Communication from Students of North Dallas High School

4322 Bowser St.,
Dallas, Texas,
April 7, 1941.
Members of the Forty-seventh Legislature,
Senate Chamber,
Attention: Lieutenant Governor Coke R. Stevenson:

Gentlemen:
It gives us great pleasure to present each of you with a little token of appreciation for your services as Senators in this Forty-seventh Legislature. We love good government, and we think you are doing a wonderful job. These bluebonnets were gathered by us, and they represent our love appreciation of you.

We are high school students and members of the Allied Youth Group, and deeply appreciate Senator Lovelady's and all your help in our behalf regarding the alcoholic problem which confronts us. We go to the North Dallas High School in Dallas, Texas, are members of the Highland Baptist Church, and are students of good government.

We are against all forms of "isms" detrimental to our United States and are working to prevent these "isms" from spreading through our school systems and our land. Our sponsor of Allied Youth is Miss Ballard, who is a wonderful teacher. We are all loyal Americans, as our forefathers and foremothers were before us, and are trying to be good Christian people as they were.

We wish all of you much happiness, success, and good health, and thank you for giving us the opportunity of a good education. We shall endeavor to make the most of it, and become good citizens like you.

Sincerely,
JOHN BROOKS WATSON,
HERSCHEL A. WATSON,
BARBARA FENNE,
MITIZE SMITH,
And many others.
