Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be prepared for him under the seal of the Senate as a memento of his service to the 60th Legislature.

The resolution was read and was adopted.

Senator Reagan by unanimous consent presented Charles Roland Scoggin, II, to the Members of the Senate.

Senate Resolution 364

Senator Hardeman offered the following resolution:

Whereas, Vernon A. McGee, the first Legislative Budget Director for the State of Texas, has served his state and his country with honor and distinction; and

Whereas, Vernon McGee was educated in the Texas public schools, received degrees from Baylor and Cornell Universities; and

Whereas, After serving as bureau manager for the United Press at Fort Worth, Austin and Baton Rouge, he entered public service to organize the Texas State Employment Service, later to be known as the Texas Employment Commission; and

Whereas, In 1940 McGee joined the staff of the U. S. Bureau of the Budget, trouble-shooting problems in wartime administration; assisted in reorganizing the U. S. Civil Service Commission, the Department of Justice, and requirements-planning for the Army Air Forces; on special assignment from the Bureau of the Budget, served as Assistant Director for Management in the Office of War Information, later as Deputy Executive Director in the War Manpower Commission; and served in the U. S. Navy, Office of Industrial Relations, under the Secretary of the Navy; and

Whereas, After World War II McGee became Director of Personnel Operations for Montgomery Ward & Co., and in 1948 became Executive Editor of Kiplinger Publications, Inc., publishers of the nationally known Kiplinger Letters and the magazine, Changing Times; and

Whereas, Following the creation of the Legislative Budget Board in 1949, Vernon McGee became Legislative

Budget Director in 1950, serving continuously in that capacity for sixteen and one-half years; and

Whereas, Mr. McGee served as president of the National Legislative Conference in 1956-57, has served as chairman or member of committees of the Conference and of the Southern Conference of the Council of State Governments at various times, and is a member of the American Society for Public Administration; and

Whereas, He has taught part-time at the U. S. Department of Agriculture’s Graduate School and at Northwestern University, and is the author of numerous articles on public administration, including items in Public Administration Review and State Government; and

Whereas, Mr. McGee enjoys among recognized authorities in state governmental fiscal affairs a reputation as one of the most competent and effective men in the field; and

Whereas, He is the devoted husband of the former Janice Jones of Hillsb oro, and the proud father of William Gordon McGee, M. D., of El Paso and Mrs. D. M. Dingler of Arlington; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of Texas, That it recognize Vernon A. McGee as the fine Christian gentleman that he is; commend him for his outstanding record of accomplishment in private industry and public affairs; and express its gratitude to him for the valuable contributions he has made to Texas State Government.

The resolution was read.

On motion of Senator Brooks and by unanimous consent the names of the Lieutenant Governor and all Senators were added to the resolution as signers thereof.

The resolution was then adopted.
Message From the Governor

The following message received from the Governor was read and was referred to the Committee on Nominations:

Austin, Texas,
April 5, 1967.

To the Senate of the Sixtieth Legislature:

I ask the advice, consent and confirmation of the Senate with respect to the following appointments:

To be members of the Board of Directors of the Central Colorado River Authority, for six-year terms to expire January 1, 1973: Cal Averett of Coleman, Coleman County; Ralph Edens of Talpa, Coleman County; George Pauley of Valera, Coleman County.

Respectfully submitted,
JOHN CONNALLY,
Governor of Texas

Senate Resolution 366

Senator Word offered the following resolution:

Whereas, Texas will be represented at the world’s oldest and largest beauty pageant, the International Beauty Congress, by Miss Judi Lynn Lackey of Itasca; and

Whereas, “The Texas Beauty”, Miss Lackey’s official title in the contest, is the daughter and only child of Mr. and Mrs. B. Lackey of Itasca, and is presently a student at Hill Jr. College in Hillsboro, where she is classified as a sophomore and is one of the school’s cheerleaders; and

Whereas, This attractive and talented young woman qualified for the international contest last October in Waco, where she won the 12th annual Texas Beauty Pageant; previously she won the Lake Waco preliminary to earn a place in the state finals; and

Whereas, While a student in Itasca High School she was twirler and head drum major, and was a recognized leader in many other school activities; she studied piano for 13 years and is a brilliant musician; and

Whereas, Her favorite hobby, the writing of short stories, is included in her plans for a career in journalism; and

Whereas, When The Texas Beauty goes to Long Beach, California, to appear in the International Beauty Congress scheduled from April 18-30, she will compete with delegates from about 50 countries for the coveted International title, $10,000 in cash and other prizes; and

Whereas, The gowns to be worn by Miss Lackey are also Texas products, chosen from the collection of Clifton Wilhite at Dallas, who is president of Texas Fashion Creators, and who served on the panel of judges for the Texas finals; and

Whereas, A number of public appearances have been scheduled for The Texas Beauty before she leaves for California, including a trip to Austin to meet Governor Connally and appear before the Texas House of Representatives and the Senate; and

Whereas, Miss Lackey will appear on April 29, during the pageant finals, on national television networks which will give broader television coverage of this event than is received by all the other beauty contests combined; and

Whereas, It is appropriate that the Senate of the 60th Legislature congratulate Miss Judi Lynn Lackey for her talent and beauty and wish her well as she competes in the International Beauty Congress at Long Beach, California; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate of Texas, by this Resolution, commend Miss Judi Lynn Lackey and express appreciation for the honor she brings to the State of Texas; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared for Miss Lackey and her proud parents as a token of the esteem of the Senate of Texas and to serve as a memento of this year in which she reigns so graciously as The Texas Beauty.

The resolution was read and was adopted.

No. 45, A bill to be entitled “An Act amending Senate Bill No. 36, Page 544, General Laws of the State of Texas, Acts of the Forty-sixth Legislature, Regular Session, 1939, as amended by House Bill No. 611, Chapter 562, Page 914, General and Special Laws of the State of Texas, Forty-seventh Legislature, Regular Session, 1941, as amended, which is codified as Article 695c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, by amending Subsection (2) of Section 20; authorizing Old Age Assistance payments to noncitizens who have resided within the boundaries of the United States for at least twenty-five (25) years; fixing an effective date of assistance grants; providing a repealing clause, a savings clause, and declaring an emergency.”

S. B. No. 92, A bill to be entitled “An Act providing for the recordation of certain claims of water rights and imposing limitations on the exercise of such claims; providing for the adjudication and administration of water rights; and declaring an emergency.”

(with amendments.)

S. B. No. 185, A bill to be entitled “An Act relating to actions by state or local government officers or employees that discriminate against persons because of the persons’ race, religion, color, or national origin; and declaring an emergency.”

Respectfully submitted,
DOROTHY HALLMAN,
Chief Clerk, House of Representatives
