Holy One, we give you thanks for this life, this day, and this moment. We thank you for the chance to be part of your creative and life-giving work and the opportunity to make a difference in your world. May your Holy Spirit come now into this place.

Let your spirit fill this chamber. Pour out your spirit upon these good women and men whom you have called to do the work of this great state. Give them your vision for this world. Help them to hear your voice above all the voices that demand their attention. Remind them that you are a God of love and justice, of grace and peace. O Holy God, give these your servants wisdom and courage that they may make decisions that will bring about health and hope for all your people. Help them choose your priorities, by choosing people over power, creation over contention, dignity over divisiveness, justice over judgment, possibility over posturing, and peace over politics. Keep them ever mindful that people and governments are at their best when they care for the least, the most vulnerable, the poor, and the marginalized.

Turn your face to us, O God. Let your spirit come here into this place and cast out all fear. Through the work and courage of these your servants, may love prevail over hate, hope prevail over despair, peace prevail over violence and life prevail over death, and may the world be a better place because of the work of these good women and men. We pray earnestly and faithfully in your many names. Amen.

HB 1355 ON THIRD READING
(by Gattis, Anchia, Naishtat, Delisi, Rose, et al.)

HB 1355, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to dog attacks on persons; creating an offense.

(Speaker in the chair)

HB 1355 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE RODRIGUEZ: This bill doesn't specify any breed of dog?

REPRESENTATIVE GATTIS: It does not and that's one of the things that we wanted to make sure we didn't do. I will tell you, 99 percent of the time, we know what breeds of dogs this is typically going to be. But any dog, if treated in the wrong way, trained in the wrong way, could become a very dangerous animal. This bill is to hold those irresponsible pet owners responsible.

RODRIGUEZ: And that's a good idea. One last question though, Dan. If you have a city—and I know there are other cities around the country that have this—banning certain breeds of animals or defining them as dangerous, would this supersede any ordinance that a city might have?

GATTIS: It does not and in fact in our current law a city or county can have a dog declared dangerous. We do not change that in any way. Our law in the State of Texas, though, does not allow a city to go do a breed-specific declaration and this doesn't change that either.

Representative Rodriguez moved to print remarks between Representative Gattis and Representative Rodriguez.

HB 2120 ON THIRD READING (by Deshotel)

HB 2120, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the wages credited to an individual for the purpose of computing the individual's unemployment compensation benefits.

HB 2120 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE DESHOTEL: I want you to know that I received a note this morning from the Workforce Commission—so that you will know about the concerns about this bill—that says, "Mr. Hammond's assertion below that employers would have to submit amended quarterly reports is incorrect. Quarterly reports are filed by the employer only when wages are paid—nothing in the bill revises that requirement. The bill requires that the commission develop rules to determine the method of crediting wages due, but not yet paid." That was some of the confusion that was caused on the floor and this comes directly from the Texas Workforce Commission.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative Deshotel moved to print remarks regarding HB 2120.

The motion prevailed.

Amendment No. 1

Representative Deshotel offered the following amendment to HB 2120:

Amend HB 2120, second reading engrossment, by striking the SECTION of the bill that repeals Section 201.011(1), Labor Code, and the SECTION of the bill that adds Section 201.013, Labor Code, and renumber subsequent SECTIONS accordingly.

Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

Amendment No. 2

Representative Deshotel offered the following amendment to HB 2120:

Amend HB 2120 by adding the following appropriately numbered SECTION to the bill and renumbering subsequent SECTIONS of the bill appropriately:

SECTION _____. Section 207.021, Labor Code, is amended by adding Subsection (d) to read as follows:

(d) An individual is available for work for purposes of Subsection (a)(4) even if the individual is available only for part-time work if:

(1) the individual establishes to the satisfaction of the commission that the individual has a legitimate reason to limit the individual's employment to part-time work; and

(2) the individual's last work was part-time work.

CSHJR 72 ON SECOND READING
(by Solomons)

CSHJR 72, A joint resolution proposing a constitutional amendment to clarify certain provisions relating to the making of a home equity loan and use of home equity loan proceeds.

CSHJR 72 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE MCCALL: Mr. Solomons, for purposes of legislative intent, when does the homeowner receive a copy of the loan application?

