S.B. 1571

DIGEST

Currently, the venue for a juvenile delinquency proceeding may be either in the county in which the child resides, or the county where an alleged delinquent conduct or conduct indicating need for supervision occurred. At times, a case, obliging the requirements, changes venue repeatedly. S.B. 1571 would require the venue to be only in the county in which the delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision occurred.

PURPOSE

As proposed, S.B. 1571 amends the venue requirements of certain child delinquency proceedings.
