DIGEST: SB 958 would make a nonsubstantive recodification and reorganization of state statutes concerning state purchasing and general services. It would establish a new Subtitle D in Title 10 of the Government Code and repeal VACS art. 601b, the existing State Purchasing and General Services Act. The bill would take effect September 1, 1995.

NOTES: The House on April 12 suspended the printing rule, and the text of the bill was not printed as part of the committee report due to its length.
