

BILL ANALYSIS

H.B. 753
By: Muñoz, Jr.
Higher Education
Committee Report (Unamended)

BACKGROUND AND PURPOSE

Recent legislation that established The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley did not include the official name of the institution, as it had not yet been determined at the time. The legislation instead used indirect language to refer to the new institution. H.B. 753 seeks to clarify that language and provide the correct name of the institution.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE IMPACT

It is the committee's opinion that this bill does not expressly create a criminal offense, increase the punishment for an existing criminal offense or category of offenses, or change the eligibility of a person for community supervision, parole, or mandatory supervision.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

It is the committee's opinion that this bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, department, agency, or institution.

ANALYSIS

H.B. 753 amends the Education Code to redefine "university," for purposes of statutory provisions relating to the university to be established in South Texas, as The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley.

EFFECTIVE DATE

On passage, or, if the bill does not receive the necessary vote, September 1, 2015.
