AN ACT

relating to an individual’s responsibilities following an accident reasonably likely to result in injury to or death of a person; imposing criminal penalties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

SECTION 1. Section 550.021(a), Transportation Code, is amended to read as follows:

(a) The operator of a vehicle involved in an accident that results or is reasonably likely to result in injury to or death of a person shall:

(1) immediately stop the vehicle at the scene of the accident or as close to the scene as possible;

(2) immediately return to the scene of the accident if the vehicle is not stopped at the scene of the accident; and

(3) immediately determine whether a person is involved in the accident, and if a person is involved in the accident, whether that person requires aid; and

(4) remain at the scene of the accident until the operator complies with the requirements of Section 550.023.

SECTION 2. The change in law made by this Act applies only to an offense committed on or after the effective date of this Act. An offense committed before the effective date of this Act is governed by the law in effect on the date the offense was committed, and the former law is continued in effect for that purpose. For purposes of this section, an offense was committed before the effective date of this Act if any element of the offense occurred before that date.

SECTION 3. This Act takes effect September 1, 2013.

Passed by the House on May 7, 2013: Yeas 136, Nays 1, 2 present, not voting; passed by the Senate on May 20, 2013: Yeas 31, Nays 0.

Approved June 14, 2013.
Effective September 1, 2013.

AN ACT

relating to eligibility of municipalities to participate in the historic courthouse preservation and maintenance programs administered by the Texas Historical Commission.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

SECTION 1. Section 442.001(1), Government Code, is amended to read as follows:

(1) “Historic courthouse” means a county courthouse that is at least 50 years old. The term includes a structure that:

(A) previously functioned as the official county courthouse of the county in which it is located; and

(B) is owned by a municipality.

SECTION 2. Sections 442.0061(b), (c), (d), (e), (f), and (g–1), Government Code, are amended to read as follows:

(b) A county or municipality that owns a historic courthouse may apply to the commission for a grant or loan for a historic courthouse project. The application must:

(1) state the location of the courthouse;
