SIXTY-EIGHTH DAY
Continued
(Tuesday, May 20, 1941)

The Senate met at 10:00 o'clock a. m. and was called to order by the President.

Report of Select Committee

Senator Formby, by unanimous consent, submitted at this time the following report:

FARM CONDITIONS OF TEXAS

The farm problem of Texas is probably the most important one facing the people at this time. The buying power of Texas farmers has not been up to parity during the past 10 years. So serious is the Texas farm problem that nearly one-half million people moved from farm to town during the period from 1930 to 1940.

A committee composed of Senators L. J. Sulak of La Grange, Marshall Formby of McAdoo, from the Senate; and Representatives Ben Sharpe of Paris, W. H. Rampy of Winters, and Roger Q. Evans of Denison, all from the House of Representatives, held meetings in March and April of 1941, at Hallettsville, Houston, Athens, Temple, Cisco, Lubbock, Harlingen, Waxahachie, and Denison, where they heard reports from farmers and farm leaders, and other leading citizens of Texas pertaining to the farm problems in this State.

These meetings were well attended, and in most instances most of the talking was done by farmers who told their problems and suggested many changes to help their situation.

Farmers in different parts of Texas have different problems, but there are many problems which confront all farmers in this State.

No. 1. The most serious problem in Texas is Soil Erosion. At every meeting, all farmers agreed that soil erosion had done more to destroy the wealth of Texas than any other one thing. In parts of Texas the soil has washed away and the rich top soil of Texas has found its resting place in the Gulf of Mexico. In the western part of the State soil has blown away, but farmers have recognized this danger and in using good conservation methods are succeeding in keeping the soil where nature originally placed it.

The Triple A Farm Program has done much to encourage farmers to conserve their soil and to build up their land for future generations instead of wasting it as has been done in the past.

No. 2. The second problem confronting the Texas farmer is his loss of purchasing power, or the lack of parity on the prices of the products he sells compared with the prices he has to pay when he buys.

It is hard for a farmer to take 8c cotton and buy a $900.00 car, made by $10.00 to $15.00 per day labor, and it is hard for him to maintain the high standard of living to which his family is entitled with 8c cotton; 55c and 60c wheat; 8c hogs and other low price products which the farmers must sell.

Cotton should be selling for at least 16c, wheat should be at least $1.00 per bushel, hogs 10c, and other products in proportion to the products that farmers sell. Cattle prices along with sheep prices have been holding up well.

Whatever kind of farm program we have, the parity payment to farmers should be larger in order to keep up his purchasing power.

No. 3. Problem number three is home ownership among farmers. Home ownership among farmers should be encouraged. The best community is the one composed of medium size farms, and of farmers who own their own homes and have settled permanently, or permanent tenants. These kinds of people are interested in the community as a whole, in the churches, schools, the playgrounds and parks of that community.

Both the State and Federal Government should provide more ways for deserving farmers to buy a small or medium size farm and pay for it at a rate of interest of slightly more than 2%, over a period of 20 years. The Federal Loan policy is wrong in that it requires that the house and other improvements on the place be worth in some cases as much as the land itself.

We are striving towards that goal for every farm family to have a modern house with running water, electricity, and all other modern improvements, but it is much better to take Government money and enable the farmers to get that first start in getting hold of some land, and let him live in the kind of house he chooses to live in until he is more able to build the proper home. In this manner there will be more fine farm homes in the long run.

No. 4. The differential freight rates and the high tariff on manufactured goods has caused a low purchasing power among the farmers of Texas.

It is believed that the raising of the truck load limit will be of much benefit in reducing transportation rates in Texas. Much of the farmers' profit on all of his products is taken up by the high cost of transportation in distributing it to where it is needed.

No. 5. It is believed that there must be some sort of farm program to offset the injustice done the farmers by the high tariff. The farmer needs to be paid a subsidy or some sort of parity. The Triple A has been very successful and it is better than a domestic allotment program could be. However, many changes need to be made. Under the program in recent years, the large farmer has been helped too much and the small farmer not enough.

