(a) The amount of an administrative penalty may not exceed $5,000 for each violation. Each day a violation continues or occurs is a separate violation for purposes of imposing a penalty.

SECTION 7. Section 1051.652(a), Occupations Code, is amended to read as follows:
(a) The fee for the issuance of a certificate of registration under this chapter to an applicant possessing a license or certificate to practice architecture in another state and the fee for the renewal of a certificate of registration under this chapter are increased by $200.

SECTION 9. (a) Not later than December 1, 2013, the Texas Board of Architectural Examiners shall adopt rules necessary to implement the changes in law made by this Act to Chapter 1051, Occupations Code.
(b) Sections 1051.3041 and 1051.3531, Occupations Code, as added by this Act, and Sections 1051.353 and 1051.652, Occupations Code, as amended by this Act, apply only to an application for a certificate of registration or renewal of a certificate of registration filed with the Texas Board of Architectural Examiners on or after January 1, 2014. An application filed before that date is governed by the law in effect at the time the application was filed, and the former law is continued in effect for that purpose.
(c) Section 1051.452(a), Occupations Code, as amended by this Act, applies only to a violation of Subtitle B, Title 6, Occupations Code, committed on or after the effective date of this Act. A violation committed before that date is governed by the law in effect at the time the violation was committed, and the former law is continued in effect for that purpose.

SECTION 10. This Act takes effect September 1, 2013.
Passed by the House on April 23, 2013: Yeas 112, Nays 34, 1 present, not voting; the House concurred in Senate amendments to H.B. No. 1717 on May 16, 2013: Yeas 112, Nays 25, 2 present, not voting; passed by the Senate, with amendments, on May 13, 2013: Yeas 31, Nays 0.

AN ACT
relating to the emergency detention by a peace officer of a person who may have mental illness, including information provided to the person subject to detention and a standard form of notification of detention to be provided to a facility by a peace officer.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

SECTION 1. Section 573.001, Health and Safety Code, is amended by adding Subsection (g) to read as follows:

(g) A peace officer who takes a person into custody under Subsection (a) shall immediately inform the person orally in simple, nontechnical terms:

(1) of the reason for the detention; and
(2) that a staff member of the facility will inform the person of the person's rights within 24 hours after the time the person is admitted to a facility, as provided by Section 573.025(b).

SECTION 2. Section 573.002, Health and Safety Code, is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 573.002. PEACE OFFICER'S NOTIFICATION OF DETENTION. (a) A peace officer shall immediately file with a facility a notification of detention after transporting a person to that facility in accordance with Section 573.001.

(b) The notification of detention must contain:

(1) a statement that the officer has reason to believe and does believe that the person evidences mental illness;
(2) a statement that the officer has reason to believe and does believe that the person evidences a substantial risk of serious harm to the person or others;
(3) a specific description of the risk of harm;
(4) a statement that the officer has reason to believe and does believe that the risk of harm is imminent unless the person is immediately restrained;
(5) a statement that the officer's beliefs are derived from specific recent behavior, overt acts, attempts, or threats that were observed by or reliably reported to the officer;
(6) a detailed description of the specific behavior, acts, attempts, or threats; and
(7) the name and relationship to the apprehended person of any person who reported or observed the behavior, acts, attempts, or threats.

(c) The facility where the person is detained shall include in the detained person's clinical file the notification of detention described by this section.

(d) The peace officer shall give the notification of detention on the following form:
