House Joint Resolution 60 on Second Reading

On motion of Senator Kennard and by unanimous consent, the regular order of business was suspended to take up for consideration at this time on its second reading and passage to third reading:

H. J. R. No. 60, Proposing an amendment to Article III, Constitution of the State of Texas, adding Section 64, to provide for consolidating offices and functions of government by act of the Legislature and for performance of governmental functions by contract between political subdivisions in counties of not less than 300,000 and not more than 600,000 inhabitants according to the 1960 Federal Census.

The resolution was read second time.

Senator Kennard offered the following amendment to the resolution:

Amend H. J. R. No. 60 by striking out all above and all below the Resolving Clause and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

H. J. R. No. 60, Proposing an amendment to Article III, Constitution of the State of Texas, adding Section 64, to provide for consolidating offices and functions of government by act of the Legislature and for performance of governmental functions by contract between political subdivisions in El Paso and Tarrant Counties.

Section 1. That Article III, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended to add Section 64 to read as follows:

"Section 64. (a) The Legislature may by statute provide for consolidation of governmental offices and functions of government of any one or more political subdivisions comprising or located within El Paso or Tarrant Counties. Any such statute shall require an election to be held within the political subdivisions affected thereby with approval by a majority of the voters in each of these subdivisions, under such terms and conditions as the Legislature may require.

"(b) The county government, or any political subdivision(s) comprising or located therein, may contract one with another for the performance of governmental functions required or authorized by this Constitution or the Laws of this State, under such terms and conditions as the Legislature may prescribe. No person acting under a contract made pursuant to this Sub-section (b) shall be deemed to hold more than one office of honor, trust or profit or more than one civil office of emolument. The term 'governmental functions,' as it relates to counties, includes all duties, activities and operations of statewide importance in which the county acts for the State, as well as of local importance, whether required or authorized by this Constitution or the Laws of this State."

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November 1968, at which election all ballots shall have printed on them the following:

"FOR the constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to provide for consolidating governmental offices and functions and allowing political subdivisions to contract for performance of governmental functions in El Paso and Tarrant counties."

"AGAINST the constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to provide for consolidating governmental offices and functions and allowing political subdivisions to contract for performance of governmental functions in El Paso and Tarrant counties."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election, and this amendment shall be published in the manner and for the length of time as required by the Constitution and laws of this state. The publication of this amendment shall be limited to the publication of Section 1 and 2 of this Resolution only.

The amendment was read and was adopted.

The resolution as amended was passed to third reading.
