ARTICLE 5. SCHOOL DISTRICT RESIDENCE HOMESTEAD EXEMPTIONS

SECTION 5.01. Sections 11.13(b) and (c), Tax Code, are amended to read as follows:

(b) An adult is entitled to exemption from taxation by a school district of $70,000 [~~$40,000~~] of the appraised value of the adult's residence homestead, except that only $5,000 of the exemption applies to an entity operating under former Chapter 17, 18, 25, 26, 27, or 28, Education Code, as those chapters existed on May 1, 1995, as permitted by Section 11.301, Education Code.

(c) In addition to the exemption provided by Subsection (b) [~~of this section~~], an adult who is disabled or is 65 or older is entitled to an exemption from taxation by a school district of $30,000 [~~$10,000~~] of the appraised value of the person's [~~his~~] residence homestead.

SECTION 5.02. Section 11.26, Tax Code, is amended by amending Subsections (a), (a-10), and (o) and adding Subsections (a-11) and (a-12) to read as follows:

(a) The tax officials shall appraise the property to which this section applies and calculate taxes as on other property, but if the tax so calculated exceeds the limitation imposed by this section, the tax imposed is the amount of the tax as limited by this section, except as otherwise provided by this section. A school district may not increase the total annual amount of ad valorem tax it imposes on the residence homestead of an individual 65 years of age or older or on the residence homestead of an individual who is disabled, as defined by Section 11.13, above the amount of the tax it imposed in the first tax year in which the individual qualified that residence homestead for the applicable exemption provided by Section 11.13(c) for an individual who is 65 years of age or older or is disabled. If the individual qualified that residence homestead for the exemption after the beginning of that first year and the residence homestead remains eligible for the same exemption for the next year, and if the school district taxes imposed on the residence homestead in the next year are less than the amount of taxes imposed in that first year, a school district may not subsequently increase the total annual amount of ad valorem taxes it imposes on the residence homestead above the amount it imposed in the year immediately following the first year for which the individual qualified that residence homestead for the same exemption, except as provided by Subsection (b). ~~[If the first tax year the individual qualified the residence homestead for the exemption provided by Section 11.13(c) for individuals 65 years of age or older or disabled was a tax year before the 2015 tax year, the amount of the limitation provided by this section is the amount of tax the school district imposed for the 2014 tax year less an amount equal to the amount determined by multiplying $10,000 times the tax rate of the school district for the 2015 tax year, plus any 2015 tax attributable to improvements made in 2014, other than improvements made to comply with governmental regulations or repairs.]~~

(a-10) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, if in the 2024 or a subsequent tax year an individual qualifies for a limitation on tax increases provided by this section on the individual's residence homestead, the amount of the limitation provided by this section on the homestead is equal to the amount computed by:

(1) multiplying the taxable value of the homestead in the preceding tax year by a tax rate equal to the difference between the school district's maximum compressed rate for the preceding tax year and the district's maximum compressed rate for the current tax year;

(2) subtracting the amount computed under Subdivision (1) from the amount of tax the district imposed on the homestead in the preceding tax year; ~~[and]~~

(3) adding any tax imposed in the current tax year attributable to improvements made in the preceding tax year as provided by Subsection (b) to the amount computed under Subdivision (2);

(4) multiplying the amount of any increase in the current tax year as compared to the preceding tax year in the aggregate amount of the exemptions to which the individual is entitled under Sections 11.13(b) and (c) by the school district's tax rate for the current tax year; and

(5) subtracting the amount computed under Subdivision (4) from the amount computed under Subdivision (3).

(a-11) This subsection applies only to an individual who in the 2023 tax year qualifies for a limitation under this section and for whom the 2022 tax year or an earlier tax year was the first tax year the individual or the individual's spouse qualified for an exemption under Section 11.13(c). The amount of the limitation provided by this section on the residence homestead of an individual to which this subsection applies for the 2023 tax year is the amount of the limitation as computed under Subsection (a-5), (a-6), (a-7), (a-8), or (a-9) of this section, as applicable, less an amount equal to the product of $50,000 and the tax rate of the school district for the 2023 tax year. This subsection expires January 1, 2025.

(a-12) This subsection applies only to an individual who in the 2023 tax year qualifies for a limitation under this section and for whom the 2021 tax year or an earlier tax year was the first tax year the individual or the individual's spouse qualified for an exemption under Section 11.13(c). The amount of the limitation provided by this section on the residence homestead of an individual to which this subsection applies for the 2023 tax year is the amount of the limitation as computed under Subsection (a-11) of this section less an amount equal to the product of $15,000 and the tax rate of the school district for the 2022 tax year. This subsection expires January 1, 2025.

(o) Notwithstanding Subsections (a)[~~-(a-3)-~~] and (b), an improvement to property that would otherwise constitute an improvement under Subsection (b) is not treated as an improvement under that subsection if the improvement is a replacement structure for a structure that was rendered uninhabitable or unusable by a casualty or by wind or water damage. For purposes of appraising the property in the tax year in which the structure would have constituted an improvement under Subsection (b), the replacement structure is considered to be an improvement under that subsection only if:

(1) the square footage of the replacement structure exceeds that of the replaced structure as that structure existed before the casualty or damage occurred; or

(2) the exterior of the replacement structure is of higher quality construction and composition than that of the replaced structure.

