AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

Under current law, the Texas Building and Procurement Commission (TBPC) maintains responsibility for providing facility management services for certain Texas Historical Commission (commission) buildings located in the Capitol Complex. The responsibility was placed on TBPC during the 78th Legislature, Regular Session, 2003, as a part of H.B. 3042. TBPC does not maintain adequate skill sets and staffing to meet the unique preservation and historical needs of all these buildings. However, the commission has staff with specific skill sets related to the historic preservation of facilities.

H.B. 2621 transfers the responsibility for providing facility management services to certain buildings located in the Capitol Complex from TBPC to the commission.