REPRESENTATIVE SOLOMONS: The homeowner may submit a written, electronic, or oral application. The lender is required to give a copy of the loan application twice to the homeowner. First, one day prior to closing, the lender is required to give the homeowner a copy of the loan application, and a final, itemized disclosure of all the actual fees, points, interest, costs, and charges that would be charged at closing. This copy of the loan application is the most current version that the borrower reviews for accuracy before the closing. Second, the homeowner should receive a copy of the final loan application, that's the final loan application, and all executed documents signed at closing. This copy is the final version of the loan application. It contains the homeowner's signature.

MCCALL: Finally, Mr. Solomons, for purposes of legislative intent, would you define what are preprinted checks?

SOLOMONS: The phrase, preprinted checks not solicited by the borrower, means checks that a person sometimes gets in the mail inviting them to borrow money. If the borrower requests these checks, then he can use the checks. However, if a borrower can sign a piece of paper when they take out a home equity loan or a line of credit that says, "I want the lender to send me checks periodically," that is not okay. That is not the intent of this provision. A borrower must request the lender to send them the checks, which is what "solicited by the borrower" means. We do not want homeowners with these accounts to be unnecessarily encouraged to borrow money against their home, and I want to make it very clear what the intent of this provision is for any state agency or court that needs help interpreting it.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative McCall moved to print remarks between Representative Solomons and Representative McCall.

The motion prevailed.

CSHJR 72 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE RODRIGUEZ: I want to make sure that the changes made in CSHJR 72 only affect the summary of rights. This resolution does not attempt to change substantive law regarding the disclosure of actual fees, and charges that must be done a day before closing, unless there is an emergency or another good cause, and the borrower consents. Is that correct?

SOLOMONS: That is correct.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative Rodriguez moved to print remarks between Representative Solomons and Representative Rodriguez.

The motion prevailed.

A record vote was requested.

GENERAL STATE CALENDAR
HOUSE BILLS
SECOND READING

The following bills were laid before the house and read second time:

CSHB 10 ON SECOND READING
(by Chavez, Peña, F. Brown, Castro, Haggerty, et al.)

CSHB 10, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to certain gaming activity conducted by an Indian tribe or tribal organization.

CSHB 10 - POINT OF ORDER

Representative Talton raised a point of order against further consideration of CSHB 10 under Rule 4, Section 32(c) of the House Rules on the grounds that the bill analysis is incorrect.

CSHB 10 - STATEMENT BY REPRESENTATIVE PEÑA

It has come to my attention that a point of order may be called on the bill analysis of CSHB 10. The reasoning for this point of order is on the basis that the caption and in certain portions of the bill the words, "tribe or tribal organization" are listed, but that in the first paragraph of the bill analysis on line five and six contain only the word "tribe."

I respectfully object to this point of order on the grounds that the caption specifically reads, "relating to certain gaming activity conducted by an Indian tribe or tribal organization." The reason why the caption includes "tribal organization" is due to the first specification of "Indian tribe," a particular type of tribe. The words "tribe" and "tribal organization" have the same definition, and therefore, if throughout the bill, the drafter stated "tribe or tribal organization" rather than "Indian tribe or tribal organization," the drafter is being repetitive.

The bill explicitly refers to "federally recognized Indian tribe or tribal organization as listed by the United States Secretary of Interior under 25 U.S.C. Section 479a-1." Attached to this memo is a copy of the mentioned section. In this section under U.S. Code, the heading reads, "Publication of list of recognized tribes." It does not read, "tribe or tribal organization" due to the nature of the repetitiveness. Therefore, I respectfully request your consideration of this objection. Thank you.

The speaker sustained the point of order.

CSHB 10 was returned to the Committee on Criminal Jurisprudence.

CSHB 2445 ON SECOND READING
(by Driver, et al.)

CSHB 2445, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to certain employment records maintained by the Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education; providing an administrative penalty.

CSHB 2445 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE LATHAM: Section 2(a)(2) [page 2, lines 16-22] states the termination report [F-5] must be submitted to TCLEOSE not later than seven days after all administrative appeals have been exhausted if the termination was based upon misconduct. Appeals can take considerable time. Does the language mean the report cannot be submitted before the appeals process is completed?

REPRESENTATIVE DRIVER: No. It simply means the report must be submitted no later than seven days after the last appeal if an agency chooses to hold the report throughout the appeals process. An agency may submit a report at the time of termination if the agency desires to clear the position and hire another officer. Of course, the agency runs the risk of the appeals process overturning the termination, which would require the agency to amend the report.

