Senate Bill 429 on Second Reading

On motion of Senator Connally and by unanimous consent, the regular order of business was suspended to take up for consideration at this time, on its second reading and passage to engrossment:

S. B. No. 429, A bill to be entitled “An Act creating the 170th Judicial District; providing for its court and for the jurisdiction, terms, personnel, administration and practice of the court; amending Subdivisions 49 and 79, Article 199, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended; and declaring an emergency.”

The bill was read second time.

Senator Connally offered the following Committee Amendment to the bill:

Strike all below the enacting clause and substitute therefor the following:

Section 1. CREATION AND JURISDICTION. (a) The 170th Judicial District is created. Its boundaries are coextensive with the boundaries of Duval, Jim Hogg, Zapata, and Starr Counties.

(b) The 170th District Court has the jurisdiction provided for district courts by the Constitution and laws of this state. The jurisdiction of the 170th District Court in Jim Hogg County and Zapata County is concurrent with that of the 49th District Court.

Section 2. TERMS OF COURT. The terms of the 170th District Court begin on the first Monday in January and the first Monday in July of each year. Each term of the court continues until the next succeeding term convenes.

Section 3. JUDGE. (a) As soon as practicable after the effective date of this Act, the governor shall appoint as judge of the 170th District Court a person qualified to serve as a district judge under the Constitution and laws of this state. The judge appointed holds office until the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and qualified.

(b) The judge of the 170th District Court is entitled to the same compensation and allowances provided by the state for other district judges, and to a supplement of $5,900 a year divided equally among the counties of the district.

Section 4. COURT OFFICIALS. (a) The judge of the 170th District Court may appoint an official court reporter. The reporter must meet the qualifications prescribed by law for that office and is entitled to the same compensation, fees, and allowances provided by law for the official court reporter of the 49th Judicial District.

(b) The District Attorney of the 49th Judicial District shall serve as the District Attorney in Jim Hogg County and Zapata County. The sheriff and clerk of each county comprising the 170th Judicial District shall serve as sheriff and clerk, respectively, of the 170th District Court. They shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the compensation and allowances, prescribed by law for their respective offices.

Section 5. TRANSFER OF CAUSES. (a) In any county of the 170th Judicial District where the jurisdiction of the 170th District Court is concurrent with that of another district court, the judges of the two district courts having concurrent jurisdiction may freely transfer causes, civil and criminal, to and from the dockets of their respective courts. The judges may also freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other so that if a judge is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, another judge may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the cause involved.

(b) In any county of the 170th Judicial District where the jurisdiction of the 170th District Court is concurrent with that of another district court, a judge of one of the district courts having such concurrent jurisdiction may hear all or any part of a cause pending in another district court of that county; and he may rule and enter orders on, continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the cause without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket.

Section 6. Subdivision 49, Article 199, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as last amended by Section 1, Chapter 34, Acts of the 48th Legislature, Regular Session, 1948, is amended to read as follows:

"49. DIMMIT, ZAPATA, JIM HOGG AND WEBB.

"The 49th Judicial District shall be composed of the Counties of Dimmit, Zapata, Jim Hogg, and Webb, and the terms of the District Court are hereby designated therein each year as follows:

"In the County of Dimmit on the first Mondays in February and September and on the second Monday in May.

"In the County of Zapata on the fourth Mondays in February, May, and September.

"In the County of Jim Hogg on the first Mondays in March, June, and October.

"In the County of Webb on the third Mondays in March, June, and October.

"Each term of Court in each of such Counties may continue until the date herein fixed for the beginning of the next succeeding term therein.

"The jurisdiction of the 49th District Court in Jim Hogg and Zapata Counties is concurrent with that of the 170th District Court.

"The Judge of the 49th District Court or the Judge of the 170th District Court may hear and dispose of any suit or proceeding on the docket of either court in Jim Hogg and Zapata Counties. This may be done in any case without the necessity of transferring the suit or proceeding from one court to the other; however, the Judges may transfer cases from one court to the other by an order entered on the docket of the Court from which the case is transferred. Provided, however, that no case may be transferred without the consent of the Judge of the Court to which transferred. Every judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the District Court of the county in which the proceedings are pending, and the Clerk of the District Court in said county shall keep the minutes of the Court in which shall be recorded all the judgments and orders of the respective Courts.

"In Jim Hogg County jurors shall be selected as prescribed by law for service in both the 49th and 170th District Courts, and may be summoned and used for the trial of cases interchangeable in either of the district courts.

Section 7. Subdivision 79, Article 199, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as last amended by Section 1, Chapter 27, Acts of the 51st Legislature, 1st Called Session, 1950, is amended to read as follows:

"79. BROOKS AND JIM WELLS.

"The 79th Judicial District shall be composed of the Counties of Brooks, and Jim Wells.

"The terms of this District Court begin on the first Monday in January and the first Monday in July of each year. Each term of the court continues until the next succeeding term convenes.

"The Judge of said Court in his discretion may hold as many sessions of Court in any term of the Court in any county as is deemed by him proper and expedient for the dispatch of business.

"All process issued and returnable to a succeeding term of court, and all bonds and recognizances made and all grand and petit juries drawn before this Act takes effect shall be valid for and returnable to the next succeeding terms of the District Court of the several counties as herein fixed as though issued and served for such terms and returnable to and drawn for the same. All process issued and made returnable on or before Monday next after the expiration of twenty (20) days from the date of service thereof shall be valid, and unaffected by this Act.

"It is further provided that if any court in any county of said District shall be in session at the time this Act takes effect, such court or courts affected thereby shall continue in session until the time for the beginning of the next succeeding term therein, as provided for herein, and any court in any county of said District which is not in session at the time this Act takes effect may be opened for a new term at any time at the discretion of the Judge thereof and shall continue in session until

The proclamation of the Governor ordering the election shall be issued and mailed to the appropriate county judge or judges not less than twenty-one days before the election. If the election is called for a date less than thirty-five days after the date of the order, the application of any person desiring his name to appear on the official ballot at the election must be filed not later than five days after the date of the order, which shall state the deadline for filing applications. If a second election is necessary, it shall be called for a date not less than seven nor more than twenty-five days after the date of the order calling the election. If the first election is called for a date less than thirty days after the date of the election order, fifteen days’ notice of the election and fifteen days’ notification to the presiding judges shall be sufficient for that election. In a runoff election, six days’ notice and notification shall be sufficient. If ballots for absentee voting in either election cannot be made available by the twentieth day preceding the date of the election, absentee voting shall begin as soon after the twentieth day as the ballots are available, and in all events must begin not later than the third day after the date of the Secretary of State’s certification of the names of the candidates to be placed on the ballot or after the date of the order calling the election, whichever is the later, if such third day is less than twenty days prior to the election. "11. HELD IN PUBLIC BUILDINGS

"(a) In all cases where it is practicable to do so, all elections—general, special, or primary—shall be held in some schoolhouse, fire station, or other public building within the limits of the election precinct in which such election is being held. No charge shall be made for the use of such building, except that any additional expense actually incurred by the authorities in charge of the building on account of the holding of the election therein shall be repaid to them by the authority liable for the expenses of holding the election under the existing law. The authority liable for the expenses of the election may demand an itemized statement of the additional expense incurred for use of the building before making its remittance for such expense. If no public building is available, the election may be held in some other building, and any charge for its use shall be paid as an expense of the election.

"(b) The commissioners court of any county in this state is authorized to make the necessary expenditure from the permanent improvement fund of the county to construct or purchase a suitable building for holding elections in each precinct formed by the commissioners court for which no other public building is available. The building shall be made available without cost for the holding of any general, special, or primary election held within territory embracing the location of the building upon the request of the authority conducting the election, except that the county shall be reimbursed for any additional expense actually incurred on account of holding the election therein. If more than one authority requests the use of the building for the same day, the commissioners court shall determine within its discretion which authority shall be permitted to use it if all elections for which its use is requested for the same day cannot be held in the building simultaneously. The commissioners court may permit the building to be used for purposes other than the holding of elections, either with or without charge, when it is not being used for that purpose."

Process with a true copy of the petition or complaint attached thereto shall be served upon the opposite party as in other civil suits, except that the return day thereof shall be fixed by the district judge. If the contestee cannot be found within the county in which the contest is filed, service may be had upon the agent or attorney of the contestee, or by leaving the process with some person over the age of sixteen years at the usual place of abode or business of the contestee, or his last address. If service cannot be effected within three days in any of the above methods, service upon the contestee may be had by serving the county clerk in the county where suit is filed, and any candidate who files for a place on the ballot in the primary election shall thereby appoint such county clerk as his agent to receive service for him under the circumstances above set forth. If a candidate for a district office in a district which includes territory situated in more than one county files a contest in one or more counties without filing a contest in every county having territory within the district, the contestee shall have five days from the date of first service of process on him in the suit or suits filed by the contestant, in which to file a contest in such other counties of the district as he may desire to do. In a suit filed by a contestant under the authorization of the preceding sentence, the parties shall be designated, and the suit shall proceed, in the same manner as original contests filed under this section. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the contestant in a pending suit from himself filing a contest as a contestant, within ten days from the applicable date of canvass, in the district court of any county having venue of the contest preceding.”

Sec. 29a. The Texas Election Code is amended by adding a new Section 80, to read as follows:

“80. Providing for Electronic Voting Systems

“Subdivision 1. Purpose. The purpose of this section is to authorize the use of electronic voting systems in which the voter records his votes by marking or punching a ballot which is so designed that votes may be counted by data processing machines.

"Subdivision 2. Definitions As used in this section, unless otherwise specified:

"(a) 'Electronic voting system' means a system of voting in which voted ballots are counted and tabulated by automatic tabulating equipment.

"(b) 'Automatic tabulating equipment' means any apparatus which automatically examines and counts voted ballots and tabulates the results.

"(c) 'Voting equipment' means any kind of equipment used in connection with an electronic voting system other than automatic tabulating equipment.

"(d) 'Ballot card' means a card which is placed upon or inserted in a voting device and which is marked or pierced by the voter in the process of voting.

"(e) 'Ballot labels' means card, papers, booklet, pages, or other material attached to a voting device containing the names of offices, candidates and parties and statements of measures to be voted on.

"(f) 'Ballot' may refer to paper ballots, ballot cards, ballot labels, or combinations of ballot cards and ballot labels depending on the context.

"(g) 'Central counting station' means one or more locations selected by the proper public official for the automatic counting and tabulating of ballots.

