No minority report shall be recognized by the house unless it has been signed by not less than 4 members of a committee consisting of 21 or more members, 3 members of a committee consisting of less than 21 members and more than 10 members, or 2 members of a committee consisting of 10 or less members. Only members who were present when the vote was taken on the bill, resolution, or other matter being reported, and who voted on the losing side, may sign a minority report. Notice of intention to file a minority report shall be given to the assembled committee after the vote on the bill, resolution, or other matter, and before the recess or adjournment of the committee, provided ample opportunity is afforded for the giving of notice; otherwise, notice may be given in writing to the chief clerk within 24 hours after the recess or adjournment of the committee. (Sec. 3.123.)

Sec. 34. ACTION BY HOUSE ON REPORTS NOT REQUIRED. No action by the house is necessary on the report of a standing committee. The bill, resolution, or proposition recommended or reported by the committee shall automatically be before the house for its consideration after the bill or resolution has been referred to the appropriate calendars committee for assignment to a calendar and for determination of an appropriate rule for house consideration. (Sec. 3.124.)

Sec. 35. REFERRAL OF REPORTS TO COMMITTEE COORDINATOR. All committee reports on bills or resolutions shall be immediately referred to the house committee coordinator for compliance with Section 36 of this rule. The chairman of the committee shall be responsible for delivery of the report to the committee coordinator. (Sec. 3.125.)

Sec. 36. VERIFICATION OF COMPLIANCE WITH RULES. In addition to the requirements of Rule 4, Section 6, no committee report shall be eligible for consideration unless first signed by the house committee coordinator to verify compliance with all appropriate sections of the rules. In the event of noncompliance, the committee coordinator shall return the committee report to the committee for correction. In the event of disagreement between a committee chairman and the house committee coordinator concerning compliance with all appropriate sections of the rules, the opinion of the committee chairman shall prevail. (Sec. 3.126.)

Sec. 37. DELIVERY OF REPORTS TO CALENDARS COMMITTEES. After printing, the chief clerk shall be responsible for delivery of a certified copy of the committee report to the appropriate calendars committee for assignment of the bill or resolution to a calendar and for the application of an appropriate rule for house consideration. (Sec. 3.127.)
Sec. 38. ACTION ON BILLS REPORTED UNFAVORABLY. If the majority report on a bill is unfavorable, and a favorable minority report is not signed in accordance with Section 33 of this rule [Section 3.123] and filed with the chief clerk within two calendar days, exclusive of Sunday and the date of committee action, the chief clerk shall file the bill away as dead; except during the last 15 calendar days of a regular session, or the last 7 calendar days of a special session, when the chief clerk shall hold a bill only one calendar day, exclusive of Sunday and the date of committee action, awaiting the filing of a minority report before the bill is filed away as dead. If the favorable minority report is properly signed and filed, the chief clerk shall hold the bill for five legislative days, exclusive of the legislative day in which the minority report was filed, awaiting adoption by the house of a motion to print the bill on minority report. If the motion to print is carried, the bill shall be printed as if it had been reported favorably, and shall immediately be referred to the house committee coordinator for compliance with Section 36 of this rule [Section 3.126], and then to the Committee on Calendars for assignment to a calendar and for determination of an appropriate rule for house consideration. If a motion to print a bill on minority report is not made within the five legislative days authorized above, the chief clerk shall file the bill away as dead. It shall not be in order to move to recommit a bill adversely reported with no minority report, except as provided in Section 39 of this rule [Section 3.129]. A two-thirds vote of the house shall be required to print on minority report a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of Texas. (Sec. 3.128.)

Sec. 39. MAKING ADVERSE REPORTS WITHOUT HEARING THE AUTHOR. No adverse report shall be made on any bill or resolution by any committee without first giving the author or sponsor of the bill an opportunity to be heard. If it becomes evident to the house that a bill has been reported adversely without the author or sponsor having had an opportunity to be heard as provided in this section, the house may, by a majority vote, order the bill recommitted even though no minority report was filed in the manner prescribed by the rules. This provision shall have precedence over Rule 7, Section 20 [Section 4.176]. (Sec. 3.129.)

Sec. 40. ADVERSE REPORTS ON LOCAL BILLS. If a local bill is reported adversely, it shall be subject to the same rules that govern other bills reported adversely. (Sec. 3.130.)

Sec. 41. COMMITTEE AMENDMENTS. No committee shall have the power to amend, delete, or change in any way the nature, purpose, or content of any bill or resolution referred to it, but may draft and recommend amendments to it, which shall become effective only if adopted by a majority vote of the house. (Sec. 3.131.)

Sec. 42. SUBSTITUTES. The committee may adopt and report a complete germane committee substitute containing the title, enacting clause, and text of the bill in lieu of an original bill, in which event the complete substitute bill on committee report shall be laid before the house and shall be the matter then before the house for its consideration, instead of the original bill. If the substitute bill is defeated at any legislative stage, the bill is considered not passed. (Sec. 3.132.)

Sec. 43. GERMANENESS OF SUBSTITUTE. If a point of order is raised that a complete committee substitute is not germane, in whole or in part, and the point of order is sustained, the committee substitute shall be returned to the Committee on Calendars, which may have the original bill printed and distributed and assigned to a calendar in lieu of the substitute or may return the original bill to the committee from which it was reported for further action. (Sec. 3.133.)

Sec. 44. AUTHOR'S RIGHT TO OFFER AMENDMENTS TO REPORT. Should the author or sponsor of the bill, resolution, or other proposal not be satisfied with the final recommendation or form of the committee report, the member shall have the privilege of offering on the floor of the house such amendments or changes as he [or she] considers necessary and desirable, and those amendments or changes shall be given priority during the periods of time when original amendments are in order under the provisions of Rule 12, Section 7 [Section 4.327]. (Sec. 3.134.)

CHAPTER D. SUBCOMMITTEES

Sec. 45. JURISDICTION. Each committee is authorized to conduct its activities and perform its work through the use of subcommittees as shall be determined by the chairman [chair] of the committee. Subcommittees shall be created, organized, and operated in such a way that the subject matter and work area of each subcommittee shall be homogeneous and shall pertain to related governmental activities. The size and jurisdiction of each subcommittee shall be determined by the chairman [chair] of the committee, except as provided in Rule 9 [Subchapter B of Chapter 5]. (Sec. 3.151.)

Sec. 46. MEMBERSHIP. The chairman [chair] of each standing committee shall appoint from the membership of the committee the members who are to serve on each subcommittee. Any vacancy on a subcommittee, except the chairman [chair] for budget and oversight, shall be filled by appointment of the chairman [chair] of the standing committee. The chairman and vice-chairman [chair and vice-chair] of each subcommittee shall be named by the chairman [chair] of the committee, except as provided in Rule 9 [Section 1.24 and Subchapter B of Chapter 5]. (Sec. 3.152.)

Sec. 47. RULES GOVERNING OPERATIONS. The Rules of Procedure of the House of Representatives, to the extent applicable, shall govern the hearings and operations of each subcommittee. Subject to the foregoing, and to the extent necessary for orderly transaction of business, each subcommittee may promulgate and adopt additional rules and procedures by which it will function. (Sec. 3.153.)

Sec. 48. QUORUM. A majority of a subcommittee shall constitute a quorum, and no action or recommendation of a subcommittee shall be valid unless taken at a meeting with a quorum actually present. All reports of a subcommittee must be approved by record vote by a majority of the membership of the subcommittee. Minutes of the subcommittee shall be maintained in a manner similar to that required by the rules for standing committees. Proxies cannot be used in subcommittees. (Sec. 3.154.)

Sec. 49. POWER AND AUTHORITY. Each subcommittee, within the area of its jurisdiction, shall have all of the power, authority, and rights granted by the Rules of Procedure of the House of Representatives to the standing committee, except subpoena power, to the extent necessary to discharge the duties and responsibilities of the subcommittee. (Sec. 3.155.)

Sec. 50. REFERRAL OF PROPOSED LEGISLATION TO SUBCOMMITTEE. All bills and resolutions referred to a standing committee shall be reviewed by the chairman [chair] to determine appropriate disposition of the bills and resolutions. All bills and resolutions shall be considered by the entire standing committee unless the chairman [chair] of that standing committee determines to refer the bills and resolutions to subcommittee. If a bill or resolution is referred by the chairman [chair] of the standing committee to a subcommittee, the subcommittee shall be charged with the duty and responsibility of conducting the hearing, doing research, and performing such other functions as the subcommittee or its parent standing committee may determine. All meetings of the subcommittee shall be scheduled by the subcommittee chairman [chair], with appropriate public notice and notification of each member of the subcommittee under the same rules of procedure as govern the conduct of the standing committee. (Sec. 3.156.)

Sec. 51. REPORT BY SUBCOMMITTEE. At the conclusion of its deliberations on a bill, resolution, or other matter referred to it, the subcommittee shall prepare a written report, comprehensive in nature, for submission to the full committee. The report shall include background material as well as recommended action and shall be accompanied by a complete draft of the bill, resolution, or other proposal in such form as the subcommittee shall determine. (Sec. 3.157.)

Sec. 52. ACTION ON SUBCOMMITTEE REPORTS. Subcommittee reports shall be directed to the chairman [chair] of the committee, who shall schedule [format] meetings of the standing committee from time to time as necessary and appropriate for the reception of subcommittee reports and for action on reports by the standing committee. No subcommittee report shall be scheduled for action by the standing committee until at least 48 hours after a copy of the subcommittee report is provided to each member of the standing committee. (Sec. 3.158.)

CHAPTER E. COMMITTEES OF THE WHOLE HOUSE

Sec. 53. RESOLUTION INTO A COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE HOUSE. The house may resolve itself into a committee of the whole house to consider any matter referred to it by the house. In forming a committee of the whole house, the speaker shall vacate the chair and shall appoint a chairman [chair] to preside in committee. (Sec. 3.181.)

Sec. 54. RULES GOVERNING OPERATIONS. The rules governing the proceedings of the house and those governing committees shall be observed in committees of the whole, to the extent that they are applicable. (Sec. 3.182.)

Sec. 55. MOTION FOR A CALL OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE. (a) It shall be in order to move a call of the committee of the whole at any time to secure and maintain a quorum for the following purposes:

(1) for the consideration of a certain or specific matter; or
(2) for a definite period of time; or
(3) for the consideration of any designated class of bills.

(b) When a call of the committee of the whole is moved and seconded by 10 members, of whom the chairman [chair] may be one, and is ordered by majority vote, the main entrance of the hall and all other doors leading out of the hall shall be locked, and no member shall be permitted to leave the hall without written permission. Other proceedings under a call of the committee shall be the same as under a call of the house. (Sec. 3.183.)

Sec. 56. HANDLING OF A BILL. A bill committed to a committee of the whole house shall be handled in the same manner as in any other committee. The body of the bill shall not be defaced or interlined, but all amendments shall be duly endorsed by the chief clerk as they are adopted by the committee, and so reported to the house. When a bill is reported by the committee of the whole house, it shall be referred immediately to the appropriate calendars committee [Committee on Calendars] for assignment to the appropriate calendar and shall follow the same procedure as any other bill on committee report. (Sec. 3.184.)

Sec. 57. FAILURE TO COMPLETE WORK AT ANY SITTING. In the event that the committee of the whole, at any sitting, fails to complete its work on any bill or resolution under consideration for lack of time, or desires to take any action on that measure that is permitted under the rules for other committees, it may, on a motion made and adopted by majority vote, rise, report progress, and ask leave of the house to sit again generally, or at a time certain. (Sec. 3.185.)

Sec. 58. REPORTS OF SELECT COMMITTEES. Reports of select committees made during a session shall be filed with the chief clerk and printed in the journal, unless otherwise determined by the house. (Sec. 3.121.)

CHAPTER A. QUORUM ATTENDANCE

Sec. 1. QUORUM. Two-thirds of the house shall constitute a quorum to do business.
Sec. 2. ROLL CALLS. On every roll call or registration, the names of the members shall be called or listed, as the case may be, alphabetically by surname, except when two or more have the same surname, in which case the initials of the members shall be added. (Sec. 4.001.)

Sec. 3. LEAVE OF ABSENCE. (a) No member shall be absent from the sessions of the house without leave, and no member shall be excused on his [or her] own motion.

(b) A leave of absence may be granted by a majority vote of the house and may be revoked at any time by a similar vote. (Sec. 4.002.)

[Sec. 4.003. RECORDING NAMES OF ABSENTEES. The names of all absentees, both excused and not excused, shall be printed in the journal.]

Sec. 4. FAILURE TO ANSWER ROLL CALL. Any member who is present and fails or refuses to record on a roll call after being requested to do so by the speaker shall be recorded as present by the speaker and shall be counted for the purpose of making a quorum. (Sec. 4.004.)

Sec. 5. POINT OF ORDER OF "NO QUORUM." (a) The point of order of "No Quorum" shall not be accepted by the chair if the last roll call showed the presence of a quorum.

(b) Once a point of order has been made that a quorum is not present, it may not be withdrawn after the absence of a quorum has been ascertained and announced. (Sec. 4.005.)

Sec. 6. MOTIONS IN ORDER WHEN QUORUM NOT PRESENT. If a registration or record vote reveals that a quorum is not present, only a motion to adjourn or a motion for a call of the house and the motions incidental thereto shall be in order. (Sec. 4.006.)

Sec. 7. MOTION FOR CALL OF THE HOUSE. It shall be in order to move a call of the house at any time to secure and maintain a quorum for one of the following purposes:

1. for the consideration of a specific bill, resolution, motion, or other measure;
2. for the consideration of any designated class of bills; or
3. for a definite period of time.

Motions for, and incidental to, a call of the house are not debatable. (Sec. 4.007.)

Sec. 8. SECURING A QUORUM. When a call of the house is moved for one of the above purposes and seconded by 15 members (of whom the speaker may be one) and ordered by a majority vote, the main entrance to the hall and all other doors leading out of the hall shall be locked and no member permitted to leave the house without the written permission of the speaker. The names of members present shall be recorded. All absentees for whom no sufficient excuse is made may, by order of a majority of those present, be sent for and arrested, wherever they may be found, by the sergeant-at-arms or an officer appointed by the sergeant-at-arms for that purpose, and their attendance shall be secured and retained. The house shall determine on what conditions they shall be discharged. Members who voluntarily appear shall, unless the house otherwise directs, be immediately admitted to the hall of the house and shall report their names to the clerk to be entered in the journal as present.

Until a quorum appears, should the roll call fail to show one present, no business shall be transacted, except to compel the attendance of absent members or to adjourn. It shall not be in order to recess under a call of the house. (Sec. 4.008.)

Sec. 9. FOLLOWING ACHIEVEMENT OF A QUORUM. When a quorum is shown to be present, the house may proceed with the matters on which the call was ordered, or may enforce the call and await the attendance of as many of the absentees as it desires. When the house proceeds to the business on which the call was ordered, it may, by a majority vote, direct the sergeant-at-arms to cease bringing in absent members. (Sec. 4.009.)

Sec. 10. REPEATING A RECORD VOTE. When a record vote reveals the lack of a quorum, and a call is ordered to secure one, a record vote shall again be taken when the house resumes business with a quorum present. (Sec. 4.010.)

CHAPTER B. ADMITTANCE TO HOUSE CHAMBER

Sec. 11. PRIVILEGES OF THE HOUSE FLOOR. Only the following persons shall be entitled to the privileges of the floor of the house when the house is in session: members of the house; employees of the house when performing their official duties as determined by the Committee on House Administration; members of the senate; employees of the senate when performing their official duties; the Governor of Texas and the governor's executive and administrative assistant; the lieutenant governor; the secretary of state; duly accredited reporters, photographers, correspondents, and commentators of press, radio, and television who have complied with Sections 22(a) [4.832(a)], (b), (c), and (d) of this rule; contestants in election cases pending before the house; and immediate families of the members of the legislature on such special occasions as may be determined by the Committee on House Administration. (Sec. 4.021.)