This subsection expires December 31, 2024.

This subsection expires December 31, 2024.

SECTION 5.07. Section 26.15, Tax Code, is amended by adding Subsection (h) to read as follows:

SECTION 5.08. Section 31.01, Tax Code, is amended by adding Subsections (d-2), (d-3), (d-4), and (d-5) to read as follows:

(d-2) This subsection and Subsections (d-3) and (d-4) apply only to taxes imposed by a school district on a residence homestead for the 2023 tax year. The assessor for the school district shall compute the amount of taxes imposed and the other information required by this section based on a residence homestead exemption under Section 11.13(b) of $70,000 and a residence homestead exemption under Section 11.13(c) of $30,000. The tax bill or the separate statement must indicate that the bill is a provisional tax bill and include a statement in substantially the following form:

If the constitutional amendment is not approved by the voters at the election, a supplemental school district tax bill in the amount of $ _____ (insert difference between amount calculated under Section 26.09(c-1) based on an exemption under Section 11.13(b) of $40,000 and an exemption under Section 11.13(c) of $10,000 and amount calculated under Section 26.09(c-1) based on an exemption under Section 11.13(b) of $70,000 and an exemption under Section 11.13(c) of $30,000) will be mailed to you."

If the constitutional amendment is not approved by the voters:

(1) a tax bill prepared by the assessor for a school district as provided by Subsection (d-2) and mailed to a person in whose name property subject to an exemption under Section 11.13(b) or (c) is listed on the tax roll and to the person's authorized agent as provided by Subsection (a) of this section is considered to be a final tax bill but only as to the portion of the taxes imposed on the property for the 2023 tax year that are included in the bill;

(3) except as provided by Subsections (f), (i-1), and (k), the assessor for each school district shall prepare and mail a supplemental tax bill, by December 1 or as soon thereafter as practicable, to each person in whose name property subject to an exemption under Section 11.13(b) or (c) is listed on the tax roll and to the person's authorized agent in an amount equal to the difference between the

GENERAL STATE CALENDAR HOUSE BILLS SECOND READING

The following bills were laid before the house and read second time:

HB 513 ON SECOND READING

(by Metcalf, Cook, A. Johnson, Canales, Vasut, et al.)

HB 513, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the manufacture or delivery of a controlled substance or marihuana causing death or serious bodily injury; creating a criminal offense; increasing a criminal penalty.

HB 513 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE KLICK: Representative Metcalf, does HB 513 change the exemption for compassionate use products currently listed in Section 481.111(e) of the Health and Safety Code?

REPRESENTATIVE METCALF: HB 513 does not change the current exemption for compassionate use products in Section 481.111(e) of the Health and Safety Code.

KLICK: Does your proposed language in Section 2 include products legally obtained through the Compassionate Use Program under the defense to prosecution?

METCALF: Yes, the defense to prosecution in Section 481.141(c) of the Health and Safety Code would include products legally obtained through the Compassionate Use Program authorized in Section 487, Health and Safety Code, and Section 169, Occupations Code. Additionally, under the Occupations Code 169.0013 definitions, low-THC cannabis is not marihuana and HB 513 would not apply.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative Klick moved to print remarks between Representative Metcalf and Representative Klick on HB 513.

The motion prevailed.

HB 513 was passed to engrossment.

HB 1910 ON SECOND READING

(by Anchía)

HB 1910, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the prosecution of the offense of forgery.

HB 1910 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE HERRERO: Representative Anchía, I support your bill. You and I spoke briefly, and I don't intend to hold up the house any longer, but just to make sure that nothing of what you proposed in this HB 1910 changes the intent requirement of the statute as it currently exists in law, is that correct?

REPRESENTATIVE ANCHÍA: Correct. Intent, or mens rea, is not disturbed. You have to knowingly engage in the act of passing this item of value.

HERRERO: Right, and as you and I have discussed, the matter in which you are trying to address is how some of these criminals that are committing these crimes are skating what the real intent was, which is to address the amount of forged documents that they may possess in which they are trying to utilize in a criminal way.

ANCHÍA: That's right. The forger may have $100,000 worth of forged money on their person. They try to pass a $100 bill—the current state of the law determined by the Sixth Circuit was you can only charge them with forgery for the $100 bill, but not the $100,000 that they have on their person. I've been working with the white-collar crimes division at the DA's office and they want to make sure that we create a presumption that says, "Hey, you have $100,000 of forged bills on you, you're going to be charged for the value of that $100,000 not the $10 that you passed."

HERRERO: Right. And just to reiterate, under the Penal Code, Chapter 32, Subchapter B Forgery, Section 32.21(b): A person commits an offense if he forges a writing with intent to defraud or harm another. And again, your HB 1910 does not change that provision, is that correct?

ANCHÍA: You have to do so with that intention and knowingly.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative Herrero moved to print remarks between Representative Anchía and Representative Herrero on HB 1910.

The motion prevailed.

HB 1910 was passed to engrossment.
