AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

Article 9 (Secured Transaction), located in the Texas Business and Commerce Code, is the body of law that controls secured transactions. Secured transactions include security agreements for real and personal property and related agreements between creditors and debtors.

The revised version of Article 9 of the Texas Uniform Commercial Code (UCC) took effect in 2001. Since the time of its original drafting, a number of provisions within UCC have proven cumbersome or problematic. This bill revises UCC to address many of these outdated provisions. The revisions to Article 9, UCC, included in this bill have been approved and recommended for enactment by the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws (NCCUSL). Oklahoma, Minnesota, Missouri, and Nevada have either introduced legislation or evidenced intent to adopt these changes.

The majority of the changes made by S.B. 782 are for clarification or updates necessary due to advances in technology or business practices.

As proposed, S.B. 782 amends current law relating to uniform law on secured transactions.

(1) the financing statement is effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the debtor before, or within four months after, the filed financing statement becomes seriously misleading; and

(2) the financing statement is not effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the debtor more than four months after the filed financing statement becomes seriously misleading, unless an amendment to the financing statement that renders the financing statement not seriously misleading is filed within four months after that event.

Sec. 9.802. SAVING CLAUSE. (a) Provides that except as otherwise provided in this subchapter, the 2013 amendments apply to a transaction or lien within its scope, even if the transaction or lien was entered into or created before July 1, 2013.

(a) Provides that a security interest that is a perfected security interest immediately before July 1, 2013, is a perfected security interest under this chapter, as amended by the 2013 amendments, if, when the 2013 amendments take effect, the applicable requirements for attachment and perfection under this chapter, as amended by the 2013 amendments, are satisfied without further action.

(b) Provides that, except as otherwise provided in Section 9.805, if, immediately before July 1, 2013, a security interest is a perfected security interest, but the applicable requirements for perfection under this chapter, as amended by the 2013 amendments, are not satisfied when the 2013 amendments take effect, the security interest remains perfected thereafter only if the applicable requirements for perfection under this chapter, as amended by the 2013 amendments, are satisfied within one year after the 2013 amendments take effect.

Sec. 9.804. SECURITY INTEREST UNPERFECTED BEFORE EFFECTIVE DATE. Provides that a security interest that is an unperfected security interest immediately before July 1, 2013, becomes a perfected security interest:

(1) without further action, when the 2013 amendments take effect if the applicable requirements for perfection under this chapter, as amended by the 2013 amendments, are satisfied before or at that time; or

(b) Provides that the 2013 amendments do not render ineffective an effective financing statement that, before July 1, 2013, is filed and satisfies the applicable requirements for perfection under the law of jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in this chapter as it existed before amendment. Provides that, however, except as otherwise provided in Subsections (c) and (d) and Section 9.806, the financing statement ceases to be effective:

(1) if the financing statement is filed in this state, at the time the financing statement would have ceased to be effective had the 2013 amendments not taken effect; or

(2) if the financing statement is filed in another jurisdiction, at the earlier of the time the financing statement would have ceased to be effective under the law of that jurisdiction, or June 30, 2018.

(c) Provides that the filing of a continuation statement after the 2013 amendments take effect does not continue the effectiveness of the financing statement filed before July 1, 2013. Provides that, however, on the timely filing of a continuation statement after the 2013 amendments take effect and in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in this chapter, as amended by the 2013 amendments, the effectiveness of a financing statement filed in the same office in that jurisdiction before the 2013 amendments take effect continues for the period provided by the law of that jurisdiction.

(d) Provides that Subsection (b)(2)(B) (relating to an effective date of June 30, 2018) applies to a financing statement that, before July 1, 2013, is filed against a transmitting utility and satisfies the applicable requirements for perfection under the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in this chapter as it existed before amendment, only to the extent that this chapter, as amended by the 2013 amendments, provides that the law of a jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction in which the financing statement is filed governs perfection of a security interest in collateral covered by the financing statement.

(e) Provides that a financing statement that includes a financing statement filed before the 2013 amendments take effect and a continuation statement filed after the 2013 amendments take effect is effective only to the extent that it satisfies the requirements of Subchapter E, as amended by the 2013 amendments, for an initial financing statement. Provides that a financing statement that indicates that the debtor is a decedent's estate indicates that the collateral is being administered by a personal representative within the meaning of Section 9.503(a)(2), as amended by the 2013 amendments. Provides that a financing statement that indicates that the debtor is a trust or is a trustee acting with respect to property held in trust indicates that the collateral is held in a trust within the meaning of Section 9.503(a)(3), as amended by the 2013 amendments.

Sec. 9.806. WHEN INITIAL FINANCING STATEMENT SUFFICES TO CONTINUE EFFECTIVENESS OF FINANCING STATEMENT. (a) Provides that the filing of an initial financing statement in the office specified in Section 9.501 (Filing Office) continues the effectiveness of a financing statement filed before July 1, 2013, if:

(1) the filing of an initial financing statement in that office would be effective to perfect a security interest under this chapter, as amended by the 2013 amendments;

(2) the pre-effective-date financing statement was filed in an office in another state; and

(3) the initial financing statement satisfies Subsection (c).

(b) Provides that the filing of an initial financing statement under Subsection (a) continues the effectiveness of the pre-effective-date financing statement if the initial financing statement is filed before July 1, 2013, for the period provided in unamended Section 9.515 with respect to an initial financing statement; and if the

Sec. 9.809. PRIORITY. Provides that the 2013 amendments determine the priority of conflicting claims to collateral. Provides that however, if the relative priorities of the claims were established before July 1, 2013, this chapter as it existed before amendment determines priority.
