AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

Under current law, a protective order has a duration period of up to two years. However, certain crimes such as sexual assault and aggravated sexual assault are so egregious that it would benefit the victim if the victim was not required to renew the order every two years.

C.S.H.B. 1988 authorizes a victim of a sexual or aggravated sexual assault offense to obtain a lifetime protective order against the offender who victimized the individual.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.
