DIGEST AND PURPOSE

There is concern that the number of attorneys who provide legal services to the indigent is declining because of uncompetitive salary and benefits. To remedy this situation, an incentive may need to be provided to an attorney who chooses to serve the public through indigent legal services. C.S.H.B. 2323 requires the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board to provide assistance in the repayment of law school education loans for an attorney who provides legal services to the indigent.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

Rulemaking authority is expressly granted to the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board in SECTION 1 (Section 61.958, Education Code) of this bill.

Sec. 61.954. ELIGIBLE LOANS. Authorizes the board to provide repayment assistance for the repayment of any education loan received by the attorney through any lender for education at a school of law authorized by the board to award a degree that satisfies the law study requirements for licensure as an attorney in this state. Prohibits the board from providing repayment assistance for an education loan that is in default at the time of the attorney's application.

Sec. 61.955. REPAYMENT. Requires the board to deliver any repayment assistance made under this subchapter in a lump sum payable to the lender and the attorney in accordance with any applicable federal law. Authorizes loan repayment assistance received under this subchapter to be applied to the principal amount of the loan and to interest that accrues.

Sec. 61.956. ADVISORY COMMITTEE. Authorizes the board to appoint an advisory committee to assist the board in performing the board's duties under this subchapter.

Sec. 61.958. RULES. Requires the board to adopt rules necessary for the administration of this subchapter, including a rule that sets a maximum amount of repayment assistance that an attorney may receive in one year. Requires the board to distribute a copy of the rules adopted under this section and pertinent information in this subchapter to certain entities.
