AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

Currently, there is no requirement that a county purchase a bond or insurance to cover losses due to a statutory probate court judge's gross negligence. Some counties--Harris and Travis--provide insurance, but it is done voluntarily and is not required by law. Two hundred and forty counties not covered by this bill belong to an insurance pool offered through the Texas Association of Counties (TAC) that offers $2 million coverage. The counties subject to H.B. 2967 do not belong to this pool.

H.B. 2967 requires counties with statutory probate courts (Bexar, Collin, Dallas, Denton, El Paso, Galveston, Harris, Hidalgo, Tarrant, and Travis) to purchase a bond or insurance in the amount of $500,000 to cover losses caused by a statutory probate court judge's gross negligence in performing the duties of office.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.
