DIGEST AND PURPOSE

Currently, Texas law provides that a person whose license to practice chiropractic has been revoked or suspended or against whom the board has imposed an administrative penalty may appeal to a district court in the county where the person resides. As proposed, S.B. 152 provides that a person whose license to practice chiropractic has been revoked or suspended or against whom the board has imposed an administrative penalty may only appeal to a Travis County district court.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.

SECTION BY SECTION ANALYSIS

SECTION 1. Amends Section 201.510(a), Occupations Code, to authorize a person whose license to practice chiropractic has been revoked or suspended or against whom the board has imposed an administrative penalty to appeal to a Travis County district court, rather than a court in the county where the person resides.

SECTION 2. Makes application of this Act prospective.

SECTION 3. Effective date: September 1, 2001.