The appeals process in this section refers to local appeals and not those granted by the state to contest the designation on the report. If the agency submits the report at the time of termination it is submitted under (a)(1) [line 19, page 2]; if the agency holds the report through the appeals process it is submitted under (a)(2) [lines 20-22, page 2]. The principle is the same under Section 2(d)(1)(2) as it pertains to providing the terminated officer with a copy of the report.

LATHAM: Section 4(e) requires an administrative law judge to consider the evidence submitted by an officer that retired or resigned in lieu of termination under the same burden of proof as an officer that is terminated. Usually, an employee gives up some due process when that employee retires or resigns regardless of the reason. Why are we providing it here?

DRIVER: Some officers may be pressured into retiring or resigning in lieu of termination or may retire or resign because they feel it puts them in a better position for future employment opportunities. In such case, they probably do forfeit due process at the local level. Therefore, it should be afforded at the state level because a report designating a dishonorable discharge jeopardizes the officer's license.

LATHAM: Does that mean the same burden of proof is provided to officers that retire or resign in lieu of termination only when they face a dishonorable discharge?

DRIVER: Yes. Officers may retire or resign in lieu of termination and receive a general discharge under some circumstances. We are not asking an administrative law judge to rule on the validity of the report designation by the preponderance of the evidence in general discharge cases.

Conservation Office shall issue a report to the legislature providing an assessment of whether the ultra clean energy program should be extended due to a continued need for incentives to ensure that a diverse range of affordable fuels, including lignite, can be utilized in a manner that achieves the lowest emission profile that is technically and economically feasible.

Representative Vaught offered the following amendment to CSHB 3732:

Amend CSHB 3732 (house committee printing) on page 4, line 27, by striking "0.05" and substituting "0.02".

AMENDMENT NO. 2 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Make sure we understand, there's nothing in the legislation that prevents them from trying to say, "look, we're going to be less than this amount," correct?

REPRESENTATIVE VAUGHT: Correct.

PHILLIPS: But what you're doing is you're mandating it to be an amount that's never been attained by any active facility.

VAUGHT: That's incorrect. This whole program is not a mandate. This is an incentive program that gives these corporations—

PHILLIPS: But the question, Representative Vaught, is what plant is meeting that standard today, that's in existence in this nation?

VAUGHT: Well, I don't believe that it's in existence, we—

PHILLIPS: And that's the point, you're putting a standard on there that's nonexistent, and nothing in his bill limits them from coming and saying, because it's not just NO_x we're dealing with here, we're dealing with four different emissions, not just NO_x, correct?

VAUGHT: Agreed, and my amendment does not address any of the other ones. I want it to be as reasonable as possible, so I picked one that is probably one of the most important to our health and our economy, and that's NO_x.

PHILLIPS: You keep talking about this application down in Corpus.

VAUGHT: Yes.

PHILLIPS: That's the same facility that was denied and not allowed to go into another state, correct?

VAUGHT: I'm not aware of that.

PHILLIPS: And they're coming down and they're not using coal, they're using slurry. I mean, they're using coke product from a petroleum industry down there.

VAUGHT: I am told that it is lignite, if I'm wrong, I'll concede so, but I will tell you, though, that I come back to Mr. Theodore Beatty with Energy Northwest that is building one of these plants right now that we will have using coal—

PHILLIPS: And where is he building that?

VAUGHT: Well, I can't tell you right now, but a specific mountain energy center. Somewhere in the northwestern part of the United States.

PHILLIPS: It's in another part of the States.

VAUGHT: Yeah.

PHILLIPS: Another part of the nation.

VAUGHT: It's not in Texas.

PHILLIPS: He's marketing a certain type of facility that he wants to see his company produce down here?

VAUGHT: No, he's telling us about a facility that he's building in this area that is operational and can obtain this technology that we're talking about today.