Sec. 12. ADMITTANCE WITHIN THE RAILING. Only the following persons shall be admitted to the area on the floor of the house enclosed by the railing when the house is in session: members of the house; members of the senate; the governor; the lieutenant governor; officers and employees of the senate and house when those officers and employees are actually engaged in performing their official duties as determined by the Committee on House Administration; spouses of members of the house on such occasions as may be determined by the Committee on House Administration; and duly accredited reporters, photographers, correspondents, and commentators of press, radio, and television who have complied with Sections 22(a) [4.832(a)], (b), (c), and (d) of this rule. (Sec. 4.022.)

Sec. 13. SOLICITORS AND COLLECTORS PROHIBITED. Solicitors and collectors shall not be admitted to the floor of the house while the house is in session. (Sec. 4.023.)

Sec. 14. INVITATION TO ADDRESS THE HOUSE. A motion to invite a person to address the house while it is in session shall be in order only if the person invited is entitled to the privileges of the floor as defined by Section 11 of this rule and if no business is pending before the house. (Sec. 4.024.)

Sec. 15. LOBBYING ON FLOOR. No one, except the governor or a member of the legislature, who is lobbying or working for or against any pending or prospective legislative measure shall be permitted on the floor of the house or in the adjacent rooms while the house is in session. (Sec. 4.025.)

Sec. 16. SUSPENSION OF FLOOR PRIVILEGES. If any person admitted to the floor of the house under this subchapter, except the governor or a member of the legislature, lobbies or works for or against any pending or prospective legislation or violates any of the other rules of the house, the privileges extended to that person under this subchapter shall be suspended by a majority vote of the Committee on House Administration. The action of the committee shall be reviewable by the house only if two members of the committee request an appeal from the decision of the committee. The request shall be in the form of a minority report and shall be subject to the same rules that are applicable to minority reports on bills. Suspension shall remain in force until the accused person purges himself and comes within the rules, or until the house, by majority vote, reverses the action of the committee. (Sec. 4.026.)

Sec. 17. MEMBERS LOUNGE PRIVILEGES. Only the following persons shall be admitted to the members lounge at any time: members of the house; members of the senate; and former members of the house and senate who are not engaged in any form of employment requiring them to lobby or work for or against any pending or prospective legislative measures. (Sec. 4.027.)

Sec. 18. FLOOR DUTIES OF HOUSE OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES. It shall be the duty of the Committee on House Administration to determine what duties are to be discharged by officers and employees of the house on the floor of the house, specifically in the area enclosed by the railing, when the house is in session. It shall be the duty of the speaker to see that the officers and employees do not violate the regulations promulgated by the Committee on House Administration. (Sec. 4.028.)

Sec. 19. PROPER ATTIRE. No member [gentleman] shall be admitted to, or allowed to remain in, the house chamber while the house is in session unless properly attired, and all gentlemen shall wear a coat and tie [he is wearing a coat and a tie]. (Sec. 4.029.)

Sec. 20. FOOD OR BEVERAGE PROHIBITED. Food or beverage shall not be permitted in the house chamber at any time, and no person carrying food or beverage shall be admitted to the chamber, whether the house is in session or in recess. (Sec. 4.030.)

Sec. 21. READING NEWSPAPERS PROHIBITED. Reading newspapers shall not be permitted in the house chamber while the house is in session. (Sec. 4.031.)

Sec. 22. MEDIA ACCESS TO HOUSE CHAMBER. (a) When the house is in session, no media representative shall be admitted to the floor of the house or allowed its privileges unless the person is a salaried staff correspondent, reporter, or photographer regularly employed by a newspaper, a press association or news service serving newspapers, a publication requiring telegraphic coverage, or a duly licensed radio or television station or network.

(b) Any media representative seeking admission to the floor of the house under the provisions of Subsection (a) of this section [Section 4.032(a)] must present to the Committee on House Administration fully accredited credentials from his [or-her] employer certifying that the media representative is engaged primarily in reporting the sessions of the legislature. Regularly accredited media representatives who have duly qualified under the provisions of this section may, when requested to do so, make recommendations through their professional committees to the Committee on House Administration as to the sufficiency or insufficiency of the credentials of any person seeking admission to the floor of the house under this section.

Every media representative, before being admitted to the floor of the house during its sessions, shall file with the Committee on House Administration a written statement showing the paper or papers, press association, news service, publication requiring telegraphic coverage, or radio or television station or network which he [or-she] represents and certifying that no part of his [or-her] salary for legislative coverage is paid by any person, firm, corporation, or association except the listed news media which he [or-she] represents.

(c) If the Committee on House Administration determines that a person's media credentials meet the requirements of this section, the committee shall so notify the speaker of the house in writing, and the speaker shall issue a pass card to the person. This pass card must be presented to the doorkeeper each time the person seeks admission to the floor of the house while the house is in session. Pass cards issued under this section shall not be transferable. Persons admitted to the floor of the house pursuant to the provisions of this section shall work in appropriate convenient seats or work stations in the house, which shall be designated for that purpose by the Committee on House Administration.

(d) Media representatives who are admitted to the floor of the house when the house is in session shall confine their activities within the railing to very brief inquiries, brief, nonilluminated photographic contacts, and brief contacts to arrange interviews and press conferences with members of the house. Members of the house shall not engage in interviews and press conferences on the house floor while the house is in session. The Committee on House Administration is authorized to enforce this provision and to prescribe such other regulations as may be necessary and desirable to achieve these purposes. Persons governed by this subsection shall be subject to the provisions of Section 15 of this rule [Section 4.625].

(c) Permission to make live or recorded television or radio broadcasts in or from the house chamber while the house is in session may be granted only by the Committee on House Administration. The committee shall promulgate regulations governing television or radio broadcasts, and such regulations shall be printed as an addendum to the rules of the house. When television or radio broadcasts from the floor of the house are recommended by the Committee on House Administration, the recommendation shall identify those persons in the technical crews to whom pass cards to the floor of the house and galleries are to be issued by the speaker. Passes granted under this authority shall be subject to revocation on the recommendation of the Committee on House Administration. Each committee of the house shall have authority to determine whether or not to permit television or radio broadcasts of any of its proceedings. (Sec. 4.032.)

Sec. 23. PUBLIC ADMISSION TO AND NONLEGISLATIVE USE OF THE HOUSE CHAMBER. When the house is not in session, the floor of the house shall remain open on days and hours determined by the Committee on House Administration. By resolution, the house may open the floor of the house during its sessions for the inauguration of the governor and lieutenant governor and for such other public ceremonies as may be deemed warranted. (Sec. 4.033.)

CHAPTER C. SPEAKING AND DEBATE

Sec. 24. ADDRESSING THE HOUSE. When a member desires to speak or deliver any matter to the house, the member shall rise and respectfully address the speaker as "Mr. [or Madam]" Speaker and, on being recognized, may address the house from the microphone at the reading clerk’s desk, and shall confine all remarks to the question under debate, avoiding personalities. (Sec. 4.101.)

Sec. 25. WHEN TWO MEMBERS RISE AT ONCE. When two or more members rise at once, the speaker shall name the one who is to speak first. This decision shall be final and not open to debate or appeal. (Sec. 4.102.)

Sec. 26. RECOGNITION. There shall be no appeal from the speaker's recognition, but the speaker shall be governed by rules and usage in priority of entertaining motions from the floor. When a member seeks recognition, the speaker may ask, "For what purpose does the member rise?" or "For what purpose does the member seek recognition?" and may then decide if recognition is to be granted. (Sec. 4.103.)

Sec. 27. INTERRUPTION OF A MEMBER WHO HAS THE FLOOR. A member who has the floor shall not be interrupted by another member for any purpose, unless he [or she] consents to yield to the other member. A member desiring to interrupt another in debate should first address the speaker for the permission of the member speaking. The speaker shall then ask the member who has the floor if he [or she] wishes to yield, and then announce the decision of that member. The member who has the floor may exercise personal discretion as to whether or not to yield, and it is entirely within the member's discretion to determine who shall interrupt and when. (Sec. 4.104.)

Sec. 28. YIELDING THE FLOOR. A member who obtains the floor on recognition of the speaker may not be taken off the floor by a motion, even the highly privileged motion to adjourn, but if the member yields to another to make a motion or to offer an amendment, he [or she] thereby loses the floor. (Sec. 4.105.)
Sec. 29. RIGHT TO OPEN AND CLOSE DEBATE. The mover of any proposition, or the member reporting any measure from a committee, or, in the absence of either of them, any other member designated by such absentee, shall have the right to open and close the debate, and for this purpose may speak each time not more than 20 minutes. (Sec. 4.106.)

Sec. 30. TIME LIMITS ON SPEECHES. All speeches shall be limited to 10 minutes in duration, except as provided in Section 29 of this rule [4:106], and the speaker shall call the members to order at the expiration of their time. If the house by a majority vote extends the time of any member, the extension shall be for 10 minutes only. A second extension of time shall be granted only by unanimous consent. During the last 10 calendar days of the regular session, and the last 5 calendar days of a special session, Sundays excepted, all speeches shall be limited to 10 minutes and shall not be extended. The time limits established by this rule shall include time consumed in yielding to questions from the floor. (Sec. 4.107.)

Sec. 31. LIMIT ON NUMBER OF TIMES TO SPEAK. No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the house, nor more than once until every member choosing to speak has spoken, nor shall any member be permitted to consume the time of another member without leave of the house being given by a majority vote. (Sec. 4.108.)

Sec. 32. EFFECT OF ADJOURNMENT ON SPEAKING LIMIT. If a pending question is not disposed of because of an adjournment of the house, a member who has spoken twice on the subject shall not be allowed to speak again without leave of the house. (Sec. 4.109.)

Sec. 33. OBJECTION TO READING A PAPER. When the reading of a paper is called for, and objection is made, the matter shall be determined by a majority vote of the house, without debate. (Sec. 4.110.)

Sec. 34. PASSING BETWEEN MICROPHONES DURING DEBATE. No person shall pass between the front and back microphones during debate or when a member has the floor and is addressing the house. (Sec. 4.111.)

Sec. 35. TRANSGRESSION OF RULES WHILE SPEAKING. If any member, in speaking or otherwise, transgresses the rules of the house, the speaker shall, or any member may, call the member to order, in which case the member so called to order shall immediately be seated; however, that member may move for an appeal to the house, and if appeal is duly seconded by 10 members, the matter shall be submitted to the house for decision by majority vote. In such cases, the speaker shall not be required to relinquish the chair, as is required in cases of appeals from the speaker’s decisions. The house shall, if appealed to, decide the matter without debate. If the decision is in favor of the member called to order, the member shall be at liberty to proceed; but if the decision is against the member, he [or she] shall not be allowed to proceed, and, if the case requires it, shall be liable to the censure of the house, or such other punishment as the house may consider proper. (Sec. 4.112.)

Sec. 36. ELECTRONIC RECORDING OF ALL HOUSE PROCEEDINGS. All proceedings of the house of representatives shall be electronically recorded under the direction of the Committee on House Administration. A transcript of the testimony shall be furnished by the Committee on House Administration to any member requesting it, with the expense of the transcript to be charged to the contingent expense account of the member. Copies of the electronic recordings shall not be released to anyone by the Committee on House Administration, except that a member of the house may get a copy of the electronic recording of the member’s own remarks, with any expense for the copy to be charged to his [or her] contingent expense account. (Sec. 4.113.)

CHAPTER D. QUESTIONS OF PRIVILEGE
Sec. 37. QUESTIONS OF PRIVILEGE DEFINED. Questions of privilege shall be:

(1) those affecting the rights of the house collectively, its safety and dignity, and the integrity of its proceedings; and

(2) those affecting the rights, reputation, and conduct of members individually in their representative capacity only. (Sec. 4.131.)

Sec. 38. PRECEDENCE OF QUESTIONS OF PRIVILEGE. Questions of privilege shall have precedence over all other questions except motions to adjourn. When in order, a member may address the house on a question of privilege, or may at any time print it in the journal, provided it contains no reflection on any member of the house. (Sec. 4.132.)

Sec. 39. WHEN QUESTIONS OF PRIVILEGE NOT IN ORDER. It shall not be in order for a member to address the house on a question of privilege:

(1) between the time an undebatable motion is offered and the vote is taken on the motion;

(2) between the time the previous question is ordered and the vote is taken on the last proposition included under the previous question; or

(3) between the time a motion to table is offered and the vote is taken on the motion. (Sec. 4.133.)

Sec. 40. CONFINING REMARKS TO QUESTION OF PRIVILEGE. When speaking on privilege, members must confine their remarks within the limits of Section 37 of this rule [4:139], which will be strictly construed to achieve the purposes hereof. (Sec. 4.134.)

Sec. 41. DISCUSSION OF MERITS OF MOTION FORBIDDEN. Merits of a main or subsidiary motion shall not be discussed or debated under the guise of speaking to a question of privilege. (Sec. 4.135.)

CHAPTER E. VOTING

Sec. 42. RECORDING ALL VOTES ON VOTING MACHINE. On all votes, except viva voce votes, members shall record their votes on the voting machine and shall not be recognized by the chair to cast their votes from the floor. If a member attempts to vote from the floor, the speaker shall sustain a point of order directed against the member's so doing. This rule shall not be applicable to the mover or the principal opponent of the proposition being voted on nor to a member whose voting machine is out of order. (Sec. 4.231.)

Sec. 43. REGISTRATION EQUIVALENT TO ROLL CALL VOTE. A registration or vote taken on the voting machine of the house shall in all instances be considered the equivalent of a roll call or yeas and nays vote, which might be had for the same purpose. (Sec. 4.232.)

Sec. 44. DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL OR PRIVATE INTEREST. Any member who has a personal or private interest in any measure or bill proposed or pending before the house shall disclose the fact and not vote thereon. (Sec. 4.233.)

Sec. 45. DIVIDING THE QUESTION. On the demand of any member, before the question is put, the question shall be divided, if it includes propositions so distinct in substance that, one being taken away, a substantive proposition remains. A demand for a division vote can be made even after the previous question has been ordered, but cannot be made after a motion to table has been offered, nor after the question has been put, nor after the yeas and nays have been ordered. (Sec. 4.234.)

Sec. 46. FAILURE OR REFUSAL TO VOTE. Any member who is present and fails or refuses to vote after being requested to do so by the speaker shall be recorded as present but not voting, and shall be counted for the purpose of making a quorum. (Sec. 4.235.)

