The invocation was offered by Pastor Terry Blankenship, First Baptist Church, Greenville, as follows:

Father, I come to you thanking you for the grace, mercy, and love you have revealed to us through your son. As we gather here today, may we, as Texans, remember the courage and sacrifice the 189 men of the Alamo made 171 years ago today. Their deaths kindled the birth of a great state. What an honor it is to walk in the footsteps of those renowned men.

Let us also take a few moments to remember the men and women who are bravely defending our country for the freedoms we enjoy and often take for granted. Thank you for their courage, bravery, and sacrifice. Grant them your providential protection as they defend our nation. Bless the families who have lost a loved one in this conflict. Heal the wounds of their hearts, mend their broken lives, and give them your peace that passes understanding.

I also thank you for the privilege of standing before this distinguished house of representatives. May you grant them the wisdom and conviction to lead this state in a way that is pleasing to you. May they fulfill their responsibilities and do what is right and honorable for the people of this great State of Texas.

As we begin our duties, may we remember that every one of us shall one day stand before a great and living God to give an account of our lives. Help us to live and act in an honorable and selfless way. May we honor you and serve those who are the least. I pray all these things in the name of my Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The speaker recognized Representative Flynn who led the house in the pledges of allegiance to the United States and Texas flags.

STATEMENTS OF VOTE

When Record No. 95 was taken, I was temporarily out of the house chamber. I would have voted no.

Farrar

During the vote on the third reading of HB 8, commonly referred to as "Jessica's Law," I was off the floor meeting with constituents and attending to other legislative matters. Even though the third reading is generally considered a formality, it was my intention to vote for final passage as I had during the second reading of the bill. It is my hope that the additional tools given prosecutors will help protect the children of Texas.

Isett

When Record No. 95 was taken, my vote failed to register. I would have voted yes.

Pierson
