A local district or authority that enters into a written contract stating the essential terms under which the local district or authority is to provide water to a purchaser for use in connection with the generation of electricity waives sovereign immunity to suit for the purpose of adjudicating a claim that the local district or authority breached the contract by not providing water, or access to water, according to the contract's terms.

Sec. 113.003. REMEDIES. (a) Except as provided by Subsection (b), remedies awarded in a proceeding adjudicating a claim under this chapter may include any remedy available for breach of contract that is not inconsistent with the terms of the contract, including the cost of cover and specific performance.

(b) Remedies awarded in a proceeding adjudicating a claim under this chapter may not include consequential or exemplary damages.

This chapter does not confer any rights inconsistent with the terms of the contract that is the subject of a dispute under Section 113.002.

Sec. 113.008. AUTHORITY OF REGULATORY AGENCIES; COMPLIANCE WITH REGULATORY ORDER. (a) This chapter does not limit the authority of the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality or any other state regulatory agency.

(b) Compliance with an order of the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality or any other state regulatory agency that expressly curtails water delivery to a specific electric generating facility is not considered a breach of contract for the purposes of this chapter.

(1) a party to the contract that is the subject of a dispute under Section 113.002; or

A cause of action that accrues before the effective date of this Act is governed by the law in effect immediately before that date, and that law is continued in effect for that purpose.

(b) Chapter 113, Civil Practice and Remedies Code, as added by this Act, does not waive sovereign immunity to suit for any claims related to or arising out of a contract that was the subject of litigation that was adjudicated or dismissed on the basis of sovereign immunity prior to the effective date of this Act.

(c) Sections 271.151(2) and 271.153, Local Government Code, as amended by this Act, apply to a claim that arises under a contract executed on or after the effective date of this Act.