Subdivision 3. Examination and Approval of Electronic Voting Systems. (a) Any person, firm, or corporation desiring to have an electronic voting system adopted for use in this state may apply to the Secretary of State to have such system examined. Before the examination the applicant shall pay to the Secretary of State the sum of $450. The Secretary of State shall cause such system to be examined as hereinafter provided and shall make and file and keep on file in his office a report of such examination, which shall show whether the system so examined meets the requirements set forth in Subdivision 4 of this section. If the report states that the system meets those requirements, it shall be approved and the system may be adopted for use at elections as provided in this section.

"(b) Before making and filing his report, the Secretary of State shall require the system to be examined by three examiners to be appointed by the Secretary of State for such purpose, one of whom shall be expert in patent law, one of whom shall be expert in electronic data processing, and one of whom shall be expert in election law and procedure, and shall require from them a written report on their examination, which shall be attached to the Secretary of State's report and kept on file. Each examiner shall receive one hundred and fifty dollars as his compensation and expenses in making the examination and report. Neither the Secretary of State nor any examinee shall have any pecuniary interest in any electronic voting system. When a system has been approved, any improvement or change that does not impair its accuracy, efficiency, or capacity shall not make necessary a reexamination or reappraisal thereof.

Any electronic voting system not approved as herein provided cannot be used at any election in this state.

Subdivision 4. Requirements for Electronic Voting Systems. (a) Any electronic voting system approved by the Secretary of State must meet the following requirements:

"(1) It must permit voting in absolute secrecy, except in the case of voters who have received assistance as provided in this code.

"(2) It shall permit each voter:

"(A) to vote at any election for all persons and offices for whom and for which he is lawfully entitled to vote, and no others;

"(B) to vote, in a general election, for any person for any office, whether or not nominated as a candidate by any party but whose name is legally on the ballot as an independent candidate;

"(C) to vote for a person whose name does not appear on the ballot, in any election and for any office where write-in votes are permitted by law;

"(D) to have his vote counted for no more than one person for the same office, unless permitted by law, and at the same time prevent his vote from being counted more than once for the same person for the same office;

"(E) to vote for or against any question upon which he is entitled to vote;

"(F) to vote, by means of a single mark or punch, for all candidates of one party or to vote a split ticket as he desires.

"(b) No electronic voting system shall be approved by the Secretary of State unless he finds that it is suitable for the purpose for which it is intended, and that it will operate efficiently and accurately and provide adequate safeguards against fraudulent manipulation under the conditions under which it is intended to be used.

"(c) In his certification of approval of any electronic voting system, the Secretary of State shall certify whether in cases where a voter splits a straight party vote, the system is capable of counting the straight party vote only for the candidates of that party for offices as to which the voter has not voted for individual candidates and of counting the votes cast for individual candidates. If the system is so certified, the voting of a split ticket in that manner shall be allowed in elections using that system.

"Subdivision 5. Adoption by Commissioners Court. (a) The commissioners court of any county in the state may adopt one or more kinds of approved electronic voting systems for use in elections in part or all of the election precincts in the county. If a particular system is not adopted for use throughout the county, the commissioners court shall designate the precincts, which shall be not less than three in number, in which such system is to be used, and any other authorized method of voting may be used in the remaining precincts. The court may provide that any precinct designated for use of a particular electronic voting system the voting in that precinct may be supplemented by use of some other authorized method of voting when in any election it appears that the number of available units of the system designated for use in that precinct is inadequate for the election; and the officer or board charged with the duty of furnishing supplies of the election may make such supplementation under those conditions.

"(b) The commissioners court at any time may rescind or modify its previous order or orders adopting any electronic voting system and may discontinue use of the system altogether, but use of the system shall be retained in at least three of the voting precincts if retained for use in any part of the county.

"(c) The electronic voting system adopted by the commissioners court shall be used at the biennial general elections for state and county officers in all precincts designated by the court for use of such system. In all other elections, general, special, or primary, the authority holding the election shall determine within its discretion whether the voting in such precincts for the particular election shall be by use of such system or by some other authorized method of voting in any or all of the precincts for which the system has been adopted. The determination shall be made by the commissioners court in elections held at the expense of the county, by the governing body of the municipality or political subdivision in elections held by municipalities and other political subdivisions, and by the county executive committee of the party holding the election in primary elections of political parties.

"Subdivision 6. Experimental Use of Electronic Voting Systems. The commissioners court of any county in the state may secure, for experimental use at election in one or more precincts without formal adoption thereof, any kind of electronic voting system approved by the Secretary of State, and its use at any election in such precinct within the period specified by the commissioners court for experimental use of such electronic voting system shall be as valid for all purposes as if it has been formally adopted; provided, however, that the period for experimental use shall not exceed two years from the date of the order authorizing its use.

"Subdivision 7. Providing Voting Equipment. The commissioners court of a county which has adopted an electronic voting system for that county or any portion thereof, shall as soon as practicable and in no case later than six months after adoption thereof, provide for each election precinct designated the voting equipment which the court deems necessary for accommodation of voters in the general election for state and county officers, and shall thereafter preserve and keep such equipment in repair. The commissioners court may also, if it deems such action in the best interests of the county, provide for the county a suitable number of pieces of automatic tabulating equipment for use in the central counting stations in the county.

“Subdivision 8. Payment for Voting Equipment and Automatic Tabulating Equipment. (a) The commissioners court shall provide for the payment for voting equipment and automatic tabulating equipment to be used in such county in such manner as the court may deem for the best interests of the county, and for the purpose of paying for such voting equipment or automatic tabulating equipment, or both, the commissioners court is hereby authorized to issue bonds, certificates of indebtedness, warrants, or other obligations to be used for this purpose and no other, which shall be a charge against the general revenue fund of the county. Such bonds, certificates of indebtedness, warrants, or other obligations may be issued with or without interest payable at such time or times as the commissioners court may determine, but shall never be issued or sold for less than par. The commissioners court shall issue such bonds, certificates of indebtedness, warrants, or other obligations in the same manner and with the same authority as provided for the issuance of bonds, certificates of indebtedness, warrants, or other obligations by the general laws of this state. The necessary tax shall be set aside at the time of creating such obligation so as to meet the debt provisions of the Constitution.

“(b) If the commissioners court of any county deems it for the best interests of such county, the Court is hereby authorized to contract for the renting of an electronic voting system or any portion thereof by such county for use in elections for a term of not more than five years in any one contract of rental. Upon expiration of such terms of contract of rental, the commissioners court may extend the contract from time to time. The commissioners court of any county is also authorized to accept proposals of rental and/or sale of electronic voting systems or any part thereof wherein the rentals paid by such county for the use of such an electronic voting system or a part of the rentals may be applied on the purchase price of such system if the commissioners court determines that it is to the best interest of the county to do so.

“(c) The voting equipment and automatic tabulating equipment shall be the property of the county paying for or renting it, subject to the terms of the rental contract. When used in any election not held at the expense of the county, the voting equipment and county-owned tabulating equipment so used shall be leased to the authority holding the election, and payment shall be received by the county at such lease price as the commissioners court shall fix for each piece of voting equipment or tabulating equipment used, but not to exceed ten percent of the original cost of the unit for each election day such equipment is used; and the authority charged with the expense of holding the election shall pay the lease price, whether it be a municipality or other political subdivision, a political party, or any other organization or authority.

“(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subdivision, the commissioners court may enter into agreements with the owners or lessees of automatic tabulating equipment located at central counting stations designated by the court pursuant to this section, under which the authority holding the election will pay to such owner or lessee a stipulated charge for use of the equipment under such terms as may be agreed upon. Any such agreement shall be for a term of not more than two years, but it may be renewed or extended from time to time.

“Subdivision 9. Absentee Voting. (a) In any election in which an electronic voting system is to be used in all or part of the voting precincts, the authority charged with holding the election shall within its discretion determine by proper resolution or order whether or not an electronic voting system shall be used for absentee voting by personal appearance at such election. If the electronic voting system is to be used for such absentee voting and more than one kind of system has been adopted by the commissioners court, the authority shall specify what kind is to be used.
“(b) If the authority holding the election determines that an electronic voting system shall be used for absentee voting by personal appearance, the necessary ballots and voting equipment shall be provided in the clerk’s office. The procedure for absentee voting by personal appearance where paper ballots are used shall be followed insofar as it can be made applicable. The clerk shall enter on a roll list the name of each such voter at the time he votes. If an electronic voting system is used for voting by personal appearance and the absentee ballots voted by mail are counted manually, such ballots shall be counted by a special canvassing board as provided in Subdivision 6 of Section 37 of this code. The board shall also prepare the voted electronic voting system ballots for delivery to the central counting station in the manner provided in Subdivision 19 of this section, and such ballots shall be delivered to the central counting station and there tabulated, as provided in Subdivisions 19 and 20 of this section. The presiding judge shall add the results of any manually counted ballots and the results of any write-in votes to the tabulation made on the automatic tabulating equipment and shall make returns showing the totals thus obtained.

“(c) When absentee ballots voted by personal appearance are to be marked with an ordinary pen or pencil in the manner that ordinary paper ballots are marked, and the absentee ballots are to be counted manually, the ballots shall be handled in the manner provided in Section 37 of this code for the handling of absentee paper ballots, and shall be counted and tallied by a central canvassing board or by the precinct election officers, as the case may be, in the same way that paper ballots are tallied. Absentee ballots sent to precinct polling places for counting shall be added to the results for ballots cast at the polling place.

“(d) When absentee voting is conducted by paper ballots, the ballots prepared for use in the electronic voting system may be used, if practicable, in the absentee voting both by personal appearance and by mail; otherwise, the ballots shall be prepared as ordinary paper ballots provided for in this code.

“(e) The authority holding the election may authorize true copies of paper absentee ballots voted by personal appearance or by mail to be made on electronic voting system ballots in the presence of watchers and the ballots counted and tabulated in the manner provided in Subdivision 19 and 20 of this section. Both the original ballot and the duplicate shall be preserved. Each duplicate ballot shall be clearly labeled by the word ‘Duplicate’ and shall bear a serial number, which shall also be recorded on the original ballot.

“Subdivision 10. Instruction of Election Officers. Not less than three days before an election, the authority holding the election shall cause to be held a public school of instruction on the use of the electronic voting system for those who will conduct the election at the polling places and those who will be at the central counting station, such school to be open to any interested person. Notice of the meeting shall be given to the public press at least 48 hours before it is to be held.

“Subdivision 11. Form of the Ballot. (a) Except as otherwise provided herein, the ballot for electronic voting systems shall conform to the applicable provisions of this code governing voting by ordinary paper ballots to the extent that they are consistent with the use of electronic voting systems.

“(b) This paragraph (b) shall govern the form of the ballot to be used with electronic voting systems in which the voter records his votes on a ballot on which the names of offices, candidates and parties and statements of measures to be voted on are set forth in a manner similar to ordinary paper ballots.

