Whereas, One hundred and fifty years ago, on the fourth day of March, 1791, Vermont was admitted to the Union of States; and

Whereas, Prior to its admission it had for fourteen years asserted its independence and exercised the prerogatives of a complete and self-sustaining sovereignty; and

Whereas, Texas for almost ten years prior to its admission as a State was similarly constituted as a republic and was in all respects an independent commonwealth, as was Vermont; and

Resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring, That we extend congratulations to the Governor and the Legislature of Vermont and to the people of the State upon the occasion of the celebration of the sesquicentennial anniversary of its admission to the Union.

The resolution was read, and by unanimous consent, it was considered at this time and was adopted.

Question—Shall the amendment by Senator Metcalfe be adopted?
House Bill 765 on Second Reading

On motion of Senator Moore and by unanimous consent, the regular order of business was suspended, to permit consideration of H. B. No. 765 at this time.

The President laid before the Senate on its second reading and passage to third reading:

H. B. No. 765, A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend H. B. No. 427, Acts Forty-second Legislature, Regular Session, providing that all officers and employees of the State of Texas, any county or political subdivision thereof, including municipalities, who are members of the National Guard, National Guard Reserves, or Organized Reserves of the Army or Navy of the United States, shall be entitled to leave of absence without loss of pay or efficiency rating during such days as they may attend training ordered or authorized under provisions of law; limiting the period of absence with pay to twelve (12) days in any one calendar year; providing that such limitation to twelve (12) days absence with pay shall not apply to members of the Legislature; and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Senator Moore offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend H. B. No. 765 by striking out all of Sections 1 and 2 thereof and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 1.

Section 1 of H. B. No. 427, Acts Regular Session of the Forty-second Legislature is amended hereby to read as follows:

'Section 1. All officers and employees of the State of Texas and of any county or political subdivision thereof, including municipalities, who shall be members of the National Guard of Texas and of the National Guard Reserves of Texas and of the Organized Reserves of the United States Army and of the Naval Reserves of the Navy of the United States shall be entitled to leave of absence from their respective duties, without loss of efficiency rating, on all days during which they shall be engaged in field or coast defense training, ordered or authorized under the provisions of law, and without loss of pay for the first twelve (12) days of such leave of absence; but such officers and employees shall not be entitled to pay from the State of Texas or any county or political subdivision thereof during such leave of absence for a longer period than twelve (12) days during any one calendar year. Such leave of absence shall be in lieu of any and all other vacations with pay, and said employee shall not be entitled to any other vacation with pay during that fiscal year.

'The provisions of Section 1 of this Act, limiting such leaves of absence with pay to twelve (12) days in any one calendar year, shall not apply to members of the Legislature, but members of the Legislature shall be entitled to pay on all days, without limitation as to the number thereof, when they may be absent from the sessions of the Legislature and engaged in such field or coast defense training;"

And by changing the number "Section 9" in H. B. 765 to "Section 2," and amend the caption to conform.

Senator Hill offered the following amendment to the amendment:

Amend Moore amendment, last paragraph, so that the same shall hereafter read as follows:

"The provisions of Section 1 of this Act, limiting such leave of absence with pay to twelve (12) days in any one calendar year, shall not apply to members of the Legislature, but members of the Legislature and/or State employees shall be entitled to pay on all days, without limitation as to the number thereof, when they may be absent from sessions of the Legislature, or from their duties and engaged in such field or coast defense training."

Senator Moore moved to table the amendment.

Yeas and nays were demanded, and the motion to table prevailed by the following vote:
