AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

The Texas Penal Code states that evading arrest by use of a watercraft carries a maximum penalty of a Class A Misdemeanor, while evading arrest through use of a motor vehicle is a state jail felony offense.

In the last two years the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department reported 17 instances of evading arrest through use of a watercraft within the state's waterways. There is concern among law enforcement that differing penalties for similar crimes have created a perception of an acceptable risk for offenders considering evading arrest. The reality is that the risks posed to law enforcement, as well as the public, are no less lethal when a criminal offender chooses to run from law enforcement through use of a watercraft, rather than through the use of a motor vehicle.

As proposed, S.B. 496 amends current law relating to the punishment for the offense of evading arrest or detention.