“(1) Ballots may be of such size, composition, texture, and color (other than yellow, which shall be used for sample ballots only), and may be printed in any type of ink or combination of inks that will be suitable for use in the automatic tabulating equipment in which they are intended to be placed. Printing on the ballots shall be of such size that it will be clearly legible when read by the voter in the manner contemplated by the voting system being used.

“(2) The ballots may contain printed code marks or pre-punched holes necessary for placing the ballots in correct reading position in the tabulating equipment, but the code marks or pre-punched holes shall not be used in any way that will reveal the identity of the voters voting the ballots.

"(3) The ballot may be divided into parts and printed upon two or more pages. Where all candidates for the same office or all party columns cannot be placed on the same face of the same page, the candidates or columns may be carried on more than one page, but in such event the first page of the sequence shall contain a statement that the names of other candidates or other party columns appear on the following page or pages. If the ballot is printed on more than one page, different tints of paper other than yellow, or some other suitable means may be used to facilitate the sorting of ballots. Each page shall bear the ballot number, and other appropriate provision may be made for identifying the related parts of the ballot. When party columns appear on the ballot, there shall be printed at the head of the ballot, the names of the parties and a space for voting a straight party ticket.

"(4) Each ballot shall have attached at the top a detachable stub of such size and placement on the ballot as is appropriate for the tabulating equipment to be used for counting the ballots. The stub shall contain the printing specified in Section 61 of this code, and shall contain no other printing or writing, except that it may contain the instructions for marking the ballot.

"(c) This subparagraph (c) shall govern the form of the ballot to be used with electronic voting systems in which the names of offices, candidates and parties and statements of measures to be voted on are set forth on ballot labels attached to a voting device and the voter records his vote by marking or punching a ballot card which is placed upon or inserted in the voting device.

"(1) Ballot cards may be of such size, composition, texture and color (other than yellow, which shall be used for sample ballots only) and may be printed in any type of ink or combinations of ink that will be suitable for use in the automatic tabulating equipment in which they are intended to be placed. Ballot labels may be of such size, composition, texture and color (other than yellow) that will be suitable for use on the voting device on which they are placed. Printing on the ballot label shall be of such size that it will be clearly legible when read by the voter in the manner contemplated by the voting system being used.

"(2) Ballot cards may contain printed code marks or prepunched holes to assure that the card is properly positioned in the voter's device or to assure that the card is placed in correct reading position in the tabulating equipment, but the code marks or prepunched holes shall not be used in any way that will reveal the identity of the voters voting the ballots.

"(3) The names of candidates, offices, parties and statements of issues to be voted on may be printed on two or more ballot labels placed on the voting device. Where all candidates for the same office or all party columns cannot conveniently be placed on the same face of the same label, the candidates or columns may be carried on more than one page, but in such event the first page of the sequence shall contain a statement that the names of other candidates or other parties appear on the following page or pages. If the ballot is printed on more than one ballot label, different tints of paper, other than yellow, may be used for different pages of the ballot labels, and other suitable means may be adopted to facilitate the use of the ballot labels with the ballot card. When party columns appear on the ballot there shall be printed at the head of the ballot the names of the parties and a space for voting a straight ticket.

"(4) In elections in which party columns appear on the ordinary paper ballot, the following method of showing party affiliations may be used in lieu of party columns. The title of each office shall be printed on the party labels followed by the names of the candidates for that office and their party affiliations, if any. Provisions shall be made on the first page of the ballot labels for voting a straight party ticket, and the candidate of the party which is printed in the first party column on paper ballots shall be printed in the first position under the office title, the candidate of the party which is printed in the second column on paper ballots shall be printed in the second position, and so on. Uncontested races may be listed separately from contested races under the heading "Uncontested Races."

"(5) Each ballot card shall have attached at the top a detachable stub of such size and placement on the card as is appropriate for the tabulating equipment to be used for counting the ballots. The stub shall contain the printing specified in Section 61 of this code, and shall contain no other printing or writing, except that it may contain the instructions for marking the ballot.

"(6) If the number of candidates and/or propositions to be voted upon in any election exceeds the capacity of one voting device, the ballot may be divided into parts and a different voting device used for each of the separate parts. A separate voting device shall be provided for each part at each polling place, but in all cases where more than one device is necessary to list the entire ballot, the names of all candidates for any particular office shall be placed on one device. Each ballot card shall bear the ballot number, and other appropriate provisions may be made for identifying the related ballot cards. In lieu of using an additional voting device for listing the ballot, uncontested races may be listed separately under the heading "Uncontested Races," with the name of each candidate appearing under the title of the office for which he is a candidate, and if the election is one in which party columns appear on the ballot, the party affiliation of the candidate shall be indicated by printing the name of the party which nominated him (or the word Independent if he is an independent candidate) after the candidate's name; and all such uncontested races may be voted on as a bloc.

"(7) If the authorities holding the election determine, in their discretion, that more than one voting device is necessary to accommodate the number of voters in an election precinct, as many voting devices shall be used for each precinct as such authorities deem necessary, and the same form of ballot containing the names of all candidates and/or propositions arranged in the same manner shall be provided for each device.

"(8) A separate write-in ballot, which may be in the form of an envelope in which the voter places his ballot or ballot card after voting, shall be provided to permit voters to vote for a person whose name does not appear on the ballot.

"(d) This subparagraph (d) shall apply to the form of the ballot for all electronic voting systems.

"(1) Where officers are to be elected or nominated, there shall be printed on each ballot the following instruction note: 'Vote for the candidate of your choice in each race by placing a punch hole in the space provided adjacent to the name of that candidate.' Where the ballot is to be marked with a marking device using ink or other substance, the word 'mark' shall be substituted for 'punch hole.' Appropriate changes in the instruction note shall be made where only one race is listed on the ballot or where more than one person is to be elected in any given race. Where measures or propositions are to be voted on, the instruction note shall be: 'Place a punch hole (mark) in the space provided beside the statement indicating the way you wish to vote.' The ballots shall also contain instructions on how to vote a straight ticket, how to vote a split ticket, and how to vote for a candidate whose name is not on the ballot. The wording of the instructions shall be prescribed by the Secretary of State.

"(2) The statement of propositions and measures submitted to the voters may be abbreviated on the ballot if necessary, provided there is displayed in each voting booth or place prepared for the voter to mark his ballot the verbatim statement on each proposition or measure as it appears on paper ballots. Abbreviation of matter to be voted on throughout the state shall be done by the Secretary of State.

"Subdivision 12. Sample Ballots and Instruction Cards. The authority charged with providing ballots for an election where an electronic voting system is used shall provide sample ballots and printed instruction cards for voting. Without limitation on other instructions which may be included, the instruction card shall include instruction on how to mark the ballot, how to vote for a person whose name is not printed on the ballot, how to vote a straight ticket or a split ticket where party columns or party affiliations are on the ballot, and how to secure an additional ballot if the ballot is spoiled or marked erroneously. Throughout the time the polls are open, a sample ballot and instruction card shall be posted in each booth or place prepared for the voter to mark his ballot. Extra voting equipment for demonstration purposes may be placed in the polling place.

"Subdivision 13. Instructions to Voters. In addition to the sample ballots and instruction cards herein-before mentioned, if any voter desires further instructions, an election officer shall give such instruction without asking, persuading, or otherwise trying to induce such voter to vote for or against any ticket, candidate, or measure, and watchers may be present while such instruction is being given. Finishing instructions, the election officer and watchers shall retire and the voter shall proceed to mark his ballot.

"Subdivision 14. Assistance to Voter. If because of some bodily infirmity a voter is physically unable to operate the voting equipment or to see, he may be assisted by two election officers, or by a person selected by the voter, who shall mark the ballot in accordance with the voter's wishes. The provisions of Section 95 of this code govern the assistance rendered insofar as they can be made applicable.

"Subdivision 15. Ballot Box and Stub Box. For each polling place where an electronic voting system is used, there shall be supplied two ballot boxes for the deposit of voted ballots, which shall be of suitable design and with a suitable opening for placing the ballots therein in such manner that the ballots will not be damaged or rendered unfit for counting on the tabulating equipment. There shall be supplied a stub box prepared in the manner prescribed in Section 97 of this code, except that the opening thereof shall be of such size as necessary, but no larger, to permit the convenient deposit of the ballot stubs used at the election. There shall also be supplied suitable containers for transporting the voted ballots to the central counting station.

"Subdivision 16. Preliminaries of Opening the Polls. There shall be provided for each polling place sufficient voting equipment to accommodate the voters at the election. Before the time set for opening the polls, the presiding judge shall inspect the equipment to ascertain whether it is in good working condition. Each voting booth shall be so placed that it will be in full view of all election officers and watchers at the polling place but will permit a voter to mark his ballot in secret.

"Subdivision 17. Conduct of the Voting. (a) The procedure at the polls where voting is by use of an electronic voting system shall be the same as at polling places where paper ballots are used, except as provided in this section. Where the portion of the ballot to be marked by the voter consists of more than one page or ballot card, the related parts may be placed in an envelope or otherwise secured so that the parts will not become separated before delivery to the voter. When a voter selects his ballot, he shall be instructed to use only the voting equipment provided for marking the ballot and that he is not to mark his ballot in any other way and is not to place any other marks thereon except for writings. After a voter has marked his ballot, he shall follow the procedure prescribed in Section 97 of this code for signing and detaching the ballot stub and for deposit of the ballot and stub.

"(b) The election officers shall inspect the voting equipment from time to time while voting is in progress to ascertain that it has not been injured or tampered with and is in proper working order. If any equipment becomes out of order at an election, it shall be repaired or replaced as promptly as possible. If repair or replacement cannot be made, the ballots may be marked with a pencil and counted manually in the same manner that paper ballots are counted.

"Subdivision 18. Procedure While Polls Are Open. At any time after the expiration of one hour after the voting has begun, the presiding judge may direct the receiving officers to deliver ballot box No. 1 to the counting officers, who shall immediately deliver in its place ballot box No. 2, which shall be opened and examined and securely closed and locked; and until the boxes are again interchanged, the voters shall deposit their ballots in box No. 2. In this manner, ballot boxes No. 1 and No. 2 may be interchanged periodically as directed by the presiding judge, but the box for receiving the ballots shall not be delivered to the counting officers and the ballots shall not be removed from it at any time before the polls are closed unless there are more than
After the ballot container is delivered to the counting officers, they shall examine the ballot to ascertain whether the write-in vote is valid, and count it only if it is found to be valid. A notation shall be made on the invalid portion of a ballot and it shall be segregated from other ballots and placed in the container provided for that purpose. Write-in votes shall be added to the results of the count of the ballots at the central counting station and be included in the official returns for the precinct. If the ballot consists of more than one part, the precinct election officials, after checking for write-in votes, shall then sort the ballots according to types or parts.

"(b) The authority holding the election shall provide metal or wood ballot containers with numbered metal seals for use in delivering voted ballots from the polling place to the central counting station. A record of the serial numbers of the seals shall be preserved, and a copy of such records shall be furnished the central counting station. All voted ballots which are to be counted by automatic tabulating equipment shall be placed in a ballot container at the polling place for delivery to the central counting station. The poll lists and tally sheets for write-in votes shall be enclosed in envelopes provided for that purpose and placed in the container with the voted ballots. Before sealing the ballot container, the election judge shall execute a certificate in triplicate recording the number of ballots placed in the container and the serial number of the seal. The certificate shall also be signed by an election clerk as witness and by at least two watchers of opposed interests if such there be. The original of the certificate shall be placed in the container with the ballots, and the container shall then be sealed so that no additional ballots may be deposited and no ballots may be removed without breaking the seal. One copy of the certificate shall be immediately mailed to the authority holding the election in a pre-addressed stamped envelope at the nearest post office or postbox by two election officers other than those who deliver the ballot container to the counting station. The other copy of the certificate shall be retained with the election records at the polling place.

"(c) After the ballot container is sealed, two authorized election officers shall immediately deliver the ballot container to the central counting station, and watchers shall have the privilege of accompanying them and of being present throughout the proceedings at the polling place and at the central counting station. The container shall be opened only by the person in charge of the central counting station or his designated representative, who shall inspect the container and the seal and shall verify the serial number on the seal with the record of serial numbers provided by the authority holding the election and with the original certificate enclosed in the container. Any irregularities shall be reported to the officer in charge of the counting station, who shall take appropriate action. After the container has been opened and the ballots removed, the original certificate and the broken seal shall be preserved with the other permanent election records of the central counting station.

"(d) After the election officers at the polling place have delivered all ballots to the central counting station, the stub box and all other election supplies and records, including all duplicate certificates and unused seals, shall be delivered to the proper authority designated by law to receive them.

Subdivision 20. Procedure at Central Counting Station. (a) The commissioners court shall establish one or more central counting stations to receive and tabulate voted ballots. A central counting station shall be under the supervision and control of the commissioners court, and all persons employed and designated to handle the ballots or operate the tabulating equipment shall be approved by the commissioners court. No person except one employed and designated for the purpose shall touch any ballot card or ballot container.

"(b) Prior to the start of the count of the ballots, the authority in charge of holding the election shall have the automatic tabulating equipment tested to ascertain that it will accurately count the votes cast for all offices and on all measures. Public notice of the time and place of the test shall be given at least forty-eight hours prior thereto by publication once in one or more daily or weekly newspapers published in the county, city or other political subdivision where such equipment is used, if a newspaper is published therein, otherwise in a newspaper of general circulation therein. The test shall be conducted by processing a preaudited group of ballots marked or punched so as to record a predetermined number of valid votes for each candidate and on each measure, and shall include for each office one or more ballots which have votes in excess of the number allowed by law in order to test the ability of the automatic tabulating equipment to reject such votes. In such test a different number of valid votes shall be assigned to each candidate for an office, and for and against each measure. If any error is detected, the cause thereof shall be ascertained and corrected and an errorless count shall be made and certified to by the person in charge of the test before the count of the official ballots is started. The tabulating equipment shall pass the same test at the conclusion of the count before the election returns are approved as official. On completion of the test count, the programs and test materials shall be sealed and retained as provided for paper ballots.

"(c) The ballots for the various election precincts shall be separately tabulated by precincts. The ballots for a precinct shall be removed from their containers and prepared for processing by the automatic tabulating equipment. They shall be checked to ascertain that they are properly grouped and arranged so that all similar ballots from the precinct are together.

"(d) The valid portion of a ballot which has been invalidated in part by the election officers as provided in Subdivision 19 of this section may be duplicated in the presence of watchers and substituted for the partially invalidated ballot, which shall be preserved, or such partially invalidated ballots may be counted manually.

"(e) If it appears that a ballot cannot be counted by the automatic tabulating equipment, it may be counted manually or the person in charge of the counting station may cause a duplicate ballot to be made in the presence of the watchers and substituted for the original ballot, which shall be preserved. Each duplicate ballot prepared under either this paragraph or the preceding paragraph shall be clearly labeled with for each precinct, the presiding judge shall add to the results as so determined the results of the write-in votes as counted and tallied by the precinct election officers and shall thereupon make a written return of the election in the number of copies required for elections where paper ballots are used. The ballots, together with one copy of the returns, the poll list, and the tally list for write-in votes, shall be placed in a wooden or metallic box, which shall be securely locked. The voted ballots and all records of the election shall be delivered to the proper authorities as provided for election precincts where paper ballots are used.

“(g) If for any reason it becomes impracticable to count all or a part of the ballots or ballot cards with tabulating equipment, the authority holding the election may direct that they be counted manually, following as far as practicable the provisions governing the counting of paper ballots.

“(h) If the automatic tabulating equipment used with any electronic voting system produces a printed record of the votes tabulated by such equipment, such printed record to which have been added the write-in and absentee votes shall, after being duly certified, constitute the official return for that precinct.

“Subdivision 21. Applicability of Other Laws. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the provisions of all other laws relating to the conduct of elections shall apply, so far as practicable, to the conduct of elections where electronic voting systems are used.”

Amendment 8

Amend Committee Amendment No. 6 to S. B. No. 58 by striking Sec. (8) and substituting in lieu thereof the following: “(3) Amend Section 42 by deleting the comma following the words ‘Court of Civil Appeals’ on page 38, line 15.”

Amendment 9

Amend Senate Bill 58 by adding a new Paragraph (d) following Paragraph (c) of Subdivision 19 of Section 29A, and redesignating the present Paragraph (d) as Paragraph (e), the new paragraph (d) to read as follows:

“(d) As an alternative to the procedure provided above, the authority holding the election may in its discretion provide pre-locked and pre-sealed ballot boxes for use in designated precincts and require that ballot boxes be delivered to the central counting station in their locked and sealed condition and that the processing of voted ballots required to be performed at the polling place by the above provisions be performed at the central counting station. In that event, the authority holding the election shall provide an adequate number of ballot boxes for each polling place, which shall be locked and sealed prior to delivery. Each ballot box shall be locked in such a way that it may not be opened except with a key of which only the election authority has possession and sealed with a numbered metal seal in such a way that the ballot box may not be opened without breaking the seal. A record of the serial numbers of the seals shall be preserved, and a copy of such record and the keys to the ballot box locks shall be furnished the central counting station. Upon completion of the voting at the polling place, or whenever a ballot box has been inactivated, the ballot box slot through which ballots are inserted shall be closed with a paper seal signed by the election judge, an election clerk, and two watchers of opposed interests if such there be. The ballot box containing the voted ballots shall then be delivered to the central counting station by the election officers in its locked and sealed condition under the same security measures as are provided in Paragraph (e) above for ballot containers. All procedures provided above to be performed at the polling place other than the processing of voted ballots shall be performed by the election officers at the polling place, and copies of all poll lists and reports shall be enclosed in envelopes provided for that purpose and inserted in the final ballot box to be delivered to the central counting station before the ballot box slot is sealed. The ballot box shall be opened at the central counting station only by the person in charge or his designated representative, who shall inspect the ballot box, the metal seal and the paper seal and shall verify the serial number on the metal seal with the record of serial numbers provided by the election authority. Any irregularities shall be reported to the officer in charge of the counting station, who shall take appropriate action. The broken metal and paper seal shall be preserved with the other permanent election records of the central counting station.

After the ballot box has been opened, the voted ballots shall be processed in the manner provided in Paragraph (a) above by authorized central counting station election officers. The presiding judge for the polling place or his designated representative shall have the privilege of being present during such processing, and watchers shall have the privilege of being present throughout the proceedings both at the polling place and the counting station. In the event the election authority permits early processing of ballots at the central counting station as provided in Subdivision 18, emptied ballot boxes may be relocked and resealed at the central counting station by representatives of the election authority for further use at polling places.

Section 1. That Article 1.14 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"The defendant in a criminal prosecution for any offense may waive any rights secured him by law except the right of trial by jury in a capital felony case in which the state has made known in open court in writing at least 15 days prior to trial that it will seek the death penalty. No case in which the state seeks the death penalty shall be tried until 15 days after such notice is given. When the state makes known to the court in writing in open court that it will not seek the death penalty in a capital case, the defendant may enter a plea of guilty, nolo contendere, or not guilty before the court and waive trial by jury as provided in Article 1.13, and in such case under no circumstances may the death penalty be imposed."

Sec. 2. That Article 1.15 of the Code of Criminal Procedure 1965, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"No person can be convicted of a felony except upon the verdict of a jury duly rendered and recorded, unless in felony cases less than capital, or in capital cases where the state has waived the death penalty the defendant, upon entering a plea, has in open court in person waived his right of trial by jury in writing; provided, however, that it shall be necessary for the state to introduce evidence into the record showing the guilt of the defendant and said evidence shall be accepted by the court as the basis for its judgment and in no event shall a person charged be convicted upon his plea without sufficient evidence to support the same. The evidence may be stipulated if the defendant in such case consents in writing, in open court, to waive the appearance, confrontation, and cross-examination of witnesses, and further consents to the introduction of testimony by affidavits, written statements of witnesses, and any other documentary evidence in support of the judgment of the court. Such waiver and consent must be approved by the court in writing, and be filed, with all of such evidence, in the file of the papers of the cause."

Sec. 3. That Subsection (b) of Article 2.03 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"(b) It is the duty of the trial court, the attorney representing the accused, the attorney representing the state and all peace officers to so conduct themselves as to insure a fair trial for both the state and the defendant, not impair the presumption of innocence, and at the same time afford the public the benefits of a free press."

Sec. 4. That Article 2.07, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Article 2.07. Attorney pro tem
"(a) Whenever any district or county attorney is disqualified in any case the judge of the court in which it is pending may appoint any district attorney or county attorney or other competent attorney to perform the duties of the prosecuting attorney in such case. If such appointed attorney is another district or county attorney no oath or other act of qualification shall be required of him, but the prosecution of such case shall be deemed as additional to his normal duties. If the appointed attorney is not a district or county attorney, he will be required only to file an oath of office for that particular case with the clerk of the court.

"(b) Any attorney so appointed (other than a district attorney or county attorney) shall be paid the same amount and in the same manner as an attorney appointed to represent an indigent person."