Sec. 47. PRESENCE IN HOUSE REQUIRED IN ORDER TO VOTE. A member must be on the floor of the house or in an adjacent room or halfway on the same level as the house floor, in order to vote; but members who are out of the house when a record vote is taken and who wish to be recorded shall be permitted to do so provided:
(1) they were out of the house temporarily, having been recorded earlier as present;
(2) the vote is submitted to the journal clerk within two hours [one hour] of the time the vote was actually registered on the house voting machine and the results announced by the chair but not after adjournment or recess to another calendar day; and
(3) the recording of their votes does not change the result as announced by the chair. (Sec. 4.236.)
Sec. 48. LOCKING VOTING MACHINES OF ABSENT MEMBERS.
During each calendar day in which the house is in session, it shall be the duty of the reading clerk to lock the voting machine of each member who is excused or who is otherwise known to be absent. Each such machine shall remain locked until the member in person contacts the journal clerk and personally requests the unlocking of the machine. Unless otherwise directed by the speaker, the reading clerk shall not unlock any machine except at the personal request of the member to whom the machine is assigned. Any violation, or any attempt by a member or employee to circumvent the letter or spirit of this section, shall be reported immediately to the speaker for such disciplinary action by the speaker, or by the house, as may be warranted under the circumstances. (Sec. 4.237.)
Sec. 49. VOTING FOR ANOTHER MEMBER. Any member found guilty by the house of knowingly voting for another member on the voting machine shall be subject to discipline deemed appropriate by the house. (Sec. 4.238.)
Sec. 50. INTERRUPTION OF A ROLL CALL. Once a roll call has begun, it may not be interrupted for any reason. While a yea and nay vote is being taken, or the vote is being counted, no member shall visit the reading clerk’s desk.
(Sec. 4.239.)
Sec. 51. EXPLANATION OF VOTE. (a) No member shall be allowed to interrupt the vote or to make any explanation of a vote that the member is about to give after the voting machine has been opened, but may record in the journal the reasons for giving such a vote.
(b) A “Reason for Vote” must be in writing and filed with the journal clerk within two hours [one hour] of the time the vote was taken but not after adjournment or recess to another calendar day. Such “Reason for Vote” shall not discuss personalities or contain any personal reflection on any member of the legislature, the speaker, the lieutenant governor, or the governor, and shall not in any other manner transgress the rules of the house relating to decorum and debate.
(c) A member absent when a vote was taken may file with the journal clerk while the house is in session a statement of how the member would have voted if present. The statement shall be printed in the journal on the date filed. (Sec. 4.240.)
Sec. 52. PAIRS. All pairs must be announced before the vote is declared by the speaker, and a written statement sent to the journal clerk. The statement must be signed by the absent member to the pair, or the member’s signature must have been authorized in writing, by telegram, or by telephone, and satisfactory evidence presented to the speaker if deemed necessary. If authorized by telephone, the call must be to and confirmed by the chief clerk in advance of the vote to which it applies. Pairs shall be entered in the journal, and the member present shall be counted to make a quorum. (Sec. 4.241.)
Sec. 53. ENTRY OF YEA AND NAY VOTE IN JOURNAL. At the desire of any three members present, the yeas and nays of the members of the house on any question shall be taken and entered in the journal. No member or members shall be allowed to call for a yea and nay vote after a vote has been declared by the speaker. A motion to expunge a yea and nay vote from the journal shall not be in order. (Sec. 4.242.)

Sec. 54. JOURNAL RECORDING OF NONRECORD VOTES. On nonrecord votes members may have their votes recorded in the journal as “yea” or “nay” by filing such information with the journal clerk within two hours [one hour] of the time the results are announced by the chair but not after adjournment or recess to another calendar day. (Sec. 4.243.)

Sec. 55. CHANGING A VOTE. Before the result of a vote has been finally and conclusively pronounced by the chair, but not thereafter, a member may change his [or her] vote; however, if a member’s vote is erroneous, the member shall be allowed to change that vote at a later time provided:

(1) the result of the record vote is not changed thereby;
(2) the request is made known to the house by the chair and permission for the change is granted by unanimous consent; and
(3) a notation is made in the journal that the member’s vote was changed. (Sec. 4.244.)

Sec. 56. TIE VOTE. All matters on which a vote may be taken by the house shall require for adoption a favorable affirmative vote as required by these rules, and in the case of a tie vote, the matter shall be considered lost. (Sec. 4.245.)

Sec. 57. VERIFICATION OF A YEA AND NAY VOTE. When the result of a yea and nay vote is close, the speaker may on the request of any member order a verification vote, or the speaker may order a verification on his [or her] own initiative. During verification, no member shall change a vote unless it was erroneously recorded, nor may any member not having voted cast a vote; however, when the clerk errs in reporting the yeas and nays, and correction thereof leaves decisive effect to the speaker’s vote, the speaker may exercise the right to vote, even though the result has been announced. A verification shall be called for immediately after the vote is announced. The speaker shall not entertain a request for verification after the house has proceeded to the next question, or after a recess or an adjournment. A vote to recess or adjourn, like any other proposition, may be verified. Only one vote verification can be pending at a time. A verification may be dispensed with by a two-thirds vote. (Sec. 4.246.)

Sec. 58. VERIFICATION OF A REGISTRATION. The speaker may allow the verification of a registration (as differentiated from a record vote) if in the speaker’s opinion there is serious doubt as to the presence of a quorum. (Sec. 4.247.)

Sec. 59. MOTION FOR A CALL OF THE HOUSE PENDING VERIFICATION. A motion for a call of the house, and all incidental motions relating to it, shall be in order pending the verification of a vote. These motions must be made before the roll call on verification begins, and it shall not be in order to break into the roll call to make them. (Sec. 4.248.)

Sec. 60. ERRONEOUS ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE RESULT OF A VOTE. If, by an error of the clerk in reporting the yeas and nays from a registration, the speaker announces a result different from that shown by the registration or verification, the status of the question shall be determined by the vote as actually recorded. If the vote is erroneously announced in such a way as to change the true result, all subsequent proceedings in connection therewith shall fail, and the journal shall be amended accordingly. (Sec. 4.249.)

RULE 6. ORDER OF BUSINESS AND CALENDARS

Sec. 1. DAILY ORDER OF BUSINESS. (a) When the house convenes on a new legislative day, the daily order of business shall be as follows:

(1) Call to order by speaker.
(2) Registration of members.
(3) Prayer by chaplain, unless the invocation has been given previously on the particular calendar day.
(4) Excuses for absence of members and officers.
(5) First reading and reference to committee of bills filed with the chief clerk; and motions to introduce bills, when such motions are required.
(6) Requests to print bills and other papers; requests of committees for further time to consider papers referred to them; and all other routine motions and business not otherwise provided for, all of which shall be undebatable except that the mover and one opponent of the motion shall be allowed three minutes each.

The mover of a routine motion shall be allowed his [or her] choice of making the opening or the closing speech under this rule. If the house, under a suspension of the rules, extends the time of a member under this rule, such extensions shall be for three minutes. Subsidiary motions that are applicable to routine motions shall be in order, but the makers of such subsidiary motions shall not be entitled to speak thereon in the routine motion period, nor shall the authors of the original routine motions be allowed any additional time because of subsidiary motions.

(7) Unfinished business.
(8) Postponed matters to be laid before the house in accordance with Rule 7. Section 15 [Section 4.165].
(9) Calendars of the house in their order of priority in accordance with Section 7 of this rule [Subchapter D], unless a different order is determined under other provisions of these rules.

(b) When the house reconvenes for the first time on a new calendar day following a recess, the daily order of business shall be:
(1) Call to order by the speaker.
(2) Registration of members.
(3) Prayer by the chaplain.
(4) Excuses for absence of members and officers.
(5) Pending business.
(6) Calendars of the house in their order of priority in accordance with Section 7 of this rule [Subchapter D], unless a different order is determined under other provisions of these rules. (Sec. 4.051.)

Sec. 2. SPECIAL ORDERS. (a) Any bill, resolution, or other measure may on any day be made a special order for the same day or for a future day of the session by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members present. A motion to set a special order shall be subject to the three-minute pro and con debate rule. When once established as a special order, a bill, resolution, or other measure shall be considered from day to day until disposed of; and until it has been disposed of, no further special orders shall be made.

A three-quarters vote of the members present shall be required to suspend the portion of this rule which specifies that only one special order may be made and pending at a time.

(b) After the first six items under the daily order of business for a legislative day have been passed, a special order shall have precedence when the hour for its consideration has arrived, except as provided in Rule 8. Section 15 [Section 5.015]. (Sec. 4.052.)

Sec. 3. POSTPONEMENT OF A SPECIAL ORDER. A special order may be postponed to a day certain by a two-thirds vote of those present [the house], and when so postponed, shall be considered as disposed of so far as its place as a special order is concerned. (Sec. 4.053.)

Sec. 4. TABLED MEASURES AS SPECIAL ORDERS. A bill or resolution laid on the table subject to call may be made a special order. (Sec. 4.054.)

Sec. 5. SUBSTITUTION IN MOTION FOR A SPECIAL ORDER. When a motion is pending to set a particular bill or resolution as a special order, it shall not be in order to move as a substitute to set another bill or resolution as a special order. It shall be in order, however, to substitute, by majority vote, a different time for the special order consideration than that given in the original motion. (Sec. 4.055.)

Sec. 6. MEMBER'S SUSPENSION AND SPECIAL ORDER PRIVILEGES. If a member moves to set a bill or joint resolution as a special order, or moves to suspend the rules to take up a bill or joint resolution out of its regular order, and the motion prevails, the member shall not have the right to make either of these motions again until every other member has had an opportunity, via either of these motions, to have some bill or joint resolution considered out of its regular order during that session of the legislature. A member shall not lose the suspension privilege if the motion to suspend or set for special order does not prevail. (Sec. 4.056.)

Sec. 7. SYSTEM OF CALENDARS. Legislative business of the house shall be controlled by a system of calendars, consisting of the following:

1. EMERGENCY CALENDAR, to which shall be assigned all bills considered to be of such pressing and imperative import as to demand immediate action, all bills to raise revenue and levy taxes, and the general appropriations bill. A bill submitted as an emergency matter by the governor may also be assigned to this calendar.

2. MAJOR STATE CALENDAR, to which shall be assigned all bills of statewide effect, not emergency in nature, which establish or change state policy in a major field of governmental activity and which will have a major impact in application throughout the state without regard to class, area, or other limiting factors.

3. CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS CALENDAR, to which shall be assigned all joint resolutions proposing amendments to the Texas Constitution and all joint resolutions proposing the ratification of amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

4. GENERAL STATE CALENDAR, to which shall be assigned all bills of statewide effect, not emergency in nature, which establish or change state law and which have application to all areas but are limited in legal effect by classification or other factors which minimize the impact to something less than major state policy, and all bills, not emergency in nature, which are not on a local or consent calendar.

5. LOCAL CALENDAR, to which shall be assigned all local bills, not emergency in nature, as defined by Section 5.010(c), and which have been recommended for the local calendar by the appropriate standing committee.

6. CONSENT CALENDAR, to which shall be assigned all bills, not emergency in nature, regardless of extent and scope, on which there is such general agreement as to render improbable any opposition to the consideration and passage thereof, and which have been recommended for the consent calendar by the appropriate standing committee.

7. RESOLUTIONS CALENDAR, to which shall be assigned all house resolutions and concurrent resolutions, not emergency in nature and not privileged except those resolutions whose sole intent is to congratulate, memorialize, or otherwise express concern or commendation.

8. CONGRATULATORY AND MEMORIAL RESOLUTIONS [MOTIONS] CALENDAR, to which shall be assigned all congratulatory and memorial resolutions whose sole intent is to congratulate, memorialize, or otherwise express concern or commendation. (Sec. 4.071.)

Sec. 8. SENATE BILL CALENDARS. (a) Senate bills and resolutions pending in the house shall follow the same procedure with regard to calendars as house bills and resolutions, but separate calendars shall be maintained for senate bills and resolutions, and consideration of them on senate bill days shall have priority in the manner and order specified in this rule [subchapter].

(b) No other business shall be considered on days devoted to the consideration of senate bills when there remain any bills on any of the senate calendars, except with the consent of the senate. When all senate calendars are clear, the house may proceed to a consideration of house calendars on senate bill days. (Sec. 4.072.)

Sec. 9. PERIODS FOR CONSIDERATION OF CONGRATULATORY AND MEMORIAL RESOLUTIONS [MOTIONS] CALENDAR. As the volume of legislation shall warrant, the Committee on Rules and Resolutions shall move to designate periods for the consideration of the congratulatory and memorial resolutions [motions] calendar. Each such motion shall require a two-thirds vote for its adoption. In each instance, the Committee on Rules and Resolutions shall prepare and distribute to each member a printed calendar at least 48 hours in advance of the hour set for consideration. No memorial or congratulatory resolution will be heard by the full house without having first been approved, at least 48 hours in advance, through the committee process by the Committee on Rules and Resolutions. The calendar will contain the resolution number, the author's name, and a brief description of the intent of the resolution. Once a printed calendar is distributed, no additional resolutions will be added to it, and the requirements of this section shall not be subject to suspension. (Sec. 4.073.)

Sec. 10. PROCEDURE FOR CONSIDERATION OF CONGRATULATORY AND MEMORIAL RESOLUTIONS [MOTIONS] CALENDAR. During the consideration of the congratulatory and memorial resolutions [motions] calendar, such resolutions shall not be read in full unless they pertain to members or former members of the legislature, and all other such resolutions shall be read only by number, type of resolution, and name of the person or persons designated in the resolutions. In addition, the following procedures shall be observed:

(1) The chair shall allow the sponsor of each resolution three minutes to explain the measure, and the time shall not be extended except by unanimous consent of the house. This rule shall have precedence over all other rules limiting time for debate.

(2) If it develops that any resolution on the congratulatory and memorial resolutions [motions] calendar does not belong on that calendar, the chair shall withdraw the resolution from further consideration, remove it from the calendar, and refer it to the appropriate calendars committee for assignment to the proper calendar. (Sec. 4.074.)

Sec. 11. ORDER OF CONSIDERATION OF CALENDARS. Except for local calendars, consent calendars, resolutions calendars, and congratulatory and memorial resolutions [motions] calendars, consideration of calendars shall be in the order named in Section 2 of this rule [4.074], subject to any exceptions ordered by the Committee on Calendars. (Sec. 4.075.)

Sec. 12. PERIODS FOR CONSIDERATION OF LOCAL, CONSENT, AND RESOLUTIONS CALENDARS. As the volume of legislation shall warrant, the chairman [chair] of the Committee on Local and Consent Calendars shall move to designate periods for the consideration of local calendars, consent calendars, and resolutions calendars. Each such motion shall require a two-thirds vote for its adoption. In each instance, the Committee on Local and Consent Calendars shall prepare and distribute to each member a printed calendar at least 48 hours in advance of the hour set for consideration. Once a printed calendar is distributed, no additional bills or resolutions will be added to it. This requirement can be suspended only by unanimous consent. (Sec. 4.076.)
Sec. 13. PROCEDURE FOR CONSIDERATION OF LOCAL OR CONSENT CALENDAR. During the consideration of a local calendar or a consent calendar, the following procedures shall be observed:

(1) The chair shall allow the sponsor of each bill or resolution three minutes to explain the measure, and the time shall not be extended except by unanimous consent of the house. This rule shall have precedence over all other rules limiting time for debate.

(2) If it develops that any bill on a local calendar is not in fact local, as defined by the rules, the chair shall withdraw the bill from further consideration and remove it from the calendar.

(3) If it develops that any bill on a local or a consent calendar is to be contested on the floor of the house, the chair shall withdraw the bill from further consideration and remove it from the calendar.

(4) Any bill on a local or a consent calendar shall be considered contested if notice is given by five or more members that they intend to oppose the bill or resolution, either by a raising of hands or the delivery of written notice to the chair.

(5) Any bill on a local or a consent calendar shall be considered contested if debate exceeds 10 minutes. The chair shall strictly enforce this time limit and automatically withdraw the bill from further consideration if the time limit herein imposed is exceeded. (Sec. 4.077.)