Amendment No. 5

Representative Strama offered the following amendment to CSHB 3732:

Amend CSHB 3732 as follows:

(1) Strike page 6, lines 1 and 2, and substitute the following:

SECTION 4. Section 11.31, Tax Code, is amended by amending Subsection (b) and adding Subsections (k), (l), and (m) to read as follows:

(2) Insert the following on page 6 between lines 2 and 3:

(b) In this section, "facility, device, or method for the control of air, water, or land pollution" means land that is acquired after January 1, 1994, or any structure, building, installation, excavation, machinery, equipment, or device, and any attachment or addition to or reconstruction, replacement, or improvement of that property, that is used, constructed, acquired, or installed wholly or partly to meet or exceed rules or regulations adopted by any environmental protection agency of the United States, this state, or a political subdivision of this state for the prevention, monitoring, control, or reduction of air, water, or land pollution. Whether or not carbon dioxide is considered a pollutant, the term includes property that is used, constructed, acquired, or installed wholly or partly to capture carbon dioxide from an anthropogenic source that is used in an enhanced recovery project for which a producer of oil receives a severance tax exemption under Section 202.0545, or that is geologically sequestered. This section does not apply to a motor vehicle.

(3) Insert the following appropriately numbered SECTIONS to the bill:

SECTION _____. Subchapter B, Chapter 202, Tax Code, is amended by adding Section 202.0545 to read as follows:

Sec. 202.0545. TAX EXEMPTION FOR ENHANCED RECOVERY PROJECTS USING ANTHROPOGENIC CARBON DIOXIDE. (a) Subject to the limitations provided by this section, the producer of oil recovered through an enhanced oil recovery project that qualifies under Section 202.054 for the recovered oil tax rate provided by Section 202.052(b) is entitled to an additional 50 percent reduction in that tax rate if in the recovery of the oil the enhanced oil recovery project uses carbon dioxide that:

- (1) is captured from an anthropogenic source;
- (2) would otherwise be released into the atmosphere as industrial emission;
- (3) is measurable at the source of capture; and
- (4) is sequestered in one or more geological formations following the enhanced oil recovery process;

(b) In the event that a portion of the carbon dioxide used in the enhanced oil recovery project is anthropogenic carbon dioxide that satisfies the criteria of Subsection (a) and a portion of the carbon dioxide used in the project fails to satisfy the criteria of Subsection (a) because it is not anthropogenic, the tax reduction provided by Subsection (a) shall be reduced to reflect the proportion of the carbon dioxide used in the project that satisfies the criteria of Subsection (a).

(c) To qualify for the tax rate reduction under this section, the operator must apply to the comptroller for the reduction and include with the application any information and documentation that the comptroller may require.

(d) To qualify for the tax rate reduction under this Section, the operator must apply for a certification from the agency or agencies responsible, under the federal Safe Drinking Water Act, for the regulation of underground injection of the carbon dioxide to be sequestered pursuant to Subsection (a)(4). The agency or agencies must certify, based on substantial evidence, that there is a reasonable expectation that:

(1) the operator's planned sequestration program will assure that at least 99% of the carbon dioxide sequestered as required by Subsection (a)(4) will remain sequestered for at least 1000 years; and

(2) the operator's planned sequestration program will include appropriately designed monitoring and verification measures that will be employed for a period of time sufficient to demonstrate whether or not the sequestration program is performing as expected.

(e) The tax rate reduction shall not apply if the operator's sequestration program or the operator's monitoring and verification measures differs substantially from the planned program as described in Subsection (d), and the operator shall refund the difference between the tax paid on oil produced pursuant to this Section and the tax that would have applied in the absence of this Section.

(f) The comptroller shall approve the application if the operator submits the certification or certifications required by Subsection (d) and if the comptroller determines that the oil is otherwise eligible under this section.

(g) If, before the comptroller approves an application for the tax rate reduction under this section, the tax imposed by this chapter is paid at the rate provided by Section 202.052(a) or (b) on oil that qualifies under this section, the producer or producers of the oil are entitled to a credit against taxes imposed by this chapter in an amount equal to the difference between the tax paid on the oil and the tax due on the oil after the rate reduction under this section is applied. The credit is allowed to each producer according to the producer's proportionate share in the oil. To receive a credit, one or more of the producers of the oil must apply to the comptroller for the credit not later than the first anniversary of the date the oil is produced.

(h) The comptroller may enact rules and establish procedures to implement and administer this section.

(i) The Railroad Commission may enact rules and establish procedures to implement and administer this section.

(j) The Texas Commission on Environmental Quality may enact rules and establish procedures to implement and administer this section.