Sec. 5. That Article 2.12 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Article 2.12. Who are peace officers

The following are peace officers:
The sheriff and his deputies, constables, and deputy constables, marshal or police officers of an incorporated city, town or village, rangers and officers commissioned by the Public Safety Commission and the Director of the Department of Public Safety, investigators of the district attorneys', criminal district attorneys' and county attorneys' offices, each member of an arson investigating unit of a city, county or the state, law enforcement agents of the Texas Liquor Control Board, and any private person specially appointed to execute criminal process."

"Article 2.24. Identification of witnesses

Whenever a peace officer has reasonable grounds to believe that a crime has been committed, he may stop any person whom he reasonably believes was present and may demand of him his name and address. If such person fails or refuses to identify himself to the satisfaction of the officer, he may take the person forthwith before a magistrate. If the person fails to identify himself to the satisfaction of the magistrate, the latter may require him to furnish bond or may commit him to jail until he so identifies himself."

Sec. 7. That Article 11.07 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Article 11.07. Return to certain county; procedure after conviction

"After indictment found in any felony case, and before conviction, the writ must be made returnable in the county where the offense has been committed.

"After final conviction in any felony case, the writ must be made returnable to the Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas at Austin, Texas. The writ may issue upon the order of any district judge, and said judge may upon presentation to him of a petition for said writ, set the same down for a hearing as to whether the writ should issue, and ascertain the facts, which facts shall be transmitted to the Court of Criminal Appeals with the return of the writ if same is issued after such hearing. Provided further, that should such writ be returned to the Court of Criminal Appeals without all the facts deemed necessary by the Court of Criminal Appeals, said court may designate and direct any district judge or judges of this state to ascertain the facts necessary for proper consideration of the issues involved. When a petition for writ of habeas corpus presented to the judge of the convicting court contains sworn allegations of fact, which, if true, would render petitioner's confinement under the felony conviction illegal, the attorney representing the state in said court and the Attorney General of Texas shall be afforded an opportunity to answer such allegations, and if it appears that there are issues of fact which are material on the question of whether the petitioner is illegally restrained which have not been resolved, the petitioner may be granted a hearing on such issues of fact and the judge conducting such hearing shall make and file his findings of fact and conclusions of law. It shall be the duty of the official court reporter of the district judge or judges so designated to forthwith prepare a narration of the facts added in evidence upon any such hearing and transmit the same, together with the judge's findings of fact and conclusions of law, to the clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals within ten days of the date of such hearing. And it shall be the duty of the district clerk of the county wherein the writ is issued to make up a transcript of all pleadings in such case and to transmit the same within thirty days to the clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals. Provided, that upon good cause shown, the time may be extended by the Court of Criminal Appeals for filing of such narration of facts or transcript.

"The Court of Criminal Appeals may deny relief upon the findings and conclusions of the hearing judge without docketing the cause, or may direct that the cause be docketed and heard as though originally presented to said court or as an appeal. Upon reviewing the record the court shall enter its judgment remanding the petitioner to custody or ordering his release, as the law and facts may justify. The mandate of the court shall issue to the court issuing the writ, as in other criminal cases. After conviction the procedure outlined in this Act shall be exclusive and any other proceeding shall be void and of no force and effect in discharging the prisoner.

"Upon any hearing by a district judge by virtue of this Act, the attorney for petitioner, and the state, shall be given at least three full days' notice before such hearing is held."

Sec. 8. That Article 14.01 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Article 14.01. Offense within view.
(a) A peace officer or any other person, may, without a warrant, arrest an offender if the offense is committed within view.
(b) A peace officer may arrest an offender without a warrant for any offense committed in his presence or within his view."

"Article 14.03. Authority of peace officer.
Any peace officer may arrest, without warrant, persons found in suspicious places and under circumstances which reasonably show that such persons have been guilty of a felony or breach of the peace, or threaten, or are about to commit some offense against the laws."

"Article 14.06. Must take offender before magistrate.
In each case enumerated in this Code, the person making the arrest shall take the person arrested or have him taken without unnecessary delay before the magistrate who may have ordered the arrest or before some magistrate of the county where the arrest was made without an order. Sec. 12. That Article 15.17 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Article 15.17. Duties of arresting officer and magistrate.
In each case enumerated in this Code, the person making the arrest shall without unnecessary delay take the person arrested or have him taken before some magistrate of the county where the accused was arrested. The magistrate shall inform in clear language the person arrested of the accusation against him and of any affidavits filed therewith, of his right to retain counsel, of his right to remain silent, of his right to have an attorney present during any interview with peace officers or attorneys representing the state, of his right to terminate the interview at any time, of his right to request the appointment of counsel if he is indigent and cannot afford counsel, and of his right to have an examining trial. "Article 15.26. Authority to arrest must be made known.
"In executing a warrant of arrest, it shall always be made known to the accused under what authority the arrest is made. The warrant shall be executed by the arrest of the defendant. The officer need not have the warrant in his possession at the time of the arrest, provided the warrant was issued under the provisions of this Code, but upon request he shall show the warrant to the defendant as soon as possible. If the officer does not have the warrant in his possession at the time of arrest he shall then inform the defendant of the offense charged and of the fact that a warrant has been issued."

Sec. 14. That Article 17.11 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Article 17.11. How bail bond is taken.

"Section 1. Every court, judge, magistrate or other officer taking a bail bond shall require evidence of the sufficiency of the security offered; but in every case, one surety shall be sufficient, if it be made to appear that such surety is worth at least double the amount of the sum for which he is bound, exclusive of all property exempted by law from execution, and of debts or other encumbrances; and that he is a resident of this state, and has property therein liable to execution worth the sum for which he is bound.

(b) The purchasing agent or sheriff of the county, as the case may be, shall mail a notice to the last known address of the owner of such property by certified mail. Such notice shall describe the property being held, give the name and address of the officer holding such property, and shall state that if the owner does not claim such property within six months from the date of the notice such property will be sold and the proceeds of such sale, after deducting the reasonable expense of keeping such property and the costs of the sale, placed in the county treasury.

(c) If the owner of such property is unknown or if the address of the owner is unknown, then the purchasing agent or the sheriff, as the case may be, shall cause to be published once in a paper of general circulation in the county a notice containing a description of the property held, the name of the owner if known, the name and address of the officer holding such property, and a statement that if the owner does not claim such property within six months from the date of the publication such property will be sold and the proceeds of such sales after deducting the reasonable expense of keeping such property and the costs of sale, placed in the county treasury.

(d) The sale of any property hereunder shall be preceded by a notice published once at least three weeks prior to the date of such sale in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the sale is to take place, stating the description of the property, the names of the owners if known and the date and place that such sale will occur. If the purchasing agent or sheriff, as the case may be, shall consider any bid as insufficient he need not sell such property but may decline such bid and re-offer such property for sale.

(e) The real owner of any property sold shall have the right to file a claim to the proceeds of such sale with the commissioners court of the county in which the sale took place. It the claim is allowed by the commissioners court, the county treasurer shall pay the owner such funds as were paid into the treasury of the county as proceeds of the sale. If the claim is denied by the commissioners court or if said court fails to act upon such claim within 90 days, the claimant may sue the county treasurer in a court of competent jurisdiction in the county, and upon sufficient proof of ownership, recover judgment against such county for the recovery of the proceeds of the sale.

Sec. 16. That Article 21.08 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Article 21.08. Allegation of ownership.

"Where one person owns the property, and another person has the possession of the same, the ownership thereof may be alleged to be in either. Where property is owned in common, or jointly, by two or more persons, the ownership may be alleged to be in all or either of them. When the property belongs to the estate of a deceased person, the ownership may be alleged to be in the executor, administrator or heirs of such deceased person, or in any one of such heirs. Where the ownership of the property is unknown to the grand jury, it shall be sufficient to allege that fact."

Sec. 17. That Article 27.02 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Article 27.02. Defendant's pleadings.

1. The motion to set aside the indictment or information:

2. A special plea setting forth one or more facts as cause why the defendant ought not to be tried upon the accusation presented against him;

3. An excepton to the indictment or information for some matter of form or substance;

4. A plea of guilty;

5. A plea of not guilty;

6. A plea of nolo contendere. The legal effect of such plea shall be the same as that of a plea of guilty, but the plea may not be used against the defendant as an admission in any civil suit based upon or growing out of the act upon which the criminal prosecution is based;

7. Defendant's application for probation, if any; and

8. Defendant's election, if any, to have the jury assess the punishment if he is found guilty."

Sec. 18. That Article 27.14 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Article 27.14. Plea of guilty or nolo contendere in misdemeanor.

"A plea of 'guilty' or a plea of 'nolo contendere' in a misdemeanor case may be made either by the defendant or his counsel in open court; in such case, the defendant or his counsel may waive a jury, and the punishment may be assessed by the court either upon or without evidence, at the discretion of the court. In a misdemeanor case arising out of a moving traffic violation for which the maximum possible punishment is by fine only, payment of a fine, or an amount accepted by the court constitutes a finding of guilty in open court, as though a plea of nolo contendere had been entered by the defendant."

Sec. 19. That Article 28.01 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, be and the same is hereby amended by adding a Section 3 to read as follows:

"Section 3. The notice mentioned in Section 2 above shall be sufficient if given in any one of the following ways:

(a) By announcement made by the court in open court in the presence of the defendant or his attorney of record;

(b) By personal service upon the defendant or his attorney of record;

(c) By mail to either the defendant or his attorney of record deposited by the clerk in the mail at least six days prior to the date set for hearing. If the defendant has no attorney of record such notice shall be addressed to defendant at the address shown on his bond, if the bond shows such an address, and if not, it may be addressed to one of the sureties on his bond. If the envelope containing the notice is properly addressed, stamped and mailed, the state will not be required to show that it was received."

Sec. 20. That Article 35.13 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Article 35.13. Passing juror for challenge.

"A juror in a capital case in which the state has made it known it will seek the death penalty, held to be qualified, shall be passed for acceptance or challenge first to the state and then to the defendant. Challenges to jurors are either peremptory or for cause."

Sec. 21. That Article 36.09 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Article 36.09. Severance on separate indictments

"Two or more defendants who are jointly or separately indicted or complained against for the same offense or any offense growing out of the same transaction may be, in the discretion of the court, tried jointly or separately as to one or more defendants; provided that in any event either defendant may testify for the other or on behalf of the state; and provided further, that in cases in which, upon timely motion to sever, and evidence introduced thereon, it is made known to the court that there is a previous admissible conviction against one defendant or that a joint trial would be prejudicial to any defendant, the court shall order a severance as to the defendant whose joint trial would prejudice the other defendant or defendants."

Sec. 22. That Article 37.07 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Article 37.07. Verdict must be general; separate hearing on proper punishment

1. The verdict in every criminal action must be general. When there are special pleas on which a jury is to find they must say in their verdict that the allegations in such pleas are true or untrue. If the plea is not guilty, they must find that the defendant is either guilty or not guilty, and, except as provided in Section 2, they shall assess the punishment in all cases where the same is not absolutely fixed by law to some particular penalty.