Sec. 14. DAILY CALENDARS AND SUPPLEMENTARY CALENDARS. Calendars shall be printed daily when the house is in session and distribution made to members no later than 24 hours preceding the time the calendars shall be considered by the house, except as otherwise provided in these rules. Deviations from the calendars as printed and distributed shall not be permitted except that the Committee on Calendars shall be authorized to print and distribute, not later than two hours before the house convenes, a supplementary Daily House Calendar, on which shall appear only:

(1) bills or resolutions which were passed to third reading on the previous legislative day; and

(2) bills or resolutions which appeared on the Daily House Calendar for a previous calendar day which were not reached for floor consideration. (Sec. 4.078.)

Sec. 15. POSITION ON A CALENDAR. Once a bill or resolution is assigned to its appropriate calendar under these rules, and has appeared on a house calendar, as printed and distributed to all members, the bill shall retain its relative position on the calendar until reached for floor consideration, and the Calendars Committee with jurisdiction over the bill or resolution shall have no authority to place other bills on the calendar ahead of that bill, but all additions to the calendar shall appear subsequent to the bill except as provided in Rule 8, Section 12 [Section 5.092]. (Sec. 4.079.)

Sec. 16. REQUIREMENTS FOR ASSIGNMENT TO A CALENDAR. No bill or resolution shall be assigned to a calendar until:

(1) it has been referred to and reported from its appropriate standing committee by favorable committee action; or

(2) it is ordered printed on minority report. (Sec. 4.080.)

Sec. 17. REFERRAL TO CALENDARS COMMITTEES. All bills and resolutions, on being reported from committee, shall be referred immediately to the committee coordinator and then to the appropriate calendars committee for assignment to the appropriate calendar. (Sec. 4.081.)

Sec. 18. TIME LIMIT FOR ASSIGNMENT TO A CALENDAR. Each calendars committee shall act promptly in assigning each bill and resolution to its appropriate calendar. Such assignment, if not made sooner, must be made within 7 calendar days after such bill or resolution was referred to the committee, except during the last 10 calendar days of a session, when such assignment must be made within 72 hours after referral to the Calendars Committee with jurisdiction over the bill or resolution. (Sec. 4.082.)

Sec. 19. MOTION TO ASSIGN TO A CALENDAR. (a) When a bill or resolution has been in the appropriate calendars committee for 7 calendar days, exclusive of the calendar day on which it was referred, awaiting assignment to its appropriate calendar, it shall be in order for a member to move that the bill or resolution be assigned to a specific calendar without action by the committee. This motion shall require a majority vote for adoption.

(b) A motion to assign a bill or resolution to a specific calendar is not a privileged motion and must be made during the routine motion period unless made under a suspension of the rules. (Sec. 4.083.)

Sec. 20. REQUEST FOR ASSIGNMENT TO LOCAL OR CONSENT
CALENDAR. No bill shall be considered for assignment to the local or consent calendar unless a request for that assignment has been made to the chairman [chair] of the standing committee from which the bill was reported and unless the committee report of the standing committee recommends the assignment of the bill to the local or consent calendar. The recommendation of the standing committee shall be advisory only, and the Committee on Local and Consent Calendars shall have final authority to determine whether or not a bill shall be assigned to the local or consent calendar. If the Committee on Local and Consent Calendars determines that the bill or resolution is not eligible for assignment to the local, consent, or resolutions calendar, the measure shall be sent to the Committee on Calendars for further action. (Sec. 4.084.)

Sec. 21. QUALIFICATIONS FOR ASSIGNMENT TO LOCAL OR CONSENT CALENDAR. (a) No bill shall be assigned to the local calendar unless:

(1) it is a local bill as defined by Rule 8, Section 10(c) [Section 5.070(c)];

(2) evidence of publication of notice in compliance with the Texas
Constitution and these rules is filed with the Committee on Local and Consent Calendars; and

(3) it has been recommended unanimously by those present and voting for assignment to a local calendar by the committee from which it was reported.

(b) No bill which limits its application by means of population brackets shall be assigned to the local calendar.

(c) No bill shall be assigned to a consent calendar unless it has been recommended unanimously by those present and voting for assignment to a consent calendar by the committee from which it was reported. (Sec. 4.085.)

Sec. 22. REASSIGNMENT OF CONTESTED BILLS. A bill once removed from a local calendar or a consent calendar shall be returned to the Committee on Local and Consent Calendars for further action. The Committee on Local and Consent Calendars, if it feels such action is warranted, may again assign the bill to a local calendar or a consent calendar. If the bill is then removed from the calendar a second time by being contested on the floor of the house, the bill shall not again be assigned to a local calendar or a consent calendar during that session of the legislature but shall be returned to the Committee on Calendars for further action.
(Sec. 4.086.)

Sec. 23. DISCRETION IN ASSIGNMENT TO CALENDARS. Subject to the limitations contained in this chapter [subchapter], the Committee on Calendars shall have full authority to make assignments to calendars in whatever order is necessary and desirable under the circumstances then existing, except that bills on third reading on a particular calendar shall have precedence over bills on second reading on the same calendar. It is the intent of the calendar system to give the Committee on Calendars wide discretion to insure adequate consideration by the house of important legislation. (Sec. 4.087.)

Sec. 24. MOTION TO REASSIGN. (a) During the first 76 calendar days of a regular session, after a bill or resolution has been assigned to its appropriate calendar, it shall be in order for a member to move that the bill or resolution be reassigned to a different calendar, which shall require a two-thirds vote for adoption.

(b) After the first 76 calendar days of a regular session, when a bill or resolution has been assigned to its appropriate calendar, it shall be in order for a member to move that the bill or resolution be reassigned to a different calendar, which shall require a majority vote for adoption.

c) A motion to reassign a bill from one calendar to another is not a privileged motion and must be made during the routine motion period unless made under a suspension of the rules. (Sec. 4.088.)

RULE 7. MOTIONS; GENERAL

CHAPTER A. GENERAL MOTIONS

Sec. 1. MOTIONS DECIDED WITHOUT DEBATE. The following motions, in addition to any elsewhere provided herein, shall be decided without debate, except as otherwise provided in these rules:

(1) to adjourn;
(2) to lay on the table;
(3) to lay on the table subject to call;
(4) to suspend the rule as to the time for introduction of bills;
(5) to order a call of the house, and all motions incidental thereto;
(6) an appeal by a member called to order;
(7) on questions relating to priority of business;
(8) to amend the caption of a bill or resolution;
(9) to extend the time of a member speaking under the previous question or to allow a member who has the right to speak after the previous question is ordered to yield the time, or a part of it, to another;
(10) to reconsider and table. (Sec. 4.151.)

Sec. 2. MOTIONS SUBJECT TO DEBATE. The speaker shall permit the mover and one opponent of the motion three minutes each during which to debate the following motions without debating the merits of the bill, resolution, or other matter, and the mover of the motion may elect to open the debate or close the debate, but the mover's time may not be divided:

(1) to suspend the regular order of business and take up some measure out of its regular order;
(2) to instruct a committee to report a certain bill or resolution;
(3) to refer a bill or resolution from one committee to another;
(4) to assign a bill or resolution to a calendar without action by the Committee on Calendars;
(5) to reassign a bill or resolution from one calendar to another;
(6) to take up a bill or resolution laid on the table subject to call;
(7) to set a special order;
(8) to suspend the rules;
(9) to suspend the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days;
(10) to pass a resolution suspending the joint rules;
(11) to order the previous question;
(12) to order the limiting of amendments to a bill or resolution;
(13) to print documents, reports, or other material in the journal;
(14) to take any other action required or permitted during the routine motion period by Rule 6, Section 1 [Section 4.051(a)]. (Sec. 4.152.)
Sec. 3. MOTIONS ALLOWED DURING DEBATE. When a question is under debate, the following motions, and none other, shall be in order, and such motions shall have precedence in the following order:

1. to adjourn;
2. to take recess;
3. to lay on the table;
4. to lay on the table subject to call;
5. for the previous question;
6. to lay on the table subject to call;
7. to commit, recommit, refer, or rerefer;
8. to amend by striking out the enacting or resolving clause, which, if carried, shall have the effect of defeating the bill or resolution;
9. to amend;
10. to postpone indefinitely. (Sec. 4.153.)

Sec. 4. STATEMENT OR READING OF A MOTION. When a motion has been made, the speaker shall state it, or if it is in writing, order it read by the clerk; and it shall then be in possession of the house. (Sec. 4.154.)

Sec. 5. ENTRY OF MOTIONS IN JOURNAL. Every motion made to the house and entertained by the speaker shall be reduced to writing on the demand of any member, and shall be entered on the journal with the name of the member making it. (Sec. 4.155.)

Sec. 6. WITHDRAWAL OF A MOTION. A motion may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before a decision on the motion, even though an amendment may have been offered and is pending. It cannot be withdrawn, however, if the motion has been amended. After the previous question has been ordered, a motion can be withdrawn only by unanimous consent. (Sec. 4.156.)

Sec. 7. MOTIONS TO ADJOURN OR RECESS. A motion to adjourn or recess shall always be in order, except:

1. when the house is voting on another motion;
2. when the previous question has been ordered and before the final vote on the main question, unless a roll call shows the absence of a quorum;
3. when a member entitled to the floor has not yielded for that purpose; or
4. when no business has been transacted since a motion to adjourn or recess has been defeated. (Sec. 4.157.)

Sec. 8. CONSIDERATION OF SEVERAL MOTIONS TO ADJOURN OR RECESS. When several motions to recess or adjourn are made at the same period, the motion to adjourn carrying the shortest time shall be put first, then the next shortest time, and in that order until a motion to adjourn has been adopted or until all have been voted on and lost; and then the same procedure shall be followed for motions to recess. (Sec. 4.158.)

Sec. 9. WITHDRAWAL OR ADDITION OF A MOTION TO ADJOURN OR RECESS. A motion to adjourn or recess may not be withdrawn when it is one of a series upon which voting has commenced, nor may an additional motion to adjourn or recess be made when voting has commenced on a series of such motions. (Sec. 4.159.)

Sec. 10. RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE TO ADJOURN OR RECESS. The vote by which a motion to adjourn or recess is carried or lost shall not be subject to a motion to reconsider. (Sec. 4.160.)

Sec. 11. ADJOURNING WITH LESS THAN A QUORUM. A smaller number of members than a quorum may adjourn from day to day, and may compel the attendance of absent members. (Sec. 4.161.)

Sec. 12. MOTION TO TABLE. A motion to lay on the table, if carried, shall have the effect of killing the bill, resolution, amendment, or other immediate propoition to which it was applied. Such a motion shall not be debatable, but the mover of the proposition to be tabled, or the member reporting it from committee, shall be allowed to close the debate after the motion to table is made and before it is put to a vote. When a motion to table is made to a debatable main motion, the main motion mover shall be allowed 20 minutes to close the debate, whereas the movers of other debatable motions sought to be tabled shall be allowed only 10 minutes to close. The vote by which a motion to table is carried or lost cannot be reconsidered. After the previous question has been ordered, a motion to table is not in order. The provisions of this section do not apply to motions to "lay on the table subject to call"; however, a motion to lay on the table subject to call cannot be made after the previous question has been ordered. (Sec. 4.162.)

Sec. 13. MATTERS TABLED SUBJECT TO CALL. When a bill, resolution, or other matter is pending before the house, it may be laid on the table subject to call, and one legislative day's notice, as printed on the Supplemental House Calendar, must be given before the proposition can be taken from the table, unless it be on the same legislative day, in which case it can be taken from the table at any time except when there is another matter pending before the house. A bill, resolution, or other matter can be taken from the table only by a majority vote of the house. When a special order is pending, a motion to take a proposition from the table cannot be made unless the proposition is a privileged matter. (Sec. 4.163.)

Sec. 14. MOTION TO POSTPONE. A motion to postpone to a day certain may be amended and is debatable within narrow limits, but the merits of the proposition sought to be postponed cannot be debated. A motion to postpone indefinitely opens to debate the entire proposition to which it applies. (Sec. 4.164.)

Sec. 15. POSTPONED MATTERS. A bill or proposition postponed to a day certain shall be laid before the house at the time on the calendar day to which it was postponed, provided it is otherwise eligible under the rules and no other business is then pending. If business is pending, the postponed matter shall be deferred until the pending business is disposed of without prejudice otherwise to its right of priority. When a privileged matter is postponed to a particular time, and that time arrives, the matter, still retaining its privileged nature, shall be taken up even though another matter is pending. (Sec. 4.165.)

Sec. 16. ORDER OF CONSIDERATION OF POSTPONED MATTERS. If two or more bills, resolutions, or other propositions are postponed to the same time, and are otherwise eligible for consideration at that time, they shall be considered in the chronological order of their setting. (Sec. 4.166.)

Sec. 17. MOTION TO REFER. When motions are made to refer a subject to a select or standing committee, the question on the subject's referral to a standing committee shall be put first. (Sec. 4.167.)

Sec. 18. MOTION TO RECOMMIT. A motion to recommit a bill, after being defeated at the routine motion period, may again be made when the bill itself is under consideration; however, a motion to recommit a bill shall not be in order at the routine motion period if the bill is then before the house as either pending business or unfinished business.

A motion to recommit a bill or resolution can be made and voted on even though the author, sponsor, or principal proponent is not present. (Sec. 4.168.)

Sec. 19. TERMS OF DEBATE ON MOTIONS TO REFER, REFER, COMMIT, OR RECOMMIT. A motion to refer, rerefer, commit, or recommit is debatable within narrow limits, but the merits of the proposition may not be brought into the debate. A motion to refer, rerefer, commit, or recommit with instructions is fully debatable. (Sec. 4.169.)

Sec. 20. RECOMMITTING TO COMMITTEE FOR A SECOND TIME. Except as provided in Rule 4, Section 38 [Section 3.128], when a bill has been recommitted once at any reading and has been reported adversely by the committee to which it was referred, it shall be in order to again recommit the bill only if a minority report has been filed in the time required by the rules of the house. A two-thirds vote of those present shall be required to recommit a second time. (Sec. 4.170.)

CHAPTER B. MOTION FOR THE PREVIOUS QUESTION

Sec. 21. MOTION FOR THE PREVIOUS QUESTION. There shall be a motion for the previous question, which shall be admitted only when seconded by 25 members. It shall be put by the chair in this manner: "The motion has been seconded. Three minutes pro and con debate will be allowed on the motion for ordering the previous question." As soon as the debate has ended, the chair shall continue: "As many as are in favor of ordering the previous question on (here state on which question or questions) will say ‘Aye,’ and then, ‘As many as are opposed say ‘Nay.’" As in all other propositions, a motion for the previous question may be taken by a record vote if demanded by three members. If ordered by a majority of the members voting, a quorum being present, it shall have the effect of cutting off all debate, except as provided in Section 23 of this rule (4:203), and bringing the house to a direct vote on the immediate question or questions on which it has been asked and ordered. (Sec. 4:201.)

Sec. 22. DEBATE ON MOTION FOR PREVIOUS QUESTION. On the motion for the previous question, there shall be no debate except as provided in Sections 2 and 21 of this rule (Section 4:201 and in Section 4:152). All incidental questions of order made pending decision on such motion shall be decided, whether on appeal or otherwise, without debate. (Sec. 4:202.)

Sec. 23. LIMITATION OF DEBATE AFTER PREVIOUS QUESTION ORDERED. After the previous question has been ordered, there shall be no debate upon the questions on which it has been ordered, or upon the incidental questions, except that the mover of the proposition or any of the pending amendments or any other motions, or the member making the report from the committee, or, in the case of the absence of either of them, any other member designated by such absentee, shall have the right to close the debate on the particular proposition or amendment. Then a vote shall be taken immediately on the amendments or other motions, if any, and then on the main question. (Sec. 4:203.)

