(g) The doctrine of attractive nuisance does not apply to a claim that is subject to this section.

(h) A written agreement entered into under this section may require the political subdivision to provide or pay for insurance coverage for any defense costs or other litigation costs incurred by the electric utility for damage claims under this section.

SECTION 4. Section 75.003(b), Civil Practice and Remedies Code, is amended to read as follows:

(b) This chapter does not affect the doctrine of attractive nuisance, except:

(1) as provided by Section 75.0022(g); and

(2) that the doctrine of attractive nuisance may not be the basis for liability of an owner, lessee, or occupant of agricultural land for any injury to a trespasser over the age of 16 years.

SECTION 5. The change in law made by this Act applies only to a cause of action that accrues on or after the effective date of this Act. A cause of action that accrues before the effective date of this Act is governed by the law in effect immediately before that date, and that law is continued in effect for that purpose.

SECTION 6. This Act takes effect immediately if it receives a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, as provided by Section 39, Article III, Texas Constitution. If this Act does not receive the vote necessary for immediate effect, this Act takes effect September 1, 2013.

Passed by the House on April 11, 2013: Yeas 144, Nays 0, 2 present, not voting; passed by the Senate on May 1, 2013: Yeas 31, Nays 0.

Approved May 16, 2013.

Effective May 16, 2013.

AN ACT
relating to the authority of a county to advertise on leased vehicles.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas:
SECTION 1. Sections 263.251(a) and (b), Local Government Code, are amended to read as follows:

(a) The commissioners court of a county may adopt a procedure by which the county may:

(1) lease to another entity advertising space located:

(A) in or on a building or part of a building owned by the county;
(B) on a vehicle owned by the county; [or]
(C) on an official county website; or
(D) on a vehicle leased by the county, with the vehicle owner's consent; or

(2) sell advertising space located on correspondence distributed by the county through the United States Postal Service.

(b) The procedure must include a requirement that the county publish, before a sale or lease of advertising space is made, a notice of its intent to sell or lease the advertising space. The notice must:

(1) be published:

(A) at least one time in a newspaper of general circulation in the county not earlier than the 30th day or later than the 14th day before the date the award of the sale or lease is made; and
(B) on the county's official website continuously for the 14 days immediately before the date the award of the sale or lease is made;

(2) include a description of the advertising space, including its location and a description of the part of any real or personal property that the advertising space occupies; and

(3) include a description of the procedure by which bids or proposals for the sale or lease may be submitted.

SECTION 2. This Act takes effect immediately if it receives a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, as provided by Section 39, Article III, Texas Constitution. If this Act does not receive the vote necessary for immediate effect, this Act takes effect September 1, 2013.