2. Alternate procedure

(a) In all criminal cases, other than misdemeanor cases of which the justice court or corporation court has jurisdiction, which are tried before a jury on a plea of not guilty, the judge shall, before argument begins, first submit to the jury the issue of guilt or innocence of the defendant of the offense or offenses charged, without authorizing the jury to pass upon the punishment to be imposed.

(b) If a finding of guilty is returned, it shall then be the responsibility of the judge to assess the punishment applicable to the offense; provided, however, that (1) in capital cases where the state has made it known in writing prior to trial that it will seek the death penalty, (2) in any criminal action where the jury may recommend probation and the defendant filed his sworn motion for probation before the trial began, and (3) in other cases where the defendant so elects in writing at the time he enters his plea in open court, the punishment shall be assessed by the same jury. If a finding of guilty is returned, the defendant may, with the consent of the attorney for the state, change his election of who assesses the punishment.

3. Evidence of prior criminal record in all criminal cases after a finding of guilty

(a) Regardless of the plea and whether the punishment be assessed by the judge or the jury, evidence may be offered by the state and the defendant as to the prior criminal record of the defendant, his general reputation and his character. The term prior criminal record means a final conviction in a court of record, or a probated or suspended sentence that has occurred prior to trial, or any final conviction material to the offense charged.

(b) After the introduction of such evidence has been concluded, and if the jury has the responsibility of assessing the punishment, the court shall give such additional written instructions as may be necessary and the order of procedure and the rules governing the conduct of the trial shall be the same as are applicable on the issue of guilt or innocence.

(c) In cases where the matter of punishment is referred to the jury, the verdict shall not be complete until the jury has rendered a verdict both on the guilt or innocence of the defendant and the amount of punishment, where the jury finds the defendant guilty. In the event the jury shall fail to agree, a mistrial shall be declared, the jury shall be discharged, and no jeopardy shall attach.

(d) When the judge assesses the punishment, and after the hearing of the evidence hereinabove provided for, he shall forthwith announce his decision in open court as to the punishment to be assessed.

"(e) Nothing herein contained shall be construed as affecting the admissibility of extraneous offenses on the question or guilt or innocence."

Sec. 23. That Article 38.22 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Article 38.22. When oral and written confessions shall be used

1. The oral or written confession of a defendant made while the defendant was in jail or other place of confinement or in the custody of an officer shall be admissible if:

"(a) it be shown to be the voluntary statement of the accused taken in the presence of an examining court in accordance with law; or

"(b) it be made in writing and signed by the accused, and show that the accused has at some time prior to the making thereof received from the person to whom the statement is made the warning set out in Subsection (c)(1), (2) and (3) below or received from the magistrate the warning provided in Article 15.17, and shows the time, date, and place of the warning and the name of the person or magistrate who administered the warning; or

"(c) it be made orally or in writing to some person who has warned the defendant from whom the statement is taken that

"(1) he has the right to have a lawyer present to advise him either prior to any questioning or during any questioning;

"(2) if he is unable to employ a lawyer, he has the right to have a lawyer appointed to counsel with him prior to or during any questioning; and

"(3) he has the right to remain silent and not make any statement at all and that any statement he makes may be used in evidence against him at his trial.

"The defendant must knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily waive these rights prior to and during the making of the statement and if the statement is given orally the defendant must make a statement of facts or circumstances that are found to be true, which conduce to establish his guilt such as the finding of secreted or stolen property, or the instrument with which he states the offense was committed.

"(d) If a written statement is taken and if the defendant is unable to write his name and signs the statement by making his mark, such statement shall not be admitted in evidence, unless it be witnessed by some person other than a peace officer, who shall sign the same as witness.

"(e) Nothing contained herein shall preclude the admissibility of any statement made by the defendant in open court at his trial or at his examining trial in compliance with Articles 16.03 and 16.04 or of any statement that is the res gestae of the arrest or of the offense.

"2. In all cases where a question is raised as to the voluntariness of a confession or statement, the court must make an independent finding in the absence of the jury as to whether the confession or statement was made under voluntary conditions. If the confession or statement has been found to have been voluntarily made and held admissible as a matter of law and fact by the court in a hearing in the absence of the jury, the court must enter an order stating its findings, which order shall be filed among the papers of the cause. Such order shall not be exhibited to the jury nor the finding thereof made known to the jury in any manner. Upon the finding by the judge as a matter of law and fact that the confession or statement was voluntarily made, evidence pertaining to such matter may be submitted to the jury and it shall be instructed that unless the jury believes beyond a reasonable doubt that the confession or statement was voluntarily made, the jury shall not consider such statement or confession for any purpose nor any evidence obtained as a result thereof. In any case where a motion to suppress the statement or confession has been filed and evidence has been submitted to the court on this issue, the court within its discretion may reconsider such evidence in its finding that the statement or confession was voluntarily made and the same evidence submitted to the court at the hearing on the motion to suppress shall be made a part of the record the same as if it were being presented at the time of trial. However, the state or the defendant shall be entitled to present any new evidence on the issue of the voluntariness of the statement or confession prior to the court's final ruling and order stating its findings.

"3. When the issue is raised by the evidence, the trial judge shall appropriately instruct the jury, generally, on the law pertaining to such statement or confession."

Sec. 24. That Article 39.02 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Article 39.02. Depositions for defendant

"Deposition of witnesses may be taken by the defendant. When the defendant desires to take the deposition of a witness, he shall, by himself or counsel, file with the clerk of the court in which the case is pending an affidavit stating the facts necessary to constitute a good reason for taking the same, and an application to take the same. Provided that upon the filing of such application, and after notice to the attorney for the state, the courts shall hear the application and determine if good reason exists for taking the deposition. Such determination shall be based on the facts made known at the hearing and the court, in its judgment, shall grant or deny the application on such facts."

Sec. 25. That Article 39.03 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Article 39.03. Officers who may take the deposition

"Upon the filing of such an affidavit and application, the courts shall appoint, order or designate one of the following persons before whom such deposition shall be taken:

"1. A district judge.
"2. A county judge.
"3. A notary public.
"4. A district clerk.
"5. A county clerk.

"Such order shall specifically name such person and the time and place where such deposition shall be taken. Failure of a witness to respond thereto, shall be punishable by contempt by the court. Such deposition shall be oral or written, as the court shall direct."

Sec. 26. That Article 39.07 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Article 39.07. Certificate

"Where depositions are taken under commission in criminal actions, the officer or officers taking the same shall certify that the person deposing is the identical person named in the commission; or, if they cannot certify to the identity of the witness, there shall be an affidavit of some person attached to the deposition proving the identity of such witness, and the officer or officers shall certify that the person making the affidavit is known to them."

Sec. 27. That Paragraphs 5, 6(a), 7 and 12 of Article 40.09 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, be and the same are hereby amended to read as follows:

"5. Responsibility for obtaining transcription of reporter's notes

"A party desiring to have included in the record a transcription of notes of the reporter shall have the responsibility of obtaining such transcription and furnishing same to the clerk in duplicate in time for inclusion in the record and the defendant shall pay therefor. The court will order the reporter to make such transcriptions without charge to defendant if the court finds, after hearing in response to affidavit by defendant that he is unable to pay or give security therefore. Upon certificate of the court that this service has been rendered, payment therefor shall be made from the general funds by the county in which the offense is alleged to have been committed in a sum to be set by the trial judge. The court reporter shall report any portion of the proceedings requested by either party or directed by the court.

"6. (a) A party desiring to have the record disclose some action, testimony, evidence, proceeding, objection, exception or other event or occurrence not otherwise shown by the record may utilize a bill of exception for this purpose. Bills of exception must be filed with the clerk and presented to the trial judge within ninety days after notice of appeal is given, and for good cause shown, the judge trying the cause may further extend the time in which to file the bills of exception and shall have the power, in term-time or in vacation, upon application for good cause to extend for as many times as deemed necessary the time for preparation and filing of bills of exception and the approval for any bill of exception by the judge trying the cause after the expiration of the ninety-day period shall be sufficient proof that the time for filing was properly ex-
The clerk shall notify the court of any bill immediately upon its being filed. The court shall either approve the bill without qualification or shall approve it subject to qualification or refuse it, setting forth in the qualification or refusal any reasons that may seem proper to the judge. Notice of the court’s action in qualifying or refusing a bill shall be immediately given by the clerk to the party filing the bill or to his counsel, and such party, if unwilling to accept the court’s qualification or refusal may not later than fifteen days after receipt of such notice, file a by-stander’s bill of exception, and the clerk shall include same in the record. A bill of exception will be deemed approved without qualification if it be not acted upon by the trial judge within a period of 100 days after notice of appeal is given and no extension of time for filing has been granted; provided, however, if an extension of time for filing has been granted, a bill of exception will be deemed approved without qualification if it be not acted upon by the trial judge within a period of 10 days after the actual filing of the bill.

7. Approval of the record

“Notice of completion of the record shall be made by the clerk by certified mail to the parties or their respective counsel. If neither files and presents to the court in writing any objection to the record, within fifteen days after the mailing of such notice and if the court has no objection to the record, he shall approve the same. If such objection be made, or if the court fails to approve the record within five days after expiration of such fifteen-day period, the court shall set the matter down for hearing, and, after hearing, shall enter such orders as may be appropriate to cause the record to speak the truth and the findings and adjudications in such orders, if supported by evidence, shall be final. In its discretion, the court may require the attendance of the defendant at such hearing. Such proceeding shall be included in the record, and the entire record approved by the court.

12. Trial court’s duty

“It shall be the duty of the trial court to decide from the briefs and oral arguments, if any, whether the defendant should be granted a new trial by the trial court. This duty shall be performed within the period of thirty days immediately after the state’s brief is filed, or, if none be filed, then within the period of thirty days immediately after the last day on which the state’s brief could be timely filed. Omission of the court to perform this duty within such period shall constitute refusal of the court to grant a new trial to defendant.”