Sec. 24. SPEAKING AND VOTING AFTER THE PREVIOUS QUESTION ORDERED. All members having the right to speak after the previous question has been ordered shall speak before the question is put on the first proposition covered by the previous question. All votes shall then be taken in the correct order, and no vote or votes shall be deferred to allow any member to close on any one of the propositions separately after the voting has commenced. (Sec. 4:204.)

Sec. 25. SPEAKING ON AN AMENDMENT AS SUBSTITuted. When an amendment has been substituted and the previous question is then moved on the adoption of the amendment as substituted, the author of the amendment as substituted shall have the right to close the debate on that amendment in lieu of the author of the original amendment. (Sec. 4:205.)

Sec. 26. SPEAKING ON A MOTION TO POSTPONE OR AMEND. When the previous question is ordered on a motion to postpone indefinitely or to amend by striking out the enacting clause of a bill, the member moving to postpone or amend shall have the right to close the debate on that motion or amendment, after which the mover of the proposition or bill proposed to be so postponed or amended, or the member reporting it from the committee, or, in the absence of either of them, any other member designated by the absentee, shall be allowed to close the debate on the original proposition. (Sec. 4:206.)
Sec. 27. APPLICATION OF THE PREVIOUS QUESTION. The previous question may be asked and ordered on any debatable single motion or series of motions, or any amendment or amendments pending, or it may be made to embrace all authorized debatable motions or amendments pending and include the bill, resolution, or proposition that is on second or third reading. The previous question cannot be ordered, however, on the main proposition without including other pending motions of lower rank as given in Section 3 of this rule. (Sec. 4.207.)

Sec. 28. LIMIT OF APPLICATION. The previous question shall not extend beyond the final vote on a motion or sequence of motions to which the previous question has been ordered. (Sec. 4.208.)

Sec. 29. AMENDMENTS NOT YET LAID BEFORE THE HOUSE. Amendments on the speaker's desk for consideration which have not actually been laid before the house and read cannot be included under a motion for the previous question. (Sec. 4.209.)

Sec. 30. MOVING THE PREVIOUS QUESTION AFTER A MOTION TO TABLE. If a motion to table is made directly to a main motion, the motion for the previous question is not in order. In a case where an amendment to a main motion is pending, and a motion to table the amendment is made, it is in order to move the previous question on the main motion, the pending amendment, and the motion to table the amendment. (Sec. 4.210.)

Sec. 31. NO SUBSTITUTE FOR MOTION FOR THE PREVIOUS QUESTION. There is no acceptable substitute for a motion for the previous question, nor can other motions be applied to it. (Sec. 4.211.)

Sec. 32. MOTION FOR THE PREVIOUS QUESTION NOT SUBJECT TO TABLING. The motion for the previous question is not subject to a motion to table. (Sec. 4.212.)

Sec. 33. MOTION TO ADJOURN AFTER MOTION FOR PREVIOUS QUESTION ACCEPTED. The motion to adjourn is not in order after a motion for the previous question is accepted by the chair, or after the seconding of such motion and before a vote is taken. (Sec. 4.213.)

Sec. 34. MOTIONS IN ORDER AFTER PREVIOUS QUESTION ORDERED. After the previous question has been ordered, no motion shall be in order until the question or questions on which it was ordered have been voted on, without debate, except:

(1) a motion for a call of the house, and motions incidental thereto;
(2) a motion to extend the time of a member closing on a proposition;
(3) a motion to permit a member who has the right to speak to yield the time or a part thereof to another member;
(4) a request for and a verification of a vote;
(5) a motion to reconsider the vote by which the previous question was ordered. A motion to reconsider may be made only once and that must be before any vote under the previous question has been taken;
(6) a motion to table a motion to reconsider the vote by which the previous question has been ordered;
(7) a double motion to reconsider and table the vote by which the previous question was ordered. (Sec. 4.214.)

Sec. 35. MOTION TO ADJOURN OR RECESS AFTER PREVIOUS QUESTION ORDERED. No motion for an adjournment or a recess shall be in order after the previous question is ordered until the final vote under the previous question has been taken, unless the roll call shows the absence of a quorum. (Sec. 4.215.)
Sec. 36. ADJOURNING WITHOUT A QUORUM. When the house adjourns without a quorum under the previous question, the previous question shall remain in force and effect when the bill, resolution, or other proposition is again laid before the house. (Sec. 4.216.)

CHAPTER C. RECONSIDERATION

Sec. 37. MOTION TO RECONSIDER A RECORD VOTE. When a question has been decided by the house, any member voting with the prevailing side may, on the same legislative day, or on the next legislative day, move a reconsideration; however, if a reconsideration is moved on the next legislative day, it must be done before the order of the day, as designated in the ninth item of Rule 6, Section 1(a) (Subsection 4.05(a)), is taken up. If the house refuses to reconsider, or on reconsideration, affirms its decision, no further action to reconsider shall be in order. (Sec. 4.271.)

Sec. 38. MOTION TO RECONSIDER A NONRECORD VOTE. Where the yeas and nays have not been called for and recorded, any member, regardless of whether he [or-she] voted on the prevailing side or not, may make the motion to reconsider; however, even when the yeas and nays have not been recorded, the following shall not be eligible to make a motion to reconsider:

1. a member who was absent;
2. a member who was paired and, therefore, did not vote; and
3. a member who was recorded in the journal as having voted on the losing side. (Sec. 4.272.)

Sec. 39. DEBATE ON MOTION TO RECONSIDER. A motion to reconsider shall be debatable only when the question to be reconsidered is debatable. Even though the previous question was in force before the vote on a debatable question was taken, debate is permissible on the reconsideration of such debatable question. (Sec. 4.273.)

Sec. 40. MAJORITY VOTE REQUIRED. Every motion to reconsider shall be decided by a majority vote, even though the vote on the original question requires a two-thirds vote for affirmative action. If the motion to reconsider prevails, the question then immediately recurs on the question reconsidered. (Sec. 4.274.)

Sec. 41. WITHDRAWAL OF MOTION TO RECONSIDER. A motion to reconsider cannot be withdrawn unless permission is given by a majority vote of the house, and the motion may be called up by any member. (Sec. 4.275.)

Sec. 42. TABLING MOTION TO RECONSIDER. A motion to reconsider shall be subject to a motion to table, which, if carried, shall be a final disposition of the motion to reconsider. (Sec. 4.276.)

Sec. 43. DOUBLE MOTION TO RECONSIDER AND TABLE. The double motion to reconsider and table shall be in order. It shall be undebatable. When carried, the motion to reconsider shall be tabled. When it fails, the question shall then be on the motion to reconsider, and the motion to reconsider shall, without further action, be spread on the journal, but it may be called up by any member, in accordance with the provisions of Section 44 of this rule. (Sec. 4.277.)

Sec. 44. DELAYED DISPOSITION OF MOTION TO RECONSIDER. (a) If a motion to reconsider is not disposed of when made, it shall be entered in the journal, and cannot, after that legislative day, be called up and disposed of unless one legislative day's notice has been given.

(b) Unless called up and disposed of prior to 72 hours before final adjournment of the session, all motions to reconsider shall be regarded as determined and lost.

(c) All motions to reconsider made during the last 72 hours of the session shall be disposed of when made; otherwise, the motion shall be considered as lost. (Sec. 4.278.)
Sec. 45. MOTION TO RECONSIDER AND SPREAD ON JOURNAL. (a) A member voting on the prevailing side may make a motion to reconsider and spread on the journal, which does not require a vote, and on the motion being made, it shall be entered on the journal. Any member, regardless of whether he [or she] voted on the prevailing side or not, who desires immediate action on a motion to reconsider which has been spread on the journal, can call it up as soon as it is made, and demand a vote on it, or can call it up and move to table it.

(b) If the motion to table the motion to reconsider is defeated, the motion to reconsider remains spread on the journal for future action; however, any member, regardless of whether he [or she] voted on the prevailing side or not, can call the motion from the journal for action by the house, and, once disposed of, no other motion to reconsider can be made. (Sec. 4.279.)

Sec. 46. MOTION TO REQUIRE COMMITTEE TO REPORT. (a) During the first 76 calendar days of a regular session, when any bill, resolution, or other paper has been in committee for 6 calendar days, exclusive of the calendar day on which it was referred, it shall be in order for a member to move that the committee be required to report the same within 7 calendar days. This motion shall require a two-thirds vote for passage.

(b) After the first 76 calendar days of a regular session, when any bill, resolution, or other paper has been in committee for 6 calendar days, exclusive of the calendar day on which it was referred, it shall be in order for a member to move that the committee be required to report the same within 7 calendar days. This motion shall require a majority vote for passage.

(c) A motion to instruct a committee to report is not a privileged motion and must be made during the routine motion period unless made under a suspension of the rules.

(d) The house shall have no authority to instruct a subcommittee directly; however, instructions recognized under the rules may be given to a committee and shall be binding on all subcommittees. (Sec. 3.116.)

Sec. 47. MOTION TO REREFER TO ANOTHER COMMITTEE. (a) During the first 76 calendar days of a regular session, when any bill, resolution, or other paper has been in committee for 7 calendar days after the committee was instructed by the house to report that measure by a motion made under Section 46 of this rule [3:16], it shall be in order for a member to move to rerefer the bill, resolution, or other paper to a different committee. This motion shall require a two-thirds vote for passage.

(b) After the first 76 calendar days of a regular session, when any bill, resolution, or other paper has been in committee for 7 calendar days after the committee has been instructed to report that measure by a motion made under Section 46 of this rule [3:16], it shall be in order for a member to move to rerefer the bill, resolution, or other paper to a different committee. This motion shall require a majority vote for passage.

(c) A motion to rerefer a bill, resolution, or other paper from one committee to another committee is not a privileged motion and must be made during the routine motion period unless made under a suspension of the rules. (Sec. 3.117.)

RULE 8. BILLS

Sec. 1. CONTENTS OF BILLS. Proposed laws or changes in laws must be incorporated in bills, which shall consist of:

(1) a title or caption, beginning with the words "A Bill to be Entitled An Act" and a brief statement of the subject of the proposed measure;

(2) an enacting clause, "Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas"; and

(3) the bill proper. (Sec. 5.001.)
Sec. 2. PUBLISHING ACTS IN THEIR ENTIRETY. No law shall be revived or amended by reference to its title. The act revived, or the section or sections amended, shall be reenacted and published at length. (Sec. 5.002.)

Sec. 3. LIMITING A BILL TO A SINGLE SUBJECT. Each bill (except a general appropriations bill, which may embrace the various subjects and accounts for which money is appropriated) shall contain only one subject, which shall be expressed in its title. (Sec. 5.003.)

Sec. 4. CHANGING GENERAL LAW THROUGH AN APPROPRIATIONS BILL. A general law may not be changed by the provisions in an appropriations bill. (Sec. 5.004.)

Sec. 5. COAUTHORSHIP. Any member may become the coauthor of a bill or resolution by securing permission from the author. No action shall be required by the house, but it shall be the duty of the member seeking to be a coauthor to obtain written authorization from the author. This authorization shall be filed with the chief clerk at the same time that the coauthor signs the bill or resolution. The chief clerk shall report daily to the journal clerk the names of members filed as coauthors of bills or resolutions. If a coauthor of a bill or resolution desires to withdraw from such status, the member shall notify the chief clerk, who in turn shall notify the journal clerk. (Sec. 5.005.)

Sec. 6. FILING, FIRST READING, AND REFERRAL TO COMMITTEE. Each bill shall be filed with the chief clerk when introduced and shall be numbered in its regular order. Each bill shall be read first time by caption and referred by the speaker to the standing committee having jurisdiction as determined by the provisions of Rule 3 [Subchapter A of Chapter 3]. (Sec. 5.006.)

Sec. 7. PREFILING. Beginning the first Monday after the general election preceding the next regular legislative session, or within 30 days prior to any special session, it shall be in order to file with the chief clerk bills for introduction in that session. On receipt of the bills, the chief clerk shall number them and make them a matter of public record, available for distribution. Once a bill has been so filed, it may not be recalled. This shall apply only to members-elect of the succeeding legislative session. (Sec. 5.007.)

Sec. 8. DEADLINE FOR INTRODUCTION. Bills and joint resolutions introduced during the first 60 calendar days of the regular session may be considered by the committees and in the house and disposed of at any time during the session, in accordance with the rules of the house. After the first 60 calendar days of a regular session, any bill or joint resolution, except local bills, emergency appropriations, and all emergency matters submitted by the governor in special messages to the legislature, shall require an affirmative vote of four-fifths of those members present and voting to be introduced. (Sec. 5.008.)

Sec. 9. NUMBER OF COPIES FILED. (a) Thirteen copies of every bill, except bills relating to conservation and reclamation districts and governed by the provisions of Article XVI, Section 59, of the Texas Constitution, must be filed with the chief clerk at the time that the bill is introduced.

(b) Fifteen copies of every bill relating to conservation and reclamation districts and governed by the provisions of Article XVI, Section 59, of the Texas Constitution, with copies of the notice to introduce the bill attached, must be filed with the chief clerk at the time that the bill is introduced if the bill is intended to:

1. create a particular conservation and reclamation district; or
2. amend the act of a particular conservation and reclamation district to:

   (A) add additional land to the district;
   (B) alter the taxing authority of the district;
alter the authority of the district with respect to issuing bonds; or

(D) alter the qualifications or terms of office of the members of the governing body of the district.

(c) No bill may be laid before the house on first reading until it is in compliance with the provisions of this section. (Sec. 5.009.)

Sec. 10. LOCAL BILLS. (a) Neither the house nor a committee of the house may consider a local bill unless notice of intention to apply for the passage of the bill was published as provided by law and evidence of the publication was attached to the bill on filing with the chief clerk.

(b) Neither the house nor a committee of the house may consider a bill whose application is limited to one or more political subdivisions by means of population brackets or other artificial devices in lieu of identifying the political subdivision or subdivisions by name. However, this subsection does not prevent consideration of a bill that classifies political subdivisions according to a minimum or maximum population or other criterion that bears a reasonable relation to the purpose of the proposed legislation or a bill that updates laws based on population classifications to conform to a federal decennial census.

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d) of this section, “local [local] bill” for purposes of this section means:

(1) a bill for which publication of notice is required under Article XVI, Section 59, of the Texas Constitution (water districts, etc.);
(2) a bill for which publication of notice is required under Article IX, Section 9, of the Texas Constitution (hospital districts);
(3) a bill relating to hunting, fishing, or conservation of wildlife resources of a specified locality;
(4) a bill creating or affecting a county court or statutory court or courts of one or more specified counties or municipalities; or
(5) a bill creating or affecting the juvenile board or boards of a specified county or counties.

(d) A bill is not considered to be a local bill under Subsection (c)(3), (4), or (5) if it affects a sufficient number of localities, counties, or municipalities so as to be of general application or of statewide importance. (Sec. 5.010.)

Sec. 11. CONSIDERATION IN COMMITTEE. (a) No bill shall be considered unless it first has been referred to a committee and reported from it.

(b) After a bill has been recommitted, it shall be considered by the committee as a new subject. (Sec. 5.011.)

Sec. 12. PREFERRED BILLS. Each member shall be entitled to one preferred bill, the order of preference to be determined by lot. The numbers 1 through 149 shall be placed in one container, and the name of each member shall be placed in another container. The chief clerk shall draw one number and one member’s name and announce the preferred number for that member.

A member may designate in writing any one bill filed under that member’s principal authorship to be the member’s preferred bill and the chief clerk shall designate the preferred bill by adding a dash and the order of preference following the regular bill number.

