By unanimous consent, Senator Herring offered the following resolution:

S. C. R. No. 61, Expressing appreciation for the service of Judge W. W. Heath and inviting him to address the Texas Legislature.

Whereas, Another distinguished Texan, W. W. Heath of Austin, has been selected by President Lyndon B. Johnson to serve this great nation as Ambassador to Sweden, one of the major nations of free Europe; and

Whereas, This outstanding Texas attorney, rancher, insurance and banking executive, who is highly esteemed by his fellow citizens for his zealous attention to the affairs of state government and his years of dedicated service as a member of numerous boards and commissions governing state governmental agencies and institutions, was born on December 7, 1903, at Normangee, Leon County, Texas; and

Whereas, An ex-student of colleges and universities, including The Uni-
The University of Texas, Judge Heath has had long tenure as a member of The University of Texas System Board of Regents: he was first appointed by Governor Price Daniel in March 1959 and was elected Vice-Chairman of the Board and Chairman of its Executive Committee in March 1961; on December 1, 1962, the Board elected him Chairman, and when he was renamed to the Board by Governor John B. Connally, he was re-elected Chairman in April 1965; he resigned his chairmanship on December 1, 1966, but continued as a member of the Board of Regents; and

Whereas, His first work was as a public school teacher, principal and athletic coach; then, at the age of 20, he was elected county attorney and, later, became county judge of Grimes County; when only 29, he was appointed to the office of Secretary of State and was later Assistant Attorney General of Texas in charge of State Affairs, Banking and Insurance; and

Whereas, In October 1957 he was appointed a member of the Texas State Board for Hospitals and Special Schools (the predecessor of the present Board for Mental Health and Retardation), to fill an unexpired term ending in 1959; the junior member of this Board, he was, nevertheless, elected chairman, and remained in that post until qualifying as a member of the University of Texas Board of Regents; and

Whereas, His other state service includes membership on the Board for Lease of University Lands, and he was also Vice-Chairman of this Board; he is a former member of the Executive Committee of the Governing Boards of Texas State Colleges and Universities; a member of the Texas State Finance Advisory Commission; and president of the Texas Law Enforcement and Youth Development Foundation; and

Whereas, Judge Heath has also been most active in the political arena, serving as Delegate-at-Large from Texas to both the 1960 and 1964 Democratic National Conventions; he was General Chairman of the 1961 and 1965 Texas Governor's Inaugural Committees; and

Whereas, He is an able and highly respected attorney; he began private law practice in Austin in 1937, and is now senior partner in the law firm of Heath and Davis, which specializes in insurance; he owns and operates the largest ranch in Blanco County, near Hye, Texas; he is presently a member of the Board of Directors of the Capital National Bank, Braniff International Airways, Dillard's Department Stores, National Old Line Insurance Company, and Public Savings Life Insurance Company; and

Whereas, He has been active for many years in drives for the Austin United Fund, and is immediate past Chairman of the Education Division of that agency; he is a member of the Board of Directors of Home for the Austin District of the Methodist Church; a trustee, member of the Board of Stewards, and past Chairman of the Commission on Missions and the Finance Commission of the University Methodist Church in Austin; he is trustee of the University Methodist Church Foundation, member of Southwestern University at Georgetown Associates and also its Committee of 125; he is a member of the Pepperdine College at Los Angeles Presidents Board, founder of the Guy H. and Dan C. Heath Memorial Lectures at The University of Texas M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute in Houston; and

Whereas, Judge Heath was sworn in on Friday, April 28, 1967, as United States Ambassador to Sweden; simple ceremonies at the State Department in Washington were attended by close friends, including Governor John Connally; Presidential Assistant Marvin Watson; Dr. Joseph Royall Smiley, former president of The University of Texas and now president of the University of Colorado; and Washington hostess Perle Mesta, former U.S. Ambassador to Luxembourg; and

Whereas, Judge and Mrs. Heath, their sons-in-law and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hester and Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Ray, were honored with a reception at the Washington Club following the ceremonies, with Mr. and Mrs. Dale Miller of Dallas and Washington, and Mr. and Mrs. William Bauer of Port Lavaca as hosts; and

Whereas, Undersecretary of State Nicholas deB. Katzenbach opened the ceremonies by turning to the Swedish Ambassador to the United States, The Honorable Hubert W. A. deBesche, and saying that President Johnson had named "a very distinguished Texan" to the Stockholm post “out of great respect to your country...”;

Whereas, The humility of Judge Heath in assuming the responsibility as Ambassador to Sweden was shown by his words: “I want to serve my country in this new field of public service—this country that has been so good to me.... If the people of Sweden resemble the people of Swedish ancestry who came to this country, then they are mighty fine people...”;

Whereas, Judge Heath spoke further of the legacy which Swedish immigrants brought to Texas, and added that he hoped to do what he could, in his small way, to improve the friendly relations that have always existed between Sweden and the United States; and

Whereas, It is a great honor to the entire State of Texas that W. W. Heath of Austin, outstanding for his leadership in state and national affairs, has received national and international recognition for his character and capability, and it is appropriate that the Texas Legislature recognize his dedicated service to his state and nation; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of Texas, the House of Representatives concurring, That the Texas Legislature express appreciation for the service of Judge W. W. Heath, who has demonstrated time and time again his devotion to his country, his dedication to public service; and, be it further

Resolved, That the prayers and good wishes of the Texas Legislature and all the people of Texas go with Judge Heath in friendship to the people of Sweden with the full assurance that he will represent his nation and its people with honor and integrity; and, be it further
