CHAPTER 1269

H.B. No. 897

AN ACT

relating to instruction in cardiopulmonary resuscitation in secondary education curriculum.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

SECTION 1. This Act may be cited as the Edmund Kuempel Act.

SECTION 2. Section 28.0023, Education Code, is amended by amending Subsections (b) and (c) and adding Subsections (d), (e), (f), and (g) to read as follows:

(b) The State Board of Education by rule shall require [include elements relating to] instruction in cardiopulmonary resuscitation for students in grades 7 through 12 [and the use of an automated external defibrillator as part of the essential knowledge and skills of the health curriculum under Section 28.002(a)(2)(B)].

(c) A school district or open-enrollment charter [This subsection applies only to a private school that receives an automated external defibrillator from the agency or receives funding from the agency to purchase or lease an automated external defibrillator. A private school shall provide instruction to students in grades 7 through 12 in cardiopulmonary resuscitation [and the use of an automated external defibrillator] in a manner consistent with the requirements of this section and State Board of Education rules adopted under this section. The instruction may be provided as a part of any course. A student shall receive the instruction at least once before graduation.

(d) A school administrator may waive the curriculum requirement under this section for an eligible student who has a disability.

(e) Cardiopulmonary resuscitation instruction must include training that has been developed:

(1) by the American Heart Association or the American Red Cross; or

(2) using nationally recognized, evidence-based guidelines for emergency cardiovascular care and incorporating psychomotor skills to support the instruction.

(f) For purposes of Subsection (e), “psychomotor skills” means hands-on practice to support cognitive learning. The term does not include cognitive-only instruction and training.

(g) A school district or open-enrollment charter school may use emergency medical technicians, paramedics, police officers, firefighters, representatives of the American Heart Association or the American Red Cross, teachers, other school employees, or other similarly qualified individuals to provide instruction and training under this section. Instruction provided under this section is not required to result in certification in cardiopulmonary resuscitation. If instruction is intended to result in certification in cardiopulmonary resuscitation, the course instructor must be authorized to provide the instruction by the American Heart Association, the American Red Cross, or a similar nationally recognized association.

SECTION 3. Section 28.0023(a), Education Code, is repealed.

SECTION 4. This Act applies beginning with the 2014–2015 school year.

SECTION 5. This Act takes effect immediately if it receives a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, as provided by Section 39, Article III, Texas Constitution. If this Act does not receive the vote necessary for immediate effect, this Act takes effect September 1, 2013.

Passed by the House on April 26, 2013: Yeas 128, Nays 7, 1 present, not voting; the House concurred in Senate amendments to H.B. No. 897 on May 22, 2013: Yeas 121, Nays 26, 2 present, not voting; passed by the Senate, with amendments, on May 20, 2013: Yeas 28, Nays 3.

Approved June 14, 2013.

Effective June 14, 2013.

CHAPTER 1270

H.B. No. 944

AN ACT
relating to an exemption from license requirements for a limited number of sales of manufactured housing.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

SECTION 1. Subchapter C, Chapter 1201, Occupations Code, is amended by adding Section 1201.1025 to read as follows:

Sec. 1201.1025. EXEMPTION FROM RETAILER’S LICENSE REQUIREMENT. (a) Notwithstanding any other law, in any 12-month period a person is exempt from holding a retailer’s license as required by Section 1201.101(b) if during that period the person sells or offers to sell not more than three manufactured homes.

(b) The department by rule shall develop a form necessary for a person to establish eligibility for the exemption provided by this section.

(c) A person who is eligible for an exemption under this section remains subject to the other applicable provisions of this subchapter regarding the sale of manufactured homes.

SECTION 2. The change in law made by this Act applies only to a sale of or an offer to sell manufactured homes on or after the effective date of this Act. A sale of or an offer to sell manufactured homes before that date is governed by the law in effect on the date of the sale, and the former law is continued in effect for that purpose.

SECTION 3. This Act takes effect September 1, 2013.

Passed by the House on April 11, 2013: Yeas 144, Nays 0, 2 present, not voting; the House concurred in Senate amendments to H.B. No. 944 on May 16, 2013: Yeas 140, Nays 2, 2 present, not voting; passed by the Senate, with amendments, on May 15, 2013: Yeas 31, Nays 0.