A member must designate a bill as a preferred bill before it is referred to committee [a committee hearing may be held on the bill].

When a preferred bill is reported from committee, it shall be placed on the General State Calendar in its order of preference ahead of all bills not designated as preferred bills. On any day on which there is both a regular and a supplemental general state calendar for house bills and the supplemental calendar contains preferred bills on second or third reading, the preferred bills on the supplemental calendar shall be considered, in order of preference, ahead of all other bills on the general state calendar on the same reading except any preferred bills of higher preference.

The provisions of this section apply only to house bills. (Sec. 5.012.)

Sec. 13. ORDER OF CONSIDERATION. All bills before the house shall be taken up and acted on in the order in which they appear on their respective calendars, and each calendar shall have the priority accorded to it by the provisions of Rule 6, Sections 7 and 8 [Subchapter D of Chapter 4]. With respect to a particular calendar, bills on third reading shall have precedence over bills on second reading. (Sec. 5.013.)

Sec. 14. CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL ON SAME SUBJECT. When any house bill is reached on the calendar or is before the house for consideration, it shall be the duty of the speaker to give the place on the calendar of the house bill to any senate bill containing the same subject that has been referred to and reported from a committee of the house and to lay the senate bill before the house, to be considered in lieu of the house bill. (Sec. 5.014.)

Sec. 15. SENATE BILL DAYS. (a) On calendar Wednesday and on calendar Thursday of each week, only senate bills and senate resolutions shall be taken up and considered, until disposed of. Senate bills and senate resolutions shall be considered in the order prescribed in Rule 6, Section 7 [Subchapter D of Chapter 4], on separate senate calendars prepared by the Committee on Calendars. In case a senate bill or senate resolution is pending at adjournment on calendar Thursday, it shall go over to the succeeding calendar Wednesday as unfinished business.

(b) Precedence given in this chapter [subchapter] to certain classes of bills during the first 60 calendar days of a regular session shall also apply to senate bills on senate bill days. (Sec. 5.015.)

Sec. 16. DEADLINES FOR CONSIDERATION. No house bill or senate bill on its second reading, except an appropriations bill, shall be considered for any purpose during the last 72 hours preceding the final adjournment of the legislature. The speaker shall not recognize anyone to take up a bill out of its regular order within 48 hours of final adjournment; nor shall the speaker lay any bill before the house or take a vote on its passage within 24 hours of the final adjournment of the legislature, except to adopt a conference committee report or to concur in senate amendments. (Sec. 5.017.)

Sec. 17. PRINTED COPIES REQUIRED PRIOR TO CONSIDERATION. (a) A printed copy of each bill except the general appropriations bill shall be placed in the newspaper mailbox of each member at least 24 hours before the bill can be considered by the house. A printed copy of the general appropriations bill shall be placed in the newspaper mailbox of each member at least 168 hours during a regular session and at least 72 hours during a special session before the bill can be considered by the house.

(b) By majority vote, the house may order both the original bill or resolution and the complete committee substitute to be printed. It shall not be necessary for the house to order complete committee substitutes printed in lieu of original bills.

(c) A two-thirds vote of the house is necessary to order that bills, other than local bills, be not printed. It shall not be necessary for the house to order that local bills be not printed. (Sec. 5.018.)

Sec. 18. REQUIREMENT FOR THREE READINGS. A bill shall not have the force of law until it has been read on three several legislative days in each house and free discussion allowed, unless, in case of imperative public necessity (which necessity shall be stated in the preamble or in the body of the bill), this provision is suspended by a vote of four-fifths of the members present and voting, a quorum being present. The yeas and nays shall be taken on the question of suspension and entered in the journal. As used in this section, "an imperative public necessity" means only a condition or state of affairs that, if not immediately remedied, shall cause great loss of life or property. The speaker shall not entertain a motion to suspend the constitutional rule unless it definitely appears that such a condition or state of affairs actually exists. (Sec. 5.019.)

Sec. 19. CALL FOR FULL READING. When a bill is before the house on its second or third reading, any member may call for a full reading, but the reading may be dispensed with by a majority vote of the house. (Sec. 5.020.)

Sec. 20. CONSIDERATION SECTION BY SECTION. (a) During the consideration of any bill or resolution, the house may, by a majority vote, order the bill or resolution to be considered section by section, or department by department, until each section or department has been given separate consideration. If such a procedure is ordered, only amendments to the section or department under consideration at that time shall be in order. However, after each section or department has been considered separately, the entire bill or resolution shall be open for amendment, subject to the provisions of Rule 12, Section 8(b) [Section 4:328(b)]. Once the consideration of a bill section by section or department by department has been ordered, it shall not be in order to move the previous question on the entire bill, to recommit it, to lay it on the table, or to postpone it, until each section or department has been given separate consideration or until the vote by which section by section consideration was ordered is reconsidered.

(b) A motion to consider a bill section by section is debatable within narrow limits; that is, the pros and cons of the proposed consideration can be debated but not the merits of the bill. (Sec. 5.021.)

Sec. 21. PASSAGE TO ENROSSMENT OR THIRD READING. After a bill or complete committee substitute for a bill has been taken up and read, amendments shall be in order. If no amendment is made, or if those proposed are disposed of, then the final question on its second reading shall be, in the case of a house bill, whether it shall be passed to engrossment, or, in the case of a senate bill, whether it shall pass to its third reading. All bills ordered passed to engrossment or passed to a third reading shall remain on the calendar to which assigned, but with future priority over bills on the same calendar that have not passed second reading. (Sec. 5.022.)

Sec. 22. CERTIFICATION OF FINAL PASSAGE. The chief clerk shall certify the final passage of each bill, noting on the bill the date of its passage, and the vote by which it passed, if by a yea and nay vote. (Sec. 5.023.)

Sec. 23. RESOLUTION TO RECALL BILL FROM THE SENATE. A resolution to recall a bill from the senate shall be in order if a motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill finally passed has been made and adopted within the time prescribed by the rules. (Sec. 5.024.)

Sec. 24. EFFECTIVE DATE. Every law passed by the legislature, except the General Appropriations Act, shall take effect or go into force 90 days after the adjournment of the session at which it was enacted. In case of an emergency, which must be expressed in a preamble or in the body of the act, the legislature may, by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, provide otherwise. The vote shall be taken by yeas and nays and entered in the journals. (See Constitution of Texas, Article III, Section 39) (Sec. 5.025.)

Sec. 25. BILLS CONTAINING SAME SUBSTANCE AS DEFEATED BILL. After a bill or resolution has been considered and defeated by either house of the legislature, no bill or resolution containing the same substance shall be passed into law during the same session. (Sec. 5.026.)

RULE 9. APPROPRIATIONS BILLS

Sec. 1. PURPOSE OF RULE [SUBCHAPTER]. [a] This rule [subchapter] governs consideration of general appropriations bills and other appropriations bills referred to the Committee on Appropriations as provided by these [the] rules. This rule [subchapter] is cumulative of other rules governing consideration of bills, but to the extent of any conflict between this rule [subchapter] and other rules, the provisions of this rule [subchapter] prevail.

(b) The purpose of this subchapter is to strengthen and make more deliberative the process of budgeting state government by bringing into the process the consideration and the recommendations of standing committees having jurisdiction over the various agencies and institutions, and toward this end this subchapter shall be liberally construed. (Sec. 5.051.)

Sec. 2. SUBSTANTIVE COMMITTEES DEFINED. In this rule [subchapter], "substantive committee" means a standing committee, other than the Committee on Appropriations [and the Committee on Constitutional Amendments] to which a portion or portions of an appropriations bill is or may be referred under the provisions of this rule [subchapter]. (Sec. 5.052.)

Sec. 3. ASSIGNMENT TO SUBSTANTIVE COMMITTEES. As soon as possible after an appropriations bill has been referred to the Committee on Appropriations, the chairman [chair] of the Committee on Appropriations shall assign to each substantive committee, having jurisdiction over agencies or institutions affected by the bill the portion or portions of the bill affecting those agencies or institutions. Jurisdiction is determined under Rule 3 provided that should a conflict in jurisdiction occur, the speaker shall determine the committee having jurisdiction over the agency or institution. [Jurisdiction is determined under Subchapter A of Chapter 3.] The assignment shall be in a form determined by the chairman [chair] of the Committee on Appropriations and shall be recorded in the journal. The assignment does not have the effect of removing the bill or any portion of the bill from the custody of the Committee on Appropriations. (Sec. 5.053.)

Sec. 4. ASSERTION OF JURISDICTION. (a) Within a reasonable time, specified in writing by the chairman [chair] of the Committee on Appropriations, the budget and oversight subcommittee of each substantive committee shall notify the chairman [chair] of the Committee on Appropriations, in writing, of the assigned agencies or programs within an agency that the budget and oversight subcommittee asserts jurisdiction over for the purpose of developing budget recommendations.

(b) Those agencies or parts of agencies over which the budget and oversight subcommittee does not assert jurisdiction are under the jurisdiction of the Committee on Appropriations. (Sec. 5.054.)

Sec. 5. NONASSIGNABLE ITEMS. (a) The chairman [chair] of the Committee on Appropriations shall not assign to any substantive committee:

1. any part of Article V of the general appropriations bill;
2. any part of the Special Provisions of Article I, II, or III of the general appropriations bill;
3. line-item salaries;
4. salaries of classified or unclassified personnel or professional fees and services; or
5. any other matter affecting state agencies or institutions in general.

(b) The Committee on Appropriations shall develop guidelines on these matters, which shall be used by the substantive committee in formulating its recommendations. No assignment made under this section shall be construed to have an effect contrary to this subsection. (Sec. 5.055.)

[Sec. 5.056. MULTIPLE JURISDICTIONS. If an agency comes under the jurisdiction of more than one substantive committee, as provided by Subchapter A of Chapter 3, the chair of the Committee on Appropriations shall refer to the appropriate substantive committees only those portions of the bill that, in the chair’s opinion, are severable.]
Sec. 6. CONSIDERATION AND RECOMMENDATIONS. The substantive committee shall consider the portions of the appropriations bill assigned to it. The consideration is subject to the applicable rules of the house and to any applicable rules of the substantive committee. The recommendations of the substantive committee shall be transmitted to the chairman of the Committee on Appropriations before a deadline set by that chairman. The chairman of the Committee on Appropriations may prescribe the form of the recommendations. The recommendations of a substantive committee shall be adopted by a majority of the membership of the committee. (Sec. 5.057.)

Sec. 7. SUBCOMMITTEES FOR BUDGET AND OVERSIGHT. (a) Each substantive committee shall have a subcommittee for budget and oversight consisting of a chair for budget and oversight and not more than four members. The Committee on State Affairs and the Committee on Higher Education shall have an additional subcommittee for budget and oversight. The speaker shall designate as chairman for budget and oversight a member of each substantive committee to which assignments may be made under this rule, and that member shall serve as chairman of the subcommittee for budget and oversight. The chairman of the substantive committee shall appoint from the membership of the substantive committee the subcommittee for budget and oversight and shall fill all vacancies. The subcommittee shall consist of a majority of the substantive committee. The chairman for budget and oversight is primarily responsible for developing the recommendations of the substantive committee for presentation to the Committee on Appropriations and shall perform other duties as prescribed by this rule or as determined by the substantive committee.

(b) In addition to any duties and responsibilities delegated in this rule, each subcommittee for budget and oversight shall perform oversight functions for those areas within its jurisdiction. (Sec. 5.058.)

Sec. 8. SCHEDULE OF SUBCOMMITTEE HEARINGS. (a) After consultation with the chairman for budget and oversight, the chairman of the Committee on Appropriations shall develop and post a calendar specifying the dates and times for subcommittees for budget and oversight to hold public hearings on the proposed appropriations for each agency, or parts of an agency, over which the budget and oversight subcommittee asserted its jurisdiction.

(b) Following each public hearing, the subcommittee for budget and oversight shall prepare its recommendations for the agency heard and report them to the substantive committee. The substantive committee shall file written recommendations with the Committee on Appropriations within seven calendar days after the conclusion of a hearing unless the time for filing has been extended by the chairman of the Committee on Appropriations. (Sec. 5.059.)

Sec. 9. SCHEDULE OF JOINT HEARINGS. (a) The chairman of the Committee on Appropriations shall develop and post a calendar specifying the dates and times for public hearings on the proposed appropriations for each agency and the substantive committee report on those proposed appropriations.

(b) If a substantive committee report has not been filed at the time set for a public hearing, the report will not be received or considered. (Sec. 5.060.)

Sec. 10. POSTING NOTICE OF MEETINGS. Posting of the schedule of hearings developed by the chairman of the Committee on Appropriations and the chairman for budget and oversight at least five days in advance of the initial hearing shall serve as notice for all public and formal meetings of subcommittees and substantive committees on budget and oversight assigned to substantive committees. This provision shall take precedence over any rules to the contrary. (Sec. 5.061.)
Sec. 11. CONSIDERATION OF SUBSTANTIVE COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATIONS. (a) The Committee on Appropriations shall consider the recommendations of each substantive committee if received before the deadline unless the records of the substantive committee show that the recommendations were not adopted by a majority of the membership of the committee. (b) The Committee on Appropriations need not consider any recommendation on items included in the scope of Section 5 of this rule [5:055]. (Sec. 5.062.)

Sec. 12. ACTION ALLOWED ON RECOMMENDATIONS. With regard to recommendations that the Committee on Appropriations is required to consider, the committee may, by a majority vote of the members present and voting, a quorum being present, reduce any item and reduce or eliminate any program recommended. The committee may not increase any item over the amount recommended or fund any program that the substantive committee recommends be terminated, except on the vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting, a quorum being present. (Sec. 5.063.)

Sec. 13. CONSIDERATION ON HOUSE FLOOR. On second reading of an appropriations bill, any violation of the provisions of this rule [subchapter] is subject to a point of order if a point of order was timely raised before the Committee on Appropriations and overruled. If a point of order is sustained by the speaker, the ruling does not affect the continued consideration of the bill, but the speaker shall direct that the appropriate change be made in the report of the Committee on Appropriations. Nothing in this section affects the right of a member to propose amendments to the bill. (Sec. 5.065.)

Sec. 14. CONSIDERATION OF BILLS INVOLVING STATE FUNDS. (a) In order to assure the continuation of financial support of existing state services through the passage of the general appropriations bill, it shall not be in order during the first 120 days of the regular session for the speaker to lay before the house, prior to the consideration, passage, and certification by the comptroller of the general appropriations bill, any bill that directly or indirectly:

[(+) prevents from being available for purposes of funding state government generally any money that under existing law would otherwise be available for that purpose, including a bill that [from entering the state treasury; or
[(2)] transfers or diverts money in the state treasury from the general revenue [one] fund to another fund [except from a special fund into the general revenue fund].

(b) In order to assure compliance with the limitation on appropriations of state tax revenue not dedicated by the constitution as provided by Article VIII, Section 22, of the Texas Constitution, it is not in order for the speaker to lay before the house, prior to the time that the general appropriations bill has been finally passed and sent to the comptroller, any bill that appropriates funds from the state treasury that are not dedicated by the constitution; except bills appropriating money for:

[(+) the payment of expenses of the legislature;
[(2)] the payment of judgments against the state; or
[(3)] any emergency matter when requested by the governor in a formal message to the legislature].