Sec. 28. That Article 42.08 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

“Article 42.08 Pronouncing sentence; time; credit for time spent in jail between arrest and sentence or pending appeal

“If a new trial is not granted, nor judgment arrested in felony and misdemeanor cases, the sentence shall be pronounced in the presence of the defendant except when his presence is not required by Article 42.02 at any time after the expiration of the time allowed for making the motion for a new trial or the motion in arrest of judgment; provided that in all criminal cases the judge of the court in which the defendant was convicted may within his discretion, give the defendant credit on his sentence for the time, or any part thereof, which said defendant has spent in jail in said cause, from the time of his arrest and confinement until his sentence by the trial court; and provided further, that in all cases where the defendant has been tried for any violation of the laws of the State of Texas, and has been convicted and has appealed from said judgment and sentence of conviction, and where said cause has been affirmed by the Court of Criminal Appeals, and after receipt of the mandate by the clerk of the trial court, the judge is authorized to again call said defendant before him; and if pending appeal, the defendant has not made bond and has remained in jail pending the time of such appeal, said trial judge may then in his discretion re-sentence the defendant, and may subtract from the original sentence pronounced upon the defendant, the length of time the defendant has lain in jail pending such appeal, noting any credit allowed upon the mandate, which credit shall be allowed by the Texas Department of Corrections in all computations affecting the eligibility of the defendant for parole or discharge. Where jail time has been awarded, the trial judge may, when in his discretion the ends of justice would best be served, sentence the defendant to serve his sentence during his off-work hours, or on week-ends. When such a sentence is permitted by the trial judge it must be served on consecutive days or consecutive week-ends. The trial judge may require bail of the defendant to insure the faithful performance of the sentence. The trial judge may attach conditions regarding the employment, travel, and other conduct of the defendant during the performance of such a sentence."

Sec. 29. That Sections 10, 12 (under "B. Probations"), 15, 16, 18 and 27 of Article 42.12 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, be and the same are hereby amended and a new Section 6a added to said Article 46.12 to read as follows:

"Article 42.12 Adult Probation and Parole Law

"Section 6a. (a) A court granting probation may fix a fee not exceeding $10 per month to be paid to the court by the probationer during the probationary period. The court may make payment of the fee a condition of granting or continuing the probation.

"(b) The court shall distribute the fees received under Subsection (a) of this section to the county or counties in which the court has jurisdiction for use in administering the probation laws. In instances where a district court has jurisdiction in two or more counties, the court shall distribute the fees received to the counties in proportion to population as prescribed by Paragraph 7, Section 10 of this Article."

"Section 10. For the purpose of providing adequate probation services, the district judge or district judges having original jurisdiction of criminal actions in the county or counties, if applicable, are authorized, with the advice and consent of the commission-er, to employ and designate the titles and fix the salaries of probation officers, and such administrative, supervisory, stenographic, clerical, and other personnel as may be necessary to conduct pre-sentence investigations, supervise and rehabilitate probationers, and enforce the terms and conditions of probation. Only those persons who have successfully completed education in an accredited college or university and two years full time paid employment in responsible probation or correctional work with juveniles or adults, social welfare work, teaching or personnel work; or persons who are licensed attorneys with experience in criminal law; or persons who are serving in such capacities at the time of the passage of this Article and who are not otherwise disqualified by Section 31 of this Article, shall be eligible for appointments as probation officers; providing that additional experience in any of the above work categories may be substituted year for year for the required college education, with a maximum substitution of two years. Provided, however, that in a county having a population of less than 50,000, according to the last preceding Federal census, any person having completed at least two years education in an accredited college or university will be eligible for appointment.

"It is the further intent of this Article that the caseload of each probation officer not substantially exceed seventy-five probationers.

"Where more than one probation officer is required, the judge or judges shall appoint a chief adult probation officer or director, who, with their approval, shall appoint a sufficient number of assistants and other employees to carry on the professional, clerical, and other work of the court.

"The judge or judges, with the approval of the juvenile board of the county, may authorize the chief probation or chief juvenile officer to establish a separate division of adult probation and appoint adult probation officers and such other personnel as required. It is the further intent of this Act that the same person serving as a probation officer for juveniles shall not be required to serve as a probation officer for adults and vice-versa.

"The judge or judges may, with the approval of the director of parole supervision, designate a parole officer or supervisor employed by the Division of Parole Supervision as a probation officer for the county or district.

"Probation officers shall be furnished transportation, or alternatively, shall be entitled to an automobile allowance for use of personal automobile on official business, under the same terms and conditions as is provided for sheriffs.
The salaries of personnel, and other expenses essential to the adequate supervision of probationers, shall be paid from the funds of the county or counties comprising the judicial district or geographical area served by such probation officers. In instances where a district court has jurisdiction in two or more counties, the total expenses of such probation services shall be distributed approximately in the same proportion as the population in each county bears to the total population of all those counties, according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census. In all the instances of the employment of probation officers, the responsible judges and county commissioners are authorized to accept grants or gifts from other political subdivisions of the state or associations and foundations, for the sole purpose of financing adequate and effective probationary programs in the various parts of the state. For the purposes of this Act, the municipalities of this state are specifically authorized to grant and allocate such sums of money as their respective governing bodies may approve to their appropriate county governments for the support and maintenance of effective probationary programs. All grants, gifts, and allocations of the character and purpose described in this section shall be handled and accounted for separately from other public funds of the county.

"Section 12. The provisions of Sections 6a, 10, and 11 of this Article also apply to Article 42.13."

"Section 15. (a) The Board is hereby authorized to release on parole, with the approval of the Governor, any person confined in any penal or correctional institution of this State, except persons under sentence of death, who has served one-third of the maximum sentence imposed, provided that in any case he may be paroled after serving 20 calendar years. Time served on the sentence imposed shall be the total calendar time served and all credits allowed under the laws governing the operation of the Department of Corrections, and executive clemency. All paroles shall issue upon order of the Board, duly adopted and approved by the Governor.

(b) Within one year after a prisoner's admittance to the penal or correctional institution and at such intervals thereafter, as it may determine, the Board shall secure and consider all pertinent information regarding each prisoner, except any under sentence of death, including the circumstances of his offense, his previous social history and criminal record, his conduct, employment and attitude in prison, and the reports of such physical and mental examinations as have been made.

"(c) Before ordering the parole of any prisoner, the Board may have the prisoner appear before it and interview him. A parole shall be ordered only for the best interest of society, not as an award of clemency; it shall not be considered to be a reduction of sentence or pardon. A prisoner shall be placed on parole only when arrangements have been made for his proper employment or for his maintenance and care, and when the Board believes that he is able and willing to fulfill the obligations of a law-abiding citizen. Every prisoner while on parole shall remain in the legal custody of the institution from which he was released but shall be amenable to the orders of the Board.

(d) The Board may adopt such other reasonable rules not inconsistent with the law as it may deem proper or necessary with respect to the eligibility of prisoners for parole, the conduct of parole hearings, or conditions to be imposed upon parolees. Whenever an order for parole is issued it shall recite the conditions thereof in clear and intelligible language.

"(3) he has paid all costs of his trial and so much of any fine imposed as the court directs; and

"(4) the court believes that the ends of justice and the best interests of society and of the defendant will be served by granting him probation.

"(b) If a defendant satisfies all the requirements of Section 3(a) (1), (2), (3) and (4) of this Article, and the jury hearing his case recommends probation in its verdict, the court must grant the defendant probation. The court may grant the defendant probation regardless of the recommendation of the jury or the prior conviction of the defendant. The court may, however, extend the term of the probationary period to any length of time not exceeding the maximum time of confinement allowed by law. In the event probation is revoked in accordance with Section 6, the judgment of the court shall not prescribe any penalty in excess of that imposed by the jury.

"(c) A defendant's application for probation must be made under oath and must also contain statements (1) that he has never before been convicted in this or any other jurisdiction of a felony or of a misdemeanor for which the maximum permissible punishment is by confinement in jail or by a fine in excess of $200 or by both such fine and imprisonment, or, if he has been so convicted, setting forth such fact and specifying the time and place of such conviction, the nature of the offense for which he was convicted, and the final punishment assessed therein; and (2) that he has not been granted probation nor been under probation under this Article or any other Article in the preceding five years. The application may contain what other information the court directs.

"(d) When a defendant has applied for probation, the court during the trial of his case must receive competent evidence concerning the defendant's entitlement to probation.

"Section 5. (a) The period and terms of probation shall be determined by the court granting it. Except as provided in Subsection (d) of this section, a probationer is under the supervision of the court granting him probation.

"(b) The period and terms of probation shall be designed to prevent recidivism and promote rehabilitation of the probationer. The terms must include, but are not limited to, the requirement that a probationer:

"(1) commit no offense against the laws of this or any other state or the United States;

"(2) avoid injurious or vicious habits;

"(3) avoid persons or places of disreputable or harmful character;

"(4) report to the probation officer as directed;

"(5) permit the probation officer to visit him at his home or elsewhere;

"(6) work faithfully at suitable employment as far as possible;

"(7) remain within a specified place;

"(8) pay his fine, if the court so orders and, if one be assessed, in one or several sums, and make restitution or reparation in any sum that the court shall determine not to exceed One Thousand Dollars ($1,000);

"(9) support his dependents; and

"(10) submit a copy of his fingerprint prints to the sheriff's office of the county in which he was tried.

"The clerk shall send such fingerprint prints to the Texas Department of Public Safety, which shall return a certificate to the court in which the defendant was tried, which certificate shall contain any criminal record of the defendant or record with the Department, or if no record exists, then a certificate from the Texas Department of Public Safety showing the absence of any previous criminal record. The Texas Department of Public Safety shall, in addition to its present responsibilities, keep a record of all misdemeanor arrests within the purview of this section and the deposition of such cases.

"(c) The clerk of a court granting probation shall promptly furnish the probationer with a written statement of the period and terms of his probation. If the period or terms are later modified, the clerk of the modifying court shall promptly furnish the probationer with a written statement of the modifications. The clerk in either case shall take a receipt from the probationer for delivery of the statement.

"(d) After probation has been granted, jurisdiction of the probationer's case may be transferred to another court which can more conveniently supervise the probation. If the other court accepts the transfer, the transferring court shall forward to it all pertinent records in the case. The court accepting the transfer is vested with jurisdiction of the case and may exercise any power conferred by this Act upon the court initially granting probation.

Sec. 31. That Article 44.11 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Article 44.11. Effect of appeal

"Upon the appellate record being filed in the Court of Criminal Appeals, all further proceedings in the trial court, except as to bond as provided in Article 44.04 and the proceedings in Article 40.09, shall be suspended and arrested until the judgment of the Court of Criminal Appeals is received by the trial court. In cases where the record or any portion thereof is lost or destroyed it may be substituted in the trial court and when so substituted the record may be prepared and transmitted to the Court of Criminal Appeals as in other cases."

Sec. 32. That Article 44.23 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Article 44.23. Appeals, when determined

"The Court of Criminal Appeals shall hear and determine appeals in criminal actions at the earliest time it may be done, with due regard to the rights of parties and proper administration of justice, and no affirmance or reversal of a case shall be determined on mere technicalities or on technical errors in the preparation and filing of the record on appeal."