It is suggested that no farmer or rancher receive a Government check for more than $500.00, unless he receives his pro rata part of land rented to tenants.

In many cases, Texas land owners have bought tractors, have taken the Government checks and hired cheap labor to work their farms, and thus eliminated thousands of tenants. In fact, nearly eighty thousand farm families abandoned the farm between 1930 and 1940. Because of the practicability of the tractor, it has been natural for tractor farming to replace a good many tenants during the past ten years, but it is believed that it was never intended for the Government to cooperate with any large land owner and cause tenants to have to leave the farms.

The benefit payments should be based somewhat upon a family need basis, and certainly a land owner working two farms should not be allowed the same benefit payment on the second farm as he was allowed on the first.

The method of allotment of acres for many crops should also be changed. Each farm family should be allowed to produce so much cotton or so much wheat, or a certain amount of other products, or else the acreage should be based upon the amount of land farmed up to a point which would amount of decent income for that family.

Many farmers who were already diversifying before the Triple A Program have been unduly punished because their acreage has been cut the same percentage as the farmers who had not been diversifying.

In determining the size farm, the kind of land, the locality, and the kind of crop to be grown must be considered. It will take more acres of wheat land than it does of cotton land for a farmer to make a living. Consequently, it will take more cotton land than it takes of alfalfa land or truck products land for a farmer to make a living, and it will take more acres in some parts of Texas than it does in other parts for a farmer to raise enough cotton to provide a decent standard of living for his family.

Under the present world conditions, it is necessary to have controlled production and a benefit payment for farmers, but it must be worked out to help the average farmer a greater percentage than it does the large farmer, and the Farm Program must be arranged to encourage ownership of average size farms in Texas. The Program must also be adjusted to encourage large farm owners to rent their farms to average tenants instead of taking the benefit checks and hiring cheap labor and working farms themselves with tractors.

No. 6. The teaching of Vocational Agriculture in the high schools and colleges of Texas will be as beneficial to the agricultural industry of this State almost as anything that can be done. It was a great day for the boys of Texas when Vocational Agriculture was substituted for courses which would not help them in later years. Here is where the real farm relief begins.

Students of Vocational Agriculture in high schools and colleges are taught the means of making a better livelihood when they undertake the responsibility of making a living for their family.

Boys who learn how to profitably raise cattle, sheep, hogs, poultry and other livestock, and who learn how to make a profit out of cotton, wheat, or in other farm products, will fare well in days to come.

The teaching of Vocational Agriculture should be encouraged in Texas. Youngsters taught to make a profit in their early days of farming will still make that profit when they start making a living for their own family.

MARSHALL FORMBY, State Senator.
W. H. RAMPY, State Representative.

Proposed Amendment to Senate Bill 113

On motion of Senator Sulak and by unanimous consent, the following proposed amendment to S. B. No. 113 was ordered printed in the Journal:

Amend S. B. No. 113 by striking out all below the enacting clause and inserting the following:

"Section 1. For the purpose of conserving and providing an orderly method of disbursing and accounting for local funds of the public schools of Texas, there is hereby established a system governing the issuance, registration and payment of certain school warrants; provided, that this Act shall not repeal, amend or modify in any way Article 2827 of the Revised Statutes of 1925 as amended by Chapter 9, Acts of the Fourth Called Session of the Forty-third Legislature.

(a) On and after September 1st, 1941, all monetary obligations of public school districts payable out of its local maintenance fund shall be paid by warrants drawn upon its treasury and/or depository, which warrants shall be issued and delivered to the persons entitled thereto within thirty days after the maturity of the obligations which said warrants pay. Said warrants shall contain the following provisions and be registered and paid as herein provided:

(b) The warrants shall be dated as of the date of issue and shall be numbered serially, which number shall show the fiscal year of issue followed by the serial number, beginning with number one (1) and running consecutively thereafter to the end of such fiscal year; and shall also show whether it is payable out of the general maintenance fund or out of any special local fund as authorized by the budget and if so, which fund.