HCR 96 (by Driver)

HCR 96, Requesting the lieutenant governor and speaker to create a joint interim committee to study the qualifications and standards necessary to be designated a police agency and to encourage a moratorium on the statutory creation of new police agencies.

Amendment No. 1

Representative Driver offered the following amendment to HCR 96:

Substitute the following for HCR 96:

WHEREAS, Article 2.12, Code of Criminal Procedure, delineates who are peace officers in the State of Texas; since its enactment in 1967, the article has been amended 51 times and now includes a list of 34 classes of individuals who have been designated peace officers under the law; and

WHEREAS, Law enforcement authority for these peace officers is derived from two sources: the Texas Constitution grants permanent authority to sheriffs, constables, marshals, and police officers, among others; alternatively, peace officers are commissioned by a governmental entity or state agency to carry out a specific law enforcement purpose under the limited purview of the commissioning entity; and

WHEREAS, As a consequence of the manner in which these commissioned peace officers are authorized under Article 2.12, there are no statewide standards to provide for the oversight of a commissioning entity, liability for a peace officer's action, or management of geographic or functional overlaps in jurisdiction; and

WHEREAS, To prevent any compromises to law enforcement efforts that may arise from this lack of coordinated effort, it would behoove the state to study the development of our peace officer ranks and future additions to Article 2.12, Code of Criminal Procedure; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the 80th Legislature of the State of Texas observe a moratorium on the statutory creation of new police agencies, except for any new law enforcement authority the legislature deems necessary for the Texas Youth Commission, the Texas Juvenile Probation Commission, and the Texas Health and Human Services Commission Office of Inspector General, until the issue can be studied and fully assessed by the 81st Texas Legislature.

Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

CSHB 3678 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE HOCHBERG: I think it's important that school districts know what their rights and responsibilities are, I have no question with that and so I appreciate a lot of what you are doing with the bill. I just want to get some things clear because I want to make sure we don't set something up and have lawsuits in the other direction. Kids try to pull a lot of things, you know. There's four million of them out there. So, if a student came up with something crazy and off-the-wall and said it was their religion and they were saying things that were crazy and off-the-wall and trying to maintain the right to say them under this bill—and somebody's going to do it—it's your intent that this bill wouldn't prohibit the district from saying "no" to that. They can draw a line, can't they?

REPRESENTATIVE C. HOWARD: They can adopt a policy, that's the whole idea. The bill says, if you look on page one, it says, "a district shall adopt a policy which must include the establishment of a limited public forum for student speakers at all school events at which a student is to publicly speak." That's what the bill does. It sets up a limited public forum where these students can speak and the bill says that."

HOCHBERG: So let's assume that we're in that forum. And they've decided you can speak through the practice that you outline here at the opening of a football game, or a graduation, or something. And the student that's selected decides that his religion is The Church of Scott or The Church of Charlie and gets up and starts saying crazy things that don't fit into the policy, and the school says I don't want you to say that, but he says, "no, I'm expressing my religious viewpoint." Would you agree with me that your bill would have the school be able to say, "you can't say that, The Church of Scott is not really a religion."

C. HOWARD: Well, I think what the bill says if you look at page 2, line 10, it says, "ensure that the speaker does not engage in obscene, vulgar, offensively lewd, or indecent speech."

HOCHBERG: Let's say he gets up and says, "my religion says there is no God and I want y'all to listen to me about there not being a God and I think anybody who says there is a God is a bad person. And that's my religion and so I have a right to say that." Shouldn't the school district be able to say, "What a minute. That's not a religion. You can't use the Student Expression of Religious Viewpoints Act to justify you being able to say that."

C. HOWARD: Again, I go back to the school itself, the school district can adopt their policy and they're the ones who can state what the policy is and it has to be in a limited public forum, again.

HOCHBERG: Okay, so does that mean that the school can adopt a policy that says that if it's a religion that doesn't respect a supreme being we're not going to consider that a religion under our policy—

C. HOWARD: No, they couldn't do that because I think that would go against the Constitution.

HOCHBERG: Okay, I'm trying to figure out what authority they have to draw the line because if they do that, if they draw a line and we don't clearly state what it is, I'm afraid they are going to get sued from the other side. So in the example I gave you, where I created The Church of Scott, we could pretty much agree that this bill doesn't protect that.

