

SENATE JOURNAL

EIGHTIETH LEGISLATURE — REGULAR SESSION

AUSTIN, TEXAS

PROCEEDINGS

THIRTEENTH DAY

(Tuesday, February 13, 2007)

The Senate met at 11:12 a.m. pursuant to adjournment and was called to order by the President.

The roll was called and the following Senators were present: Averitt, Brimer, Carona, Deuell, Duncan, Eltife, Estes, Fraser, Harris, Hegar, Hinojosa, Jackson, Janek, Lucio, Nelson, Nichols, Ogden, Patrick, Seliger, Shapleigh, Uresti, Van de Putte, Watson, Wentworth, West, Whitmire, Williams, Zaffirini.

Absent-excused: Ellis, Gallegos, Shapiro.

The President announced that a quorum of the Senate was present.

Bill Wallace, Chambers County Commissioner, Mont Belvieu, offered the invocation as follows:

Lord, we thank You for today, O Lord. Lord, we thank You for the privilege of serving You once again. We pray guidance and direction on each and every person here today. Lord, we pray a special blessing on this body of government, and we pray that each and every decision made this day will be from the heart and soul and will be in agreement with Your word. Lord, we thank You for the great men and women of our military who are on foreign lands today, and we pray today that a hedge of protection be extended by Your hand to them today and forever. We pray that we as a people of the great State of Texas and the United States of America may never take our freedom of speech and actions for granted. And we thank the great men and women of the military, present and past, and especially for those who have paid the ultimate sacrifice with their lives, that the long and hard road to freedom may be carried on for many more years in this great land of ours. And, Lord, we thank You for each and every person who has traveled here today to this place of Texas government, and we pray a special blessing for their well-being and a very special blessing for the great people of Chambers County and the great people of the United States of America, the land of the free and the home of the brave. We ask this prayer in Your son's name. Amen.

Senator Whitmire moved that the reading of the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday be dispensed with and the Journal be approved as printed.

The motion prevailed without objection.
