AUTHOR'S/SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

Currently, the Texas Food and Fibers Commission (commission) is an independent agency. The commission would rather consolidate with the Texas Department of Agriculture under their terms rather than at the request of the legislature. They are being proactive on this matter knowing that it might be done in the future. As proposed, S.B. 161 transfers the Texas Food and Fibers Commission to the Texas Department of Agriculture and creates the Food and Fibers Research Council.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

Rulemaking authority previously granted to the Texas Food and Fibers Commission is rescinded and expressly granted to the commissioner of the Food and Fibers Research Council in SECTION 4 (Section 42.003, Education Code) of this bill.

SECTION BY SECTION ANALYSIS

SECTION 1. Amends the heading to Chapter 42, Agriculture Code, to read as follows:

CHAPTER 42. FOOD AND FIBERS RESEARCH GRANT PROGRAM

SECTION 2. Amends Section 42.001, Agriculture Code, as follows:

Sec. 42.001. New heading: PURPOSE. Provides that the food and fiber research program is a program in the department to assist the fibers and oilseeds industries in this state by identifying and obtaining available funding from public and private entities, including federal and state agencies in this and other states, for the support of applied research to fibers and oilseeds. Deletes text relating to the purpose of the Texas Food and Fibers Commission.

SECTION 3. Amends Chapter 42, Education Code, by adding Section 42.0015, as follows:

Sec. 42.0015. DEFINITIONS. Defines "council" and "program."

SECTION 4. Amends Sections 42.002-42.004 and 42.008, Agriculture Code, as follows:

Sec. 42.002. ORGANIZATION. Provides that the Food and Fibers Research Council (council) is composed of certain members appointed by the commissioner of agriculture (commissioner). Deletes text relating to the composition of the Texas Food and Fibers Commission. Makes conforming and nonsubstantive changes.

Sec. 42.003. ADMINISTRATION. Provides that the members of the council serve staggered six-year terms, expiring on February 1 of each odd-numbered year. Deletes text relating to terms of committee membership. Provides that the commissioner or the commissioner's designee serves as presiding officer of the council. Requires the council to meet at least once each year at a time designated by the presiding officer, rather than by the chairman. Deletes text relating to commission procedures. Makes a conforming change. Provides that members of the council are not entitled to compensation for service on the council or reimbursement for travel expenses incurred by the member while conducting council business. Deletes text relating to commission operations.

Requires the commissioner to provide the council with the necessary staff and resources to administer the program, as determined by the commissioner. Authorizes the commissioner to also appoint or employ consultants or other agents as necessary for the business of the program. Authorizes the commissioner to adopt rules necessary to administer this chapter. Deletes text relating to commission rules, policies, and procedures.

Sec. 42.004. POWERS AND DUTIES. Requires the council to adopt and administer the program to provide funding for surveys, research and investigations relating to the use of certain textile products. Authorizes the Department of Agriculture (department) to contract with any state agency, federal agricultural agency or state institution of higher education, rather than educational institution, to perform services for the council or for the use of the facilities of the agency.