C. HOWARD: I don't think this bill protects that, I think there is somewhere in the line of thinking that the public school districts are going to have to use some common sense when they set out their guidelines.

HOCHBERG: Okay, and that would be the district's job really to do that when adopting that policy?

C. HOWARD: That's correct.

HOCHBERG: The local district's job to do that?

C. HOWARD: That's correct.

HOCHBERG: And they could say that, in this community we believe in a supreme being and therefore a religion that claims to be devil-worshipping or something like that, we're not going to go for that?

C. HOWARD: I don't think we're getting that, Scott. Again, what the bill says, it's student expression. It does not say what somebody else can say. It's what a student can say only in a limited public forum.

HOCHBERG: Right. And they can say anything under the guise of religious viewpoint? I think you agreed there are some limitations—

C. HOWARD: If it's a religious viewpoint, they can express that. That's correct.

HOCHBERG: But the district gets to decide what a legitimate religious viewpoint is?

C. HOWARD: I think they could—I would not say that could not be challenged in court. That's your real question, is it not?

HOCHBERG: No, I'm just trying to get your intent of the bill. Can a district make that decision and that's the district's decision?

C. HOWARD: I think that would have to be their decision. If it's challenged, then it would have to be proven. What the bill does, and again, I refer back to the section on the model policy. If you adopt the policy that's in the bill we know that if you are sued that you'll win. That was the whole intent of putting the model policy there, but it does not tie a school district to this model policy, they can adopt their own.

HOCHBERG: Ms. Thompson has some questions and she just asked me to ask these for intent.

C. HOWARD: Sure, go ahead.

HOCHBERG: Why does it isolate on religious speech and not on any other form of speech?

C. HOWARD: Well, what it says is, they have the ability to—it doesn't say they don't have secular speech. They can have secular speech here. It does not prohibit secular speech. It's viewpoint, again. It's a secular viewpoint or a religious viewpoint expression—that's what we're talking about.

HOCHBERG: If a school provides a forum for a student to give a prayer of some religious speech, don't you run the risk of giving kids the impression that the school endorses that religion?

C. HOWARD: Well, again, if you look on page 2, line (b), it says, "a school district disclaimer required by Section (a)(4) must be provided at all graduation ceremonies, at all public places where the student can speak." In other words, the school district is required to offer a disclaimer. That's to protect them. To make sure that what you're just saying does not happen, that they're endorsing something. The disclaimer—it's their responsibility to put that disclaimer there at the outset.

REASON FOR VOTE

A motion to table is a procedural vote whether or not an amendment should perhaps have further debate. The amendment being discussed for this vote raised a question that without the amendment our local school districts could become subject to more lawsuits, and I wanted to know more about the effect of the amendment and if the proposed bill might need the amendment. This is the reason I voted against the motion to table.

AMENDMENT NO. 2 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE THOMPSON: I just want to ask you about three or four questions, just for legislative intent. If the school provides a forum for a student to give a prayer, or some religious speech, do you think that you would run the risk of giving kids the impression that the school endorses that religion?

REPRESENTATIVE C. HOWARD: Well, this bill specifically states that the school would put a disclaimer any time that they allowed that.

THOMPSON: If a kid is giving an Evangelical Christian prayer or a speech, and a Catholic or Mormon student is offended or feels coerced to conform, what would the school need to do under this bill?

C. HOWARD: I don't think this bill addresses that.

THOMPSON: How would this bill affect the situation we all read about two years ago in the Santa Fe Independent School District? Is this bill consistent with the Supreme Court decision in that case?

C. HOWARD: Yes, ma'am, it is.

THOMPSON: Don't you worry that this bill might require the state to get too entangled in religion?

C. HOWARD: No, ma'am.

THOMPSON: Specifically the process it sets up to give students a special status, it seems to do that. Do you believe that?

C. HOWARD: Ma'am, what this does, is it follows the Constitution and rulings of the Supreme Court. That's what the bill does.

THOMPSON: Is it a fact that giving kids a privilege or a special status under this process set up by this bill means that the kids who are not given that status will feel less privileged, and won't that make them feel like the school is endorsing a prayer?

C. HOWARD: I don't think that it does. I don't think it sets up a preference. It is a limited forum, as we talked about before, and the students have the right to express their viewpoint. It might be a secular viewpoint, it may not be a religious viewpoint.
