In Legislative Session
The President called the Senate to order as In Legislative Session at 11:15 o'clock a.m.

Senate Resolution 411
Senator Hardeman offered the following resolution:

Whereas, Dr. Lara Hoggard of Midland, Texas, nationally prominent in concert musical circles, has announced his resignation as director of the Odessa-Midland Symphony Orchestra; and

Whereas, Dr. Hoggard, director of the Permian Basin Orchestra since 1963, has been responsible for pushing it into state-wide prominence through his talents and competency as a music educator, clinician, conductor and arranger; and

Whereas, Dr. Hoggard formerly served as assistant director of the Fred Waring Pennsylvanians and is a former professor of music at the University of Oklahoma. He has been in wide demand as a clinician and teacher for music workshops, camps, festivals and symposiums and is reported to have conducted or taught more persons than anyone today; and

Whereas, In January, 1967, it fell to the Odessa-Midland Orchestra to perform the Western Hemisphere premiere of Johann Sebastian Bach's 'St. Mark Passion,' the music to this Bach work having been lost and was successfully reconstructed only last year in Germany. It had never been performed outside Europe until the Permian Basin Orchestra received permission to schedule it; and

Whereas, Two years ago the Odessa-Midland Symphony and Chorale, under Dr. Hoggard, performed for the first time in Texas and one of the first times in the United States, Gian Carlo Menotti's new work, 'The Death of the Bishop of Brindisi.' Following tradition, the Symphony closes its season with a gigantic undertaking involving the regular 80-piece orchestra and the 75-voice chorale, together with the 50-voice A Cappella Choir from Texas Tech and a specially selected 35-voice antiphonal treble choir of area high school girls, with Dr. Hoggard ably directing a performance of the Verdi Requiem; and

Whereas, In the effort to create an appreciation for classical music among young people, Dr. Hoggard initiated a program of student field trips in which elementary through high school classes visit rehearsal sessions of the orchestra and chorale. The students are encouraged to weave their way through the various sections, thereby getting a close-up view while the musicians practice for the next concert. As the result, the programs have become so popular that hardly a rehearsal goes by without a group of students in attendance. Dr. Hoggard takes time to explain, a la Leonard Bernstein, the finer points of classical music to the youngsters of all ages as they attend the youth concerts of each season; and

Whereas, Under Dr. Hoggard's guidance, the Orchestras of Midland and Odessa combined and cooperation between the cities reached an all-time high during the 1966-67 season; and

Whereas, It is the desire of the Senate of Texas to take cognizance of the fine work and the wholesome contributions of Dr. Hoggard to the State of Texas, and particularly to the Permian Basin Area, and to extend its good wishes to him and Mrs. Hoggard as they leave to engage in new undertakings and meet new challenges; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of Texas, That it does hereby recognize the excellent work, unselfish service and great contributions to our State and the Permian Basin Area of and by Dr. and Mrs. Lara Hoggard, and that copies of this Resolution, under the Seal of the Senate, be forwarded to them by the Secretary of the Senate.

The resolution was read and was adopted.
