The motion to adjourn prevailed; and the Senate, accordingly, at 12:15 o'clock p. m., adjourned until 10:00 o'clock a. m. tomorrow.
Senator Brownlee offered the following resolution:

(Senate Concurrent Resolution 39)

Whereas, The Bench and Bar of Texas has lost one of its best beloved and most brilliant members, in the passing of Judge George E. Christian, Commissioner of the State Court of Criminal Appeals, on Tuesday, April 15, 1941; and

Whereas, Judge Christian for many years rendered a notable public service to the people of Texas as District Attorney, Assistant Attorney General, as an officer in the World War, and for more than thirteen years as a member of the Commission of Appeals; and, while young in years, Judge Christian served the State with credit to himself and honor to his State and nation; and

Whereas, Judge Christian was recognized by all who knew him as a man possessed of a lovable and admirable personality and splendid traits of character; and

Whereas, In the passing of this distinguished and lovable gentleman, his State and community has suffered the loss of a beautiful and shining character and faithful public servant, and a true, honorable and loyal citizen and friend; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of Texas, the House of Representatives concurring, That they acknowledge with deep regret the passing of this fine gentleman and citizen of Texas, and that a copy of this resolution be spread upon the memorial pages of the Senate and House of Representatives Journals of the day as a token of the love and esteem with which he was held; and, be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives send the family of the deceased a copy of this resolution under their respective seals, and that when the Senate and the House of Representatives adjourn today, that they do so in silent tribute to a man whose name shall live long in the affection of his friends and sorrowing family.

The resolution was read.

On motion of Senator Brownlee, and by unanimous consent, the resolution was considered immediately.

On motion of Senator Martin, the names of all Senators were added to the resolution as signers thereof.

The resolution was adopted unanimously.
In Memory of Mrs. Ida Orr Pace

Senator Chadick offered the following resolution:

(Senate Resolution 95)

Whereas, On this the 16th day of April, 1941, the Senate was grieved to learn that the Great Architect of the Universe called from this world, Mrs. Ida Orr Pace; and Whereas, Mrs. Pace was the mother of one of our former colleagues, the Honorable Will D. Pace; and

Whereas, This splendid woman met the final ordeal with the same undaunted Christian courage that she had met the problems of life; and

Whereas, In the passing of this splendid woman, we grieve with her loved ones, in her passing, and admire and appreciate the fact that she was a loving and devoted mother of our former colleague, and her life was an inspiration to those who knew her; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of Texas, That the members thereof deeply regret the passing of this noble and worthy citizen and that we extend our sympathy to the surviving members of her family; and, be it further

Resolved, That when the Senate adjourns today that it do so in in respect to the memory of Mrs. Ida Orr Pace, and the Secretary be instructed to send a copy of this resolution to her distinguished son, the Honorable Will D. Pace, and other members of her family.
