DIGEST AND PURPOSE

Currently, entities who hold elections are having an increasingly difficult task finding individuals to work polling places on election dates. The Texas Election Code caps the compensation for election workers at an amount not to exceed $6 per hour. As proposed, S.B. 1023 allows the appropriate authorities (cities, counties, school districts, and other entities) to compensate election workers, judges, and clerks, at whatever amount is deemed reasonable as long as the amount is at least at the federal minimum wage level.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.

SECTION BY SECTION ANALYSIS

SECTION 1. Amends Section 32.091(a), Election Code, to provide that an election judge or clerk is entitled to compensation for services rendered at a precinct polling place at an hourly rate not to exceed the amount fixed by the appropriate authority, which amount must be at least the federal minimum hourly wage.

SECTION 2. Effective date: September 1, 2001.