(c) All independent school districts not under the supervision of the county superintendent, and the county school superintendent for all schools under his supervision, shall keep a permanent record in which all warrants issued shall be registered in the order of their issuance and which record shall show the following facts:

1. The serial number of the warrant.
2. The correct date of issue.
3. To whom the warrant is issued.
4. The amount thereof, and the fund out of which the same is payable, as fixed by its current budget.
5. The total amount of such warrants previously issued in the same fiscal year against the same fund.
6. The correct remaining balance in the fund against which the warrant is issued.

7. The warrant shall be addressed to the treasury and/or depository of said school district and duplicate thereof shall be furnished to such treasury and/or depository.

8. The back of each warrant shall also show the information required by the above paragraphs 1 to 6, inclusive.

Section II:

(a) Warrants issued, registered and numbered according to the provisions of Section I shall be paid only in the order of their consecutive registration numbers: Provided, that warrants bearing subsequent numbers shall be paid before those bearing prior numbers if at the time of their presentation for payment sufficient funds are in the depository to pay all warrants bearing prior numbers.

(b) The lawful holder of any registered school warrant as hereinbefore provided for may present it for payment to the depository for the school district by which such warrant was issued; and thereupon such depository shall pay such warrant if it then has in its possession sufficient funds of the issuing school district lawfully applicable to the payment thereof.

(c) If the depository has not sufficient funds on hand to pay such warrant when presented it shall so note such warrant as follows: "Presented for payment this date (stating correct date) but not paid for want of sufficient funds."

Section III:

(a) It shall be unlawful for any public school depository to pay any public school warrant provided for in this Act other than in the manner prescribed in this Act.

(b) On and after the effective date of this Act it shall be unlawful for any person to purchase or offer to purchase any duly registered school warrant provided for in this Act at a greater discount than amounts to six (6%) per cent per annum from presentation date as notated thereon, to the date of such purchase, or offer to purchase. Any arrangement, agreement or subterfuge whereby it is sought to evade, avoid or circumvent this provision is hereby also declared unlawful, and shall invalidate the warrants so discounted.

Section IV:

It is hereby expressly provided that no part of this Act shall be construed so as to prejudice or delay the orderly payment or provision for orderly payment, by any public school board, of any of the indebtedness of the nature referred to, in any part of the Act which may have been incurred and which exists prior to September 1st, 1941.

Section V:

In event any provisions of this Act shall be in conflict with the provisions of any other Act, the provisions contained in this Act shall prevail. In event any sentence, clause or provision contained in this Act shall be invalid, such partial invalidity shall not affect the other provisions of this Act.

(a) “Nothing in this Act shall in any wise amend, modify, alter, change, or repeal any part of S. B. No. 402, Acts of the Regular Session of the Thirty-eighth Legislature; nor shall anything in this Act affect or apply to any independent school district in this State having within its boundaries a city of more than three hundred seventy-five thousand (375,000) population according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census.”

Section VI:

The fact that at present no provision for the order in which school warrants shall be paid exists, that the credit of many schools has been impaired because there has been no regard for the payment of such school warrants; that heretofore school districts in some cases have issued warrants far in excess of the amounts budgeted to care for such expenditures, but which fact does not appear to the innocent creditor; that in some cases creditors have been forced to hold the relatively worthless warrants of school districts for a period of many years, without interest, and in some instances have had their just obligations repudiated, and that the School Districts of Texas, whose credit should rank with the highest in the nation, actually have a notoriously bad credit rating in some instances, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity requiring that the constitutional rule providing that bills be read on three separate days be suspended and that the same is hereby suspended and this Act shall be in full force and effect from and after its effective date, September 1st, 1941, and it is so enacted.”
