To Committee on Constitutional Amendments.

By Senator Stone:

S. J. R. No. 15, Proposing an amendment to Section 9 of Article 8 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, by providing that counties may levy, assess and collect for county purposes the unneeded and unused part of the maximum tax rate now authorized by law to pay jurors and for the erection of public buildings, streets, sewers, water works and other permanent improvements; providing that this Section shall not be construed as a limitation on powers delegated to counties by any other Section of this Constitution; fixing the time for the election for the adoption or rejection of said proposed constitutional amendment; making certain provisions for said election and ballots thereof, and the method thereof, directing the issuance of proclamation therefor; prescribing certain duties of the Governor of the State of Texas; and making an appropriation to defray the expenses of said election.

By Senator Vick:

S. J. R. No. 16, Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas providing for a Supreme Court of nine members, and providing the Governor may fill any vacancy until the next general election, and providing that two members of the present Commission of Appeals shall serve until the first general election, and two until the second general election, and two until the third general election, as members of the Supreme Court.

By Senator Moore:

S. J. R. No. 17, Proposing an amendment to Article V of the Constitution of Texas by providing that the Legislature shall have the power, by local or general law, in counties having a population in excess of two hundred and fifty thousand (250,000) inhabitants to create other courts having exclusive jurisdiction or concurrent jurisdiction with the county court in civil, criminal or probate matters; fixing the time for an election therefor; prescribing the form of ballot; providing for a proclamation of such election and the advertisement thereof; and making an appropriation therefor.

To Committee on Constitutional Amendments.
