Except as provided by Section 154.112 and by Section 20.001, Civil Practice and Remedies Code, all depositions conducted in this state must be recorded by a certified shorthand reporter.

The commission may enforce this section by seeking an injunction or by filing a complaint against a person who is not certified by the supreme court in the district court of the county in which that person resides or Travis County. Said action for an injunction shall be in addition to any other action, proceeding, or remedy authorized by law. The commission shall be represented by the attorney general and/or the county or district attorney of this state, or counsel designated and empowered by the commission.

A court reporting firm shall register with the commission by completing an application in a form adopted by the commission. Rules applicable to a court reporter are also applicable to a court reporting firm. The commission may enforce this subsection by assessing a reasonable fee against a court reporting firm. This subsection does not apply to court reporting services performed outside of this state by a foreign shorthand reporter who is not certified in this state for use in a court proceeding in this state, provided that the work resulting from those services is produced and billed wholly outside of this state.

The supreme court shall adopt rules necessary to comply with Chapter 53, Occupations Code.

Sec. 154.102. APPLICATION FOR EXAMINATION. A person seeking certification must file an application for examination with the commission not later than the 30th day before the date fixed for the examination. The application must be accompanied by the required fee.

(b) If the examination is graded or reviewed by a testing service:

(1) the board shall notify the person of the results of the examination not later than the 30th day after the date the board receives the results from the testing service; and

(2) if notice of the examination results will be delayed for longer than 90 days after the examination date, the board shall notify the person of the reason for the delay before the 90th day.

(e) The board may require a testing service to notify a person of the results of the person's examination.

(b) The board may waive any prerequisite to certification for an applicant who holds a license or certification issued by another jurisdiction with which this state has a reciprocity agreement. The board may make an agreement, subject to the approval of the supreme court, with another state to allow for certification by reciprocity.

(b) The commission [board] may enforce this section against a firm, its affiliate office, or both, if the firm or affiliate office is not registered with the commission [board], by seeking an injunction or by filing a complaint in the district court of the county in which the firm or affiliate office is located or in Travis County. An action for an injunction is in addition to any other action, proceeding, or remedy authorized by law. The attorney general, a county or district attorney of this state, or counsel designated and empowered by the commission [board] shall represent the commission [board].

Sec. 154.107 [52.026]. CERTIFICATION AND REGISTRATION FEE AND RENEWAL. (a) A person who receives certification as a shorthand reporter or a shorthand reporting firm or affiliate office that registers with the commission [board] must pay the initial fee and any other required fee before receiving the certification or registration.

(b) A certification or registration expires at 12:01 a.m. on January 1 following the second anniversary of the date on which it was issued unless the certification or registration is renewed. Thereafter, the certification or registration expires at 12:01 a.m. of each second January 1 unless renewed.

(c) A person who is otherwise eligible to renew a certification or registration may renew an unexpired certification or registration by paying the required renewal fee to the commission before the expiration date of the certification or registration. A person whose certification or registration has expired may not engage in activities that require a certification or registration until the certification or registration has been renewed.

(d) A person whose certification or registration has been expired for 90 days or less may renew the certification or registration by paying to the commission a renewal fee that is equal to 1-1/2 times the normally required renewal fee.

The person must pay to the commission a fee that is equal to two times the normally required renewal fee for the certification.

(h) Not later than the 30th day before the date a person's certification or registration is scheduled to expire, the commission shall send written notice of the impending expiration to the person at the person's last known address according to the records of the commission.

Sec. 154.108. STAGGERED RENEWAL OF CERTIFICATION OR REGISTRATION. The supreme court by rule may adopt a system under which certifications or registrations expire on various dates during the year. For the year in which the certification or registration expiration date is changed, the commission shall prorate certification or registration fees on a monthly basis so that each certification or registration holder pays only that portion of the certification or registration fee that is allocable to the number of months during which the certification or registration is valid. On renewal of the certification or registration on the new expiration date, the total certification or registration renewal fee is payable.

(b) On receipt of a properly executed complaint, the commission shall furnish a copy of the complaint and any attachments to the shorthand reporter or shorthand reporting firm or affiliate office that is the subject of the complaint.

(c) This section does not preclude the commission or a court of this state from filing a complaint against a certified shorthand reporter or a shorthand reporting firm. An advisory board member may recommend to the commission a complaint to be filed against a certified shorthand reporter or a shorthand reporting firm or affiliated office registered with the commission.