Sec. 33. That Article 46.02 of the Code of Criminal Procedure be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Article 46.02 (932b) Insanity in defense or in bar

No prior trial except by agreement

"Section 1. No issue of insanity shall be tried in advance of trial on the merits, except upon written application on behalf of the accused with the consent of the state's attorney and the approval of the trial judge.

Procedure at trial

"Section 2. (a) At the trial on the merits, the trial court shall hear evidence on the issue of present insanity (1) if prior to the offer thereof there be filed on behalf of the defendant's written motion asking the court to hear evidence on such issue and requesting the court to declare a mistrial because of such insanity in the manner and to the extent provided for in this article; or (2) if the defendant otherwise asks for a decision or issue thereon, in which event such act of the defendant shall be treated and considered as if the defendant had filed such a motion for mistrial. For purposes of present insanity, the defendant shall be considered presently insane if he is presently incompetent to stand trial.

"(b) When the issue of present insanity is tried, the following rules shall apply:

"(1) The issue of present insanity shall be submitted to the jury only if supported by competent testimony.

"(2) (a) Instructions submitting the issue of present insanity shall be framed so as to require the jury to state in its verdict whether defendant is sane or insane at the time of the trial.

"(b) If there has been competent medical or psychiatric testimony to the effect that the defendant is presently insane, instructions submitting the issue of present insanity shall require the jury, if it finds the defendant presently insane, to state whether the defendant requires hospitalization in a mental hospital for his own welfare and protection or the protection of others.

"(3) The charge shall instruct the jury that if it finds defendant is presently insane it will not consider or deliberate upon any other issues except (a) whether the defendant should be committed to a mental hospital; and (b) whether he was sane or insane as of the time of the alleged offense, if such issue be submitted.

"(c) When the issue of insanity as of the time of the alleged offense is tried, the following rules shall apply:

"(1) The issue of insanity as of the time of the alleged offense shall be submitted to the jury only if supported by competent evidence tending to show that defendant was insane as of the time of the alleged offense.

"(2) Instructions submitting the issue of insanity as of the time of the alleged offense shall be framed so as to require the jury to state in its verdict whether defendant was sane or insane as of the time of the alleged offense.

"(3) If the jury finds the defendant to have been insane at the time the offense is alleged to have been committed, the defendant shall stand acquitted of the alleged offense.

"(d) The following rules shall apply upon defendant's being acquitted by reason of the jury's returning a finding that he was insane as of the time of the alleged offense:

"(1) If the jury finds the defendant to be insane at the time of trial, and if it further finds that the defendant should be committed to a mental institution, or if the court so finds on competent medical or psychiatric testimony, the court shall enter an order committing the defendant to a state mental hospital and placing him in the custody of the sheriff for transportation to a state mental hospital to be confined therein until he becomes sane. The court shall further order that a transcript of all medical testimony adduced before the jury shall be forthwith prepared by the court reporter and such transcript shall accompany the patient to the state mental hospital.

"(2) If the jury returns a finding that defendant is sane as of the time of the trial, then the defendant shall be finally discharged.

“(3) If there be no jury finding on the issue of present insanity, then the court, if the discharge or going at large of defendant be considered by the court manifestly dangerous to the peace and safety of the people, shall order defendant committed to jail or other suitable place pending the prompt initiation and prosecution by the attorney for the state or other person designated by the court of appropriate civil proceedings to determine whether defendant shall be committed to a mental institution, or the court may give defendant into the care of his friends on their giving satisfactory security for his proper care and protection; otherwise, defendant shall be discharged.

“(e) Where the jury finds that the defendant is presently insane, but does not find that he was insane at the time of the offense (either because such issue was not submitted or because the jury failed to find on that issue or because it found that he was not insane at such time), the court shall enter a mistrial as to all issues except the issue of present insanity. If the jury finds that the defendant should be committed to a mental institution, the proper order so committing him shall be entered by the court.

“(f) Evidence. (1) The court may, at its discretion appoint disinterested qualified experts to examine the defendant with regard to his present competency to stand trial and as to his sanity, and to testify thereto at any trial or hearing in connection to the accusation against the accused.

“(2) Such appointed experts shall be paid out of the General Fund of the county where the indictment was found or information was filed.

“(3) If the defendant is free on bail, the court in its discretion may commit him to custody pending such examination.

“(4) No statement made by the defendant during examination into his competency shall be admitted in evidence against the accused on the issue of guilt in any criminal proceeding no matter under what circumstances such examination takes place.

“(5) Any party may introduce other competent testimony regarding the defendant's competency.

“(g) If trial is without a jury. (1) If the trial is before the court without a jury and if, after commencement of a trial on the merits and before the return of a verdict, there arises in the mind of the court from any cause, a reasonable doubt as to the present sanity of the defendant, the court shall suspend the proceedings and shall without unnecessary delay impanel a jury to determine the issue of the present sanity of the defendant.

“(2) In such event, the trial before the jury on that issue shall proceed under the same procedure, and the jury shall have the same duties and responsibilities with respect to the hearing on the question of present insanity and on the question of hospitalization and related questions, as are set forth in the other portions of this article where the question is raised in a jury trial.

“(3) If the jury so impanelled shall determine that the defendant is sane at present, then in such event the court shall resume without unnecessary delay, the trial on the merits at the point where the proceedings were suspended. If the jury so impanelled shall determine that the defendant is not sane at present, then in such event the court shall declare a mistrial of the trial on the merits and shall enter such orders with respect to commitment and other matters as are authorized in accordance with the other portions of this article, and as may be appropriate under the jury findings, the facts and the law.

“(4) If the jury so impanelled is unable to agree upon a unanimous verdict after a reasonable opportunity to deliberate, the court shall declare a mistrial of the competency trial, discharge the jury so impanelled and impanel another jury to determine the present mental competency of the defendant.

“(h) A mistrial under the provisions of this section shall not serve to bar a subsequent trial and conviction for the same offense, and no jeopardy shall be considered as having attached in the event the defendant is found to be presently insane and a mistrial is declared by reason thereof, irrespective of the manner in which the issue is raised.”

Sec. 34. That Article 52.01 of the Code of Criminal procedure, 1965, be amended to read as follows:

“Article 52.01. Courts of Inquiry conducted by county and district judges.
“When a judge of any county or district court of this state, acting in his capacity as magistrate, has good cause to believe that an offense has been committed against the laws of this state, he may summon and examine any witness in relation thereto in accordance with the rules hereinafter provided, which procedure is defined as a “Court of Inquiry”.

Sec. 35. Article 52.02 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, is amended to read as follows:

“Article 52.02. Evidence; Deposition; Affidavits.

“At the hearing at a Court of Inquiry, evidence may be taken orally or by deposition, or, in the discretion of the judge, by affidavit. If affidavits are admitted, any witness against whom they may bear has the right to propound written interrogatories to the affiants or to file answering affidavits. The judge in hearing such evidence, at his discretion, may conclude not to sustain objections to all or to any portion of the evidence taken or exclude same; but any of the witnesses or attorneys engaged in taking the testimony may have any objections they make recorded with the testimony and reserved for the action of any court in which such evidence is thereafter sought to be admitted, but such court is not confined to objections made at the taking of the testimony at the Court of Inquiry. Without restricting the foregoing, the judge may allow the introduction of any documentary or real evidence which he deems reliable, and the testimony adduced before any grand jury.”

Sec. 36. Article 52.03 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 37. Article 52.04 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, is amended to read as follows:

“Article 52.04. Rights of Witnesses.

“All witnesses testifying in any Court of Inquiry have the same rights as to testifying as do defendants in felony prosecutions in this state. Before any witness is sworn to testify in any Court of Inquiry, he shall be instructed by the judge that he is entitled to counsel; that he cannot be forced to testify against himself; and that such testimony may be taken down and used against him in a later trial or trials ensuing from the instant Court of Inquiry. Any witness or his counsel has the right to fully cross-examine any of the witnesses whose testimony bears in any manner against him.”

Sec. 38. Article 52.05 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, is amended to read as follows:

“Article 52.05. Witness must testify.

“A person may be compelled to give testimony or produce evidence when legally called upon to do so at any Court of Inquiry; however, if any person refuses or declines to testify or produce evidence on the ground that it may incriminate him under the laws of this state, then the judge may, in his discretion, compel such person to testify or produce evidence but the person shall not be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for, or on account of, any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he may be compelled to testify or produce evidence at such Court of Inquiry.”

Sec. 39. Article 52.09 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, is amended to read as follows:

“Article 52.09. Costs.

“All costs incurred in conducting a Court of Inquiry shall be borne by the county in which said Court of Inquiry is conducted; provided, however, that where the Attorney General of the State of Texas has submitted a request in writing to the judge for the holding of such Court of Inquiry, then and in that event the costs shall be borne by the State of Texas and shall be taxed to the Attorney General and paid in the same and from the same funds as other court costs.”

Sec. 40. That Article 82 of the Penal Code of Texas, as adopted by the 39th Legislature, 1925, be and the same is hereby repealed in its entirety.

Sec. 42. Severability Clause.

If any provision, section or clause of this Act or application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications hereof which can be given effect without the invalid provision, section or clause, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Sec. 43. Emergency Clause.

In Memory of

(Senate Resolution 681)

Whereas, His family, friends, professional associates throughout Texas, and the young people of San Marcos High School suffered a great loss with the untimely death of Owen Goodnight, head football coach of the San Marcos Rattlers for the past 16 years; and

Whereas, The Rattler Booster Club had proclaimed Saturday, May 13, as “Owen Goodnight Day” in his honor, and he was attending the Appreciation Dinner that evening, where he was to be the featured speaker, when death came at the age of 49; and

Whereas, A native of Holland, Texas, he first came to San Marcos as head football coach in 1951, and just two months before his death he was promoted to assistant high school principal and full-time athletic director at San Marcos; and

Whereas, After graduating from Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene in 1940, he played professional football with the Cleveland Rams, was quarterback with the Chicago Bears, and also played with the Baltimore Colts, he then served as a Captain in the Army during World War II, and on his return from service he coached three years in a Pasadena junior high school before moving to San Marcos; and

Whereas, Hundreds of San Marcos students and former students mourned the loss of this outstanding man, who instilled the principles of sportsmanship in his teams and inspired his athletes to strive to win but not at the sacrifice of fair play; and

Whereas, His leadership in church and civic affairs is also a great loss to the citizens of San Marcos: he was a member of the Lions club and the Methodist Church; and

Whereas, The Senate of the 60th Legislature wishes to pay tribute to this outstanding citizen and to extend sympathy to the members of his family: his wife and two daughters, Debra Kay and Pamela Ann Goodnight, of San Marcos; his father, Owen L. Goodnight, Sr., of Holland; four brothers, Eddie Goodnight of Bartlett, and Wayne Goodnight, Dr. C. D.