(c) When bills subject to the provisions of Subsection (a) of this section become eligible for consideration, they shall be considered for passage under the rules of the house and the joint rules as any other bill but shall not be signed by the speaker as required by the Constitution of Texas and the rules of the house until the general appropriations bill has been signed by the presiding officers of both houses of the legislature and transmitted to the comptroller of public accounts for certification as required by Article III, Section 49a, of the Constitution of Texas.
(d) All bills subject to the provisions of Subsection (a) of this section that have finally passed both houses shall be enrolled as required by the rules and transmitted to the speaker. The speaker shall note on each bill the date and hour of final legislative action and shall withhold his signature and any further action on all such bills until the general appropriations bill has been signed by the presiding officers of both houses and transmitted to the comptroller of public accounts for certification. Immediately thereafter, the speaker shall sign in the presence of the house all bills on which further action was being withheld because the bills were subject to the provisions of this section. After being signed by the speaker, the bills shall then be transmitted to the comptroller of public accounts for certification or to the governor, as the case may be, in the order in which final legislative action was taken. "Final legislative action," as that term is used in this subsection, shall mean the last act of either house meeting in general session necessary to place the bill in its final form preparatory to enrollment.

(g) (b) Subsections (a)-(d) of this section shall not apply to any bills providing money for:

1. the payment of expenses of the legislature;
2. the payment of judgments against the state; or
3. any emergency matter when requested by the governor in a formal message to the legislature; or
4. the reduction of taxes.

(j) Unless within the authority of a resolution or resolutions adopted pursuant to Article VIII, Section 22(b), of the Texas Constitution, it is not in order for the house to consider for final passage on third reading, on motion to concur in senate amendments, or on motion to adopt a conference committee report, a bill appropriating funds from the state treasury in an amount that, when added to amounts previously appropriated by bills finally passed and sent or due to be sent to the comptroller, would exceed the limit on appropriations established under Article 5429c-4, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925.

(g) The general appropriations bill shall be reported to the house by the Committee on Appropriations not later than the 90th calendar day of the regular session. Should the Committee on Appropriations fail to report by the deadline, Subsections (a)-(d) of this section shall be suspended for the balance of that regular session. (Secs. 5.016, 5.066, 5.064.)

RULE 10. JOINT RESOLUTIONS

Sec. 1. AMENDMENTS TO THE TEXAS CONSTITUTION. A proposed amendment to the Texas Constitution shall take the form of a joint resolution, which shall be subject to the rules that govern the proceedings on bills, except that it shall be adopted on any reading after the first if it receives a two-thirds vote of the elected membership of the house. If such a joint resolution receives only a majority vote on second reading, it shall be passed to engrossment, and subsequent proceedings shall be the same as those governing the final passage of bills which have been passed to engrossment. If such a joint resolution does not receive a two-thirds vote of the elected membership of the house on third reading and final passage, it shall fail of adoption. (Sec. 5.091.)

Sec. 2. AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES. Ratification by Texas of a proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States shall take the form of a joint resolution, which shall be subject to the rules that govern the proceedings on bills, except that it shall be adopted on second reading if it receives a majority vote of the members present and voting, a quorum being present. If such a joint resolution fails to receive a majority vote, it shall fail of adoption and shall not be reconsidered again unless revived by a motion to reconsider as otherwise provided in the rules. (Sec. 5.092.)
Sec. 3. ASSIGNMENT OF JOINT RESOLUTIONS TO A CALENDAR. Joint resolutions on committee report shall be referred to the Committee on Calendars for assignment to an appropriate calendar. The Committee on Calendars shall maintain a separate calendar for house joint resolutions and a separate calendar for senate joint resolutions. Senate joint resolutions shall be considered on calendar Wednesdays and calendar Thursdays along with senate bills. (Sec. 5.093.)

RULE 11. HOUSE AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

Sec. I. FILING. Resolutions shall be introduced by the filing of 13 identical copies with the chief clerk, who shall number and record house resolutions in one series and concurrent resolutions in a separate series. (Sec. 5.111.)

Sec. 2. REFERRAL TO STANDING COMMITTEE. (a) After numbering and recording, all resolutions shall be sent to the speaker for referral to the proper committee.

(b) Resolutions proposing the expenditure of money out of the contingent expense fund of the legislature shall be referred to the Committee on House Administration.

(c) All other resolutions shall be referred to the standing committee having jurisdiction as determined by the provisions of Rule 3 [Subchapter A of Chapter 5]. (Sec. 5.112.)

Sec. 3. REFERRAL TO CALENDARS COMMITTEES. All resolutions on committee report, other than privileged resolutions, shall be referred immediately to the appropriate calendars committee for assignment to the appropriate calendar. (Sec. 5.113.)

Sec. 4. ORDER OF CONSIDERATION. Unless privileged, resolutions shall be considered by the house only at the time assigned for their consideration on the calendar, in accordance with the provisions of Rule 6, Section 7 [provision of Subchapter D of Chapter 4]. (Sec. 5.114.)

Sec. 5. SIGNING BY GOVERNOR. Concurrent resolutions shall take the same course as house resolutions, except that they shall be sent to the governor for signing when finally passed by both houses. (Sec. 5.115.)

Sec. 6. RESOLUTIONS AUTHORIZING EXPENDITURES. All resolutions authorizing the expenditure of money out of the general house fund of the legislature shall contain a proposed budget itemizing the maximum amounts of money authorized by the resolution. The Committee on House Administration shall not authorize the expenditure of an amount greater than the proposed budget adopted by passage of the resolution. (Sec. 5.116.)

Sec. 7. MASCOT RESOLUTIONS. (a) All candidates for the office of mascot shall be named in and elected by a single house resolution.

(b) Only children of house members who are under the age of 12 years shall be eligible for election to the honorary office of mascot. A child once named a mascot shall not be eligible for the honor a second time.

(c) No separate classification or special title shall be given to any mascot, but all shall receive the same title of honorary mascot of the house of representatives.

(d) The speaker shall issue a certificate showing the election of each mascot and deliver it to the parent member of the child.

Pictures of mascots shall appear on the panel picture of the house. (Sec. 5.117.)

Sec. 8. CONSIDERATION OF RESOLUTIONS DURING CALLED SESSIONS. The subject matter of house resolutions and concurrent resolutions does not have to be submitted by the governor in a called session before they can be considered. (Sec. 5.118.)

RULE 12. AMENDMENTS

Sec. 1. ACCEPTABLE MOTIONS TO AMEND. When a bill, resolution, motion, or proposition is under consideration, a motion to amend and a motion to amend that amendment shall be in order. It shall also be in order to offer a further amendment by way of a substitute. Such a substitute may not be amended. If the substitute is adopted, the question shall then be on the amendment as substituted, and under this condition an amendment is not in order. (Sec. 4.321.)

Sec. 2. MOTIONS ON A DIFFERENT SUBJECT OFFERED AS AMENDMENTS. No motion or proposition on a subject different from the subject under consideration shall be admitted as an amendment or as a substitute for the motion or proposition under debate. “Proposition” as used in this section shall include a bill, resolution, joint resolution, or any other motion which is amendable.

Amendments pertaining to the organization, powers, regulation, and management of the agency, commission, or advisory committee under consideration are germane to bills extending state agencies, commissions, or advisory committees under the provisions of the Texas Sunset Act (Article 5429k, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes). (Sec. 4.322.)

Sec. 3. AMENDING A BILL TO CHANGE ITS ORIGINAL PURPOSE. No bill shall be amended in its passage through either house so as to change its original purpose. (Sec. 4.323.)

Sec. 4. AMENDMENTS TO BILLS ON LOCAL AND CONSENT CALENDARS. Amendments to a bill shall not be in order during its consideration on a local calendar or on a consent calendar, unless the amendments have first been submitted to and approved by the Committee on Local and Consent Calendars, which shall be noted thereon by the chairman of the Committee on Local and Consent Calendars prior to the offering of the amendments. (Sec. 4.324.)

Sec. 5. AMENDMENTS ON THIRD READING. When a bill has been taken up on its third reading, amendments shall be in order, but shall require a two-thirds vote of the members present for their adoption. A bill on third reading may be recommitted to a committee and later reported to the house with amendments, in which case the bill shall take the course of a bill at its second reading. After all amendments have been disposed of, the question shall be on the final passage of the bill. (Sec. 4.325.)

Sec. 6. COPIES OF AN AMENDMENT. (a) Five copies of each amendment shall be filed with the speaker. When the amendment is read, two copies shall go to the chief clerk, one copy to the journal clerk, one copy to the reading clerk, and one copy to the speaker. No amendment offered from the floor shall be in order unless the sponsoring member has complied with the provisions of this subsection with respect to copies of the amendment.

(b) Prior to the time that an amendment is offered, if the amendment exceeds one page in length, the sponsoring member must provide to the chief clerk a minimum of 15 copies to be available for distribution to those members requesting copies of the amendment.

(c) If the amendment is only one page in length or less, the sponsoring member must provide one additional copy of the amendment to the chief clerk, who shall immediately proceed to have additional copies made and available for those members requesting copies of the amendment.

(d) The provisions of this subsection with respect to extra copies shall not apply to committee amendments or to amendments which do nothing more than delete material from the bill or resolution. (Sec. 4.326.)

Sec. 7. ORDER OF OFFERING MOTIONS TO AMEND. Classes of motions to amend shall be offered in the following order:

(1) Motions to amend by striking out the enacting clause of a bill (or the enacting clause of a resolution), which amendment cannot be amended or substituted;

(2) Motions to amend an original bill, resolution, motion, or proposition (other than substitute bills as provided for in Subdivision (3) below), which shall have precedence as follows:
(A) original amendment;
(B) amendment to the amendment;
(C) substitute for the amendment to the amendment.

Recognition for the offering of original amendments shall be as follows: first, the main author; second, the member or members offering the committee amendment; and third, members offering other amendments from the floor;
(3) motions to amend an original bill by striking out all after the enacting clause (substitute bills), which substitute bills shall be subject to amendment as follows:
(A) amendment to the substitute bill;
(B) substitute for the amendment to the substitute bill.

Recognition for offering such substitute bills shall be as follows: first, the main author of the original bill, if the member has not sought to perfect the bill by amendments as provided for in Subdivision (2) above; second, the member or members offering the committee amendment; and, third, members offering amendments from the floor.

It shall be in order under the procedure described in this subdivision to have as many as four complete measures pending before the house at one time; that is, an original bill, an amendment striking out all after the enacting clause of the bill and inserting a new bill body, an amendment to the amendment striking out all after the enacting clause of the bill and inserting a new bill body, and a substitute for this amendment to the amendment to the original bill which is also a new bill body. These "substitute bills" shall be voted on in the reverse order of their offering;
(4) motions to amend the caption of a bill or joint resolution, which may also be offered in accordance with Section 9(a) of this rule [4.329(a)]. (Sec. 4.327.)

Sec. 8. STRIKE OUTS AND INSERTIONS. (a) A motion to strike out and to insert new matter in lieu of that to be stricken out shall be regarded as a substitute and shall be indivisible.
(b) Matter inserted or stricken out of an original bill by way of amendment may not be taken out or reinserted at a later time on the same reading except under the following conditions:
(1) reconsideration of the inserting or deleting amendment;
(2) adoption of a "substitute bill" amendment;
(3) adoption of an amendment for a whole paragraph, section or subdivision of a bill which so materially changes the original text that the portion inserted or deleted is in fact of minor importance. (Sec. 4.328.)

Sec. 9. AMENDING CAPTIONS. (a) An amendment to the caption of a bill or resolution shall not be in order until all other proposed amendments have been acted on and the house is ready to vote on the passage of the measure, and it shall then be decided without debate.
(b) If the previous question has been ordered on a bill or joint resolution at any reading, an amendment to the caption of that bill or joint resolution may be offered and voted on immediately preceding the final vote on the bill or joint resolution. (Sec. 4.329.)

Sec. 10. MOTION TO LIMIT AMENDMENTS. (a) A motion to limit amendments shall be admitted only when seconded by 25 members. The motion may take either of two forms:
(1) to limit amendments to those pending before the house; or
(2) to limit amendments to those pending on the speaker's desk.
(b) The motion shall be put by the chair in this manner: "The motion has been seconded. Three minutes pro and con debate will be allowed on the motion to limit amendments." As soon as the debate has ended, the chair shall continue: "As many as are in favor of limiting amendments on (here state on which question or questions) will say "Aye," and then "As many as are opposed say "Nay."" As in all other propositions, a motion to limit amendments shall be decided by a record vote if demanded by three members. If ordered by a majority of the members voting, a quorum being present, the motion shall have the effect of confining further debate and consideration to those amendments included within the motion, and thereafter the chair will accept no more amendments to the proposition to which the motion is applied.

(c) The motion to limit amendments, if adopted, shall not in any way cut off or limit debate or other parliamentary maneuvers on the pending proposition or propositions or amendment or amendments included within the motion. The sole function of the motion is to prevent the chair from accepting further amendments to the proposition to which the motion is applied.

(d) Except as otherwise provided, the motion to limit amendments shall have no effect on the parliamentary situation to which the motion is applied, and the matter to which the motion is applied shall continue to be considered by the house in all other respects as though the motion had not been made.

(e) The amendments that are included within the motion to limit amendments shall each be subject to amendment, if otherwise permitted under the rules. (Sec. 4.330.)

Sec. 11. MOTION TO TABLE A MOTION TO LIMIT AMENDMENTS. The motion to limit amendments is not subject to a motion to table. (Sec. 4.331.)

Sec. 12. ORDER OF VOTING ON AMENDMENTS. When an amendment is offered, followed by an amendment to that amendment, and then a substitute for the amendment to the amendment, these questions shall be voted on in the reverse order of their offering. (Sec. 4.332.)

Sec. 13. CERTIFICATION OF ADOPTION OF AMENDMENTS. When an amendment is adopted, such action shall be certified by the chief clerk on the amendment, and the official copy of the amendment shall then be securely attached to the bill or resolution which it amends. (Sec. 4.333.)

RULE 13. PRINTING

Sec. 1. PRINTINGS OF BILLS AND JOINT RESOLUTIONS. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this rule, all bills and joint resolutions shall be printed and a copy provided to each member at each of the following stages in the parliamentary progress of the bill or joint resolution:

(1) at the time of the committee report on the bill or joint resolution, which shall be known as "First Printing" and which shall consist of:

(A) a complete text of the bill or joint resolution as reported from committee; in the event that the bill or joint resolution proposes to amend an existing statute or constitutional provision, any language sought to be deleted shall be inserted in its appropriate place in brackets and struck through, and any language sought to be added shall be underlined; except as provided in Section 3.18(d), Sections on severability, nonseverability, emergency, and repeaters shall not be underlined;

(B) a complete copy of the committee bill analysis;
(C) the text of the committee report;
(D) the record vote by which the measure was reported from committee, including the vote of individual members;
(E) a copy of the latest fiscal note or fiscal statement prepared by the author; and
(F) a copy of the latest actuarial analysis;

(2) at the time the bill or joint resolution, if amended, finally passes the senate, senate amendments and house engrossment text will be printed, which shall be known as "Second Printing"; and
(3) at the time the conference committee, if any, makes its report on the bill or joint resolution, which shall be known as “Third Printing.”

(b) In any section of the first printing of a bill or joint resolution that proposes to amend an existing statute or constitutional provision, language sought to be deleted must be bracketed and stricken through, and language sought to be added must be underlined. This requirement does not apply to:

1. an appropriations bill;
2. a local bill;
3. a game bill;
4. a recodification bill;
5. a redistricting bill;
6. a section of a bill or joint resolution not purporting to amend an existing statute or constitutional provision;
7. a section of a bill or joint resolution that revises the entire text of an existing statute or constitutional provision, to the extent that it would confuse rather than clarify to show deletions and additions; and
8. a section of a bill or joint resolution providing for severability, nonseverability, emergency, or repeal of an existing statute or constitutional provision.

(c) The speaker may overrule a point of order raised as to a violation of Subsection (a) of this section if the violation is typographical or minor and does not tend to deceive or mislead. (Sec. 5.141.)

Sec. 2. LOCAL BILLS. Local bills shall not be reprinted after the first printing except when ordered printed by a majority vote of the house. (Sec. 5.142.)

Sec. 3. CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS. A concurrent resolution shall be printed only if the resolution:

1. grants permission to sue the state;
2. memorializes Congress to take or to refrain from taking certain action;
3. sets legislative policy or declares legislative intent;
4. makes corrective changes in any bill, joint resolution, or conference committee report;
5. establishes or interprets policy for a state agency, department, or political subdivision;
6. authorizes a conference committee to include or omit from a conference committee report a matter which otherwise would be prohibited by the rules;
7. establishes, modifies, or changes internal procedures or administration of the legislature or any component part thereof;
8. proposes an amendment to the Joint Rules of the Senate and the House of Representatives; or
9. is ordered printed by a majority vote of the house. (Sec. 5.143.)

Sec. 4. HOUSE RESOLUTIONS. A house resolution shall be printed only if the resolution:

1. proposes an amendment to the rules of the house;
2. establishes, modifies, or changes the internal procedures and administration of the house;
3. establishes legislative policy or interprets legislative intent; or
4. is ordered printed by a majority of the house. (Sec. 5.144.)

Sec. 5. ACCEPTABLE STANDARDS OF COMPLIANCE WITH PRINTING REQUIREMENTS. Except for matter to be printed in the journal, all requirements contained in the rules with respect to the printing of bills, resolutions, reports, and other matters shall be considered complied with if the material is
RULE 14. INTERACTIONS WITH THE GOVERNOR AND SENATE

CHAPTER A. MESSAGES

Sec. 1. MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR. Messages and communications from the governor shall be received when announced, and shall be read on the calendar day received. (Sec. 6.01.)

Sec. 2. MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE. (a) All messages from the senate shall be received when announced. Senate bills announced as passed shall be read for the first time and referred to the appropriate committee as soon as practicable [on the calendar day received, if possible, or on the next calendar day the house is in session].

(b) Messages from the senate announcing amendments to house bills and resolutions, nonconcurrence in house amendments to senate bills and resolutions, requests for conference committees, reports of conference committees, and all other matters of disagreement, amendments, and requests between the two houses, shall go to the speaker's desk in their regular order, but may be called up for action by the house at any time as a privileged matter, yielding only to a motion to adjourn. (Sec. 6.02.)

CHAPTER B. SENATE AMENDMENTS

Sec. 3. HOUSE ACTION ON SENATE AMENDMENTS. When a bill, resolution, or other matter is returned to the house with senate amendments, the house may:

(I) agree to the amendments; or
(2) disagree to all of the amendments and ask for a conference committee; or
(3) agree to one or more of the amendments and disagree as to the remainder and request a conference committee to consider those in disagreement; or
(4) agree to one or more and disagree as to the remainder; or
(5) disagree to all amendments. (Sec. 6.21.)

Sec. 4. ADOPTION OF SENATE AMENDMENTS FOR BILLS WITH IMMEDIATE EFFECT. If a bill is to go into immediate effect, senate amendments thereto must be adopted by a vote of two-thirds of the elected membership of the house. (Sec. 6.22.)

Sec. 5. PRINTING SENATE AMENDMENTS. Senate amendments to house bills and resolutions must be printed and copies provided to the members at least 24 hours before any action can be taken thereon by the house; however, during the last 72 hours of any session, it shall not be necessary for the 24-hour period to elapse before action can be taken by the house. (Sec. 6.23.)

CHAPTER C. CONFERENCE COMMITTEES

Sec. 6. MEMBERSHIP AND OPERATION. In all conferences between the senate and the house by committee, the number of committee members from each house shall be five. All votes on matters of difference shall be taken by each committee separately. A majority of each committee shall be required to determine the matter in dispute. Reports by conference committees must be signed by a majority of each committee of the conference. (Sec. 6.41.)

Sec. 7. MEETINGS. House conferees when meeting with senate conferees to adjust differences shall meet in public and shall give a reasonable amount of notice of the meeting in the place designated for giving notice of meetings of house standing committees. Any such meeting shall be open to the news media. Any conference committee report adopted in private shall not be considered by the house. (Sec. 6.42.)
Sec. 8. INSTRUCTIONS. Instructions to a conference committee shall be made after the conference is ordered and before the conferees are appointed by the speaker, and not thereafter. (Sec. 6.43.)

Sec. 9. LIMITATIONS ON JURISDICTION. (a) Conference committees shall limit their discussions and their actions solely to the matters in disagreement between the two houses. A conference committee shall have no authority with respect to any bill or resolution:

1. to change, alter, or amend text which is not in disagreement;
2. to omit text which is not in disagreement;
3. to add text on any matter which is not in disagreement;
4. to add text on any matter which is not included in either the house or senate version of the bill or resolution.

This rule shall be strictly construed by the presiding officer in each house to achieve these purposes.

(b) Conference committees on appropriations bills, like other conference committees, shall limit their discussions and their actions solely to the matters in disagreement between the two houses. In addition to the limitations contained elsewhere in the rules, a conference committee on appropriations bills shall be strictly limited in its authority as follows:

1. If an item of appropriation appears in both house and senate versions of the bill, the item must be included in the conference committee report.
2. If an item of appropriation appears in both house and senate versions of the bill, and in identical amounts, no change can be made in the item or the amount.
3. If an item of appropriation appears in both house and senate versions of the bill but in different amounts, no change can be made in the item, but the amount shall be at the discretion of the conference committee, provided that the amount shall not exceed the larger version and shall not be less than the smaller version.
4. If an item of appropriation appears in one version of the bill and not in the other, the item can be included or omitted at the discretion of the conference committee. If the item is included, the amount shall not exceed the sum specified in the version containing the item.
5. If an item of appropriation appears in neither the house nor the senate version of the bill, the item must not be included in the conference committee report. However, the conference committee report may include appropriations for purposes or programs authorized by bills that have been passed and sent to the governor and may include contingent appropriations for purposes or programs authorized by bills that have been passed by at least one house.

This rule shall be strictly construed by the presiding officer in each house to achieve these purposes.

(c) Conference committees on tax bills, like other conference committees, shall limit their discussions and their actions solely to the matters in disagreement between the two houses. In addition to the limitations contained elsewhere in the rules, a conference committee on a tax bill shall be strictly limited in its authority as follows:

1. If a tax item appears in both house and senate versions of the bill, the item must be included in the conference committee report.
2. If a tax item appears in both house and senate versions of the bill, and in identical form and with identical rates, no change can be made in the item or the rate provided.
3. If a tax item appears in both house and senate versions of the bill but at differing rates, no change can be made in the item, but the rate shall be at the discretion of the conference committee, provided that the rate shall not exceed the higher version and shall not be less than the lower version.

(4) If a tax item appears in one version of the bill and not in the other, the item can be included or omitted at the discretion of the conference committee. If the item is included, the rate shall not exceed the rate specified in the version containing the item.

(5) If a tax item appears in neither the house nor the senate version of the bill, the item must not be included in the conference committee report.

This rule shall be strictly construed by the presiding officer in each house to achieve these purposes.

(d) Conference committees on reapportionment bills, to the extent possible, shall limit their discussions and their actions to the matters in disagreement between the two houses. Since the adjustment of one district in a reapportionment bill will inevitably affect other districts, the strict rule of construction imposed on other conference committees must be relaxed somewhat when reapportionment bills are involved. Accordingly, the following authority and limitations shall apply only to conference committees on reapportionment bills:

(1) If the matters in disagreement affect only certain districts, and other districts are identical in both house and senate versions of the bill, the conference committee shall make adjustments only in those districts whose rearrangement is essential to the effective resolving of the matters in disagreement.
All other districts shall remain unchanged.

(2) If the matters in disagreement permeate the entire bill and affect most, if not all, of the districts, the conference committee shall have discretion in rearranging the districts to the extent necessary to resolve all differences between the two houses.

(3) Insofar as the actual structure of the districts is concerned, and only to that extent, the provisions of Subsection (a) of this section [Section 6.44(a)] shall not apply to conference committees on reapportionment bills.

(e) Conference committees on recodification bills, like other conference committees, shall limit their discussions and their actions solely to the matters in disagreement between the two houses. The comprehensive and complicated nature of recodification bills makes necessary the relaxing of the strict rule of construction imposed on other conference committees only to the following extent:

(1) If it develops in conference committee that material has been inadvertently included in both house and senate versions which properly has no place in the recodification, that material may be omitted from the conference committee report, if by that omission the existing statute is not repealed, altered, or amended.

(2) If it develops in conference committee that material has been inadvertently omitted from both the house and senate versions which properly should be included if the recodification is to achieve its purpose of being all-inclusive of the statutes being recodified, that material may be added to the conference committee report, if by the addition the existing statute is merely restated without substantive change in existing law.

(f) Limitations imposed on certain conference committees by the provisions of this section may be suspended in part by permission of the house to allow consideration of and action on a specific matter or matters which otherwise would be prohibited. Permission shall be granted only by resolution passed by majority vote of the house, with yeas and nays recorded in the journal of the house. Any such resolution relating to the general appropriations bill shall be privileged in nature and shall be eligible for consideration by the house one hour after introduction and need not be referred to a committee. The resolution shall specify in detail:
the exact nature of the matter or matters proposed to be considered;
(2) the specific limitation or limitations to be suspended;
(3) the specific action contemplated by the conference committee; and
(4) the reasons that suspension of the limitations is being requested.

In the application of this subsection to appropriations bills, the resolution shall include a general statement outlining a proposed salary plan but need not include changes in amounts resulting from the salary plan and differences in language which do not affect the substance of the bill.

Permission thus granted shall suspend the limitations only for the matter or matters clearly specified in the resolution, and the action of the conference committee shall be in conformity with the resolution. (Sec. 6.44.)

Sec. 10. PRINTING AND DISTRIBUTION OF REPORTS. (a) All conference committee reports on appropriations bills, tax bills, reapportionment bills, and recodification bills must be printed and a copy furnished to each member at least 48 hours before any action can be taken thereon by the house.

(b) All conference committee reports on bills other than appropriations, tax, reapportionment, and recodification bills must be printed and a copy furnished to each member at least 24 hours before action can be taken on the report by the house; however, during the last 48 hours of any session it shall be necessary for only two hours to elapse after a copy has been provided to each member before action can be taken on the report by the house. (Sec. 6.45.)

Sec. 11. ANALYSIS OF REPORTS. All reports of conference committees shall include an analysis showing wherein the report differs from the house and senate versions of the bill, resolution, or other matter in disagreement. The analysis of appropriations bills shall show in dollar amounts the differences between the conference committee report and the house and senate versions. No conference committee report shall be considered by the house unless such an analysis has been prepared and distributed to each member. (Sec. 6.46.)

Sec. 12. CONSIDERATION OF REPORTS. A conference committee report is not subject to amendment, but must be accepted or rejected in its entirety. While a conference committee report is pending, a motion to deal with individual amendments in disagreement is not in order. (Sec. 6.47.)

Sec. 13. WHEN REPORTS NOT ACCEPTABLE. When a conference committee report is not acceptable to the house for any reason, it may be recommitted to the same committee with the request for further consideration, and the house may or may not give any specific instructions on the report to the conference committee; or the house may request the appointment by the senate of a new conference committee and then proceed to empower the speaker to name new conferees for the house. (Sec. 6.48.)

RULE 15. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec. 1. WHEN RULES ARE SILENT. If the rules are silent or inexplicit on any question of order or parliamentary practice, the Rules of the House of Representatives of the United States Congress, and its practice as reflected in Hind’s and Cannon’s Precedents, and Mason’s Manual of Legislative Procedure shall be considered as authority. (Sec. 7.01.)

Sec. 2. AMENDMENTS TO THE RULES. (a) Amendments to the rules of the house shall be proposed by house resolutions which shall be referred at once, without debate, to the Committee on Rules for study and recommendation.

(b) A resolution proposing an amendment to the rules shall not be considered by the house until a printed copy of the resolution has been provided to each member of the house at least 48 hours before consideration.
(c) Amendments to the rules shall require a majority vote of the house for adoption. (Sec. 7.02.)

Sec. 3. MOTION TO SUSPEND THE RULES. A motion to suspend the rules shall be in order at any time, except when motions to adjourn or recess are pending, even when the house is operating under the previous question. A motion to "suspend all rules" shall be sufficient to suspend every rule under which the house is operating for a particular purpose except the provisions of the constitution, the statutes, and the joint rules of the two houses. If the rules have been suspended on a main motion for a given purpose, no other motion to suspend the rules on a main motion shall be in order until the original purpose has been accomplished. (Sec. 4.301.)

Sec. 4. NOTICE OF PENDING MOTION TO SUSPEND THE RULES. It shall not be in order to move to suspend the rules or the regular order of business to take up a measure out of its regular order, and the speaker shall not recognize anyone for either purpose, unless the speaker has announced to the house in session that the speaker would recognize a member for that purpose at least one hour before the member is so recognized to make the motion. In making the announcement to the house, the speaker shall advise the house of the member's name and the bill number, and this information, together with the time that the announcement was made, shall be entered in the journal. This rule may be suspended only by unanimous consent. (Sec. 4.302.)

Sec. 5. VOTE REQUIREMENTS FOR SUSPENSION. A standing rule of the house may be suspended by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members present. However, if a rule contains a specific provision showing the vote by which that rule may be suspended, that vote shall be required for the suspension of the rule. The specific provision may not be suspended under the provisions of this section. (Sec. 4.303.)

Sec. 6. DISPOSAL OF MEASURES TAKEN UP UNDER SUSPENSION. Any measure taken up under suspension and not disposed of on the same day shall go over as pending or unfinished business to the next day that the house is in session, and shall be considered thereafter from day to day (except the days used for the consideration of senate bills) until disposed of. (Sec. 4.304.)

Representative C. Evans offered the following amendment to the resolution:

Amend H.R. No. 16 by striking the words "a minimum of" on lines 16 and 17 on page 7.

The amendment was adopted without objection.

Representative Wilson offered the following amendment to the resolution:

Amend H.R. No. 16 on page 3 by adding a sentence to Section 6 of Chapter A, Rule 1, to read as follows:

"The speaker may recognize, at a time he considers appropriate during floor proceedings, the person serving as physician of the day."

The amendment was adopted without objection.

Representative Berlanga offered the following amendment to the resolution:

Amend H.R. No. 16 on page 34, by inserting the following between lines 26 and 27 and renumbering provisions accordingly:

(1) hours, wages, collective bargaining, and the relationship between employers and employees;

The amendment was adopted without objection.
Representatives Delco, Danburg, Denton, S. Thompson, Sutton, and Polk offered the following amendment to the resolution:

Amend H.R. No. 16 as follows:

1. Strike "chairman" each time it appears and substitute "chair".
2. On page 85, line 20, reinstate the stricken language.
3. Reinstate "or she" or "or her," or any grammatical equivalent of either term, wherever it has been stricken.

The amendment was adopted without objection.

Representative C. Smith offered the following amendment to the resolution:

Delete subsection (e) of section 16, rule 1 on page 7:

(e) All chairmen and vice chairmen appointed by the speaker under these rules shall serve at the pleasure of the speaker.

Add new section (e) to read as follows:

(e) The chair of the Committee on House Administration shall serve at the pleasure of the speaker and shall be subject to removal by the speaker at any time.

Representative C. Evans moved to table the C. Smith amendment.
