Committee Report (Substituted)

AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

On September 29, 2014, the president signed the Preventing Sex Trafficking and Strengthening Families Act, Public Law 113-183, requiring the verbatim adoption by states of the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act (UIFSA) 2008. All states are required to submit a state plan amendment certifying to the Secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services that the state has enacted UIFSA 2008 verbatim. This requires Texas to pass UIFSA 2008 in the 2015 legislative session to avoid the potential loss of federal funding. Disapproval of the state plan could result in immediate suspension of all federal payments for the state's child support enforcement program. For Federal Fiscal Year (FFY) 2012, the federal share of expenditures for the child support program, including incentive payments, was $227,965,921 million. Also, without an approved state plan, Texas would be at risk of losing the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) block grant. For FFY 2012, the TANF block grant was $486,256,752 million. In total, failure to pass S.B. 1523 could cost the state over $700 million each year.

UIFSA 2008 is essentially a reauthorization of the existing law under which Texas is currently operating. However, in an ever-shrinking world, with people spending significant amounts of time outside their home countries, child support collections have become increasingly complicated. Texas currently manages over 1,500 child support orders which cross international boundaries, and that number will continue to increase. Consequently, the predominate changes in this bill are to further define that UIFSA 2008 applies to foreign countries by adding "foreign countries" throughout the existing statute, and to explain how a court of this state should deal with a child support order of a different state or a foreign country. UIFSA 2008 will simplify and standardize child support collections across international boundaries and ensure protections for Texans who find themselves in child support agreements with foreign nationals.

To safeguard American citizens, UIFSA 2008 offers protection against any limitation of comity or the application of the Full Faith and Credit clause to orders rendered by other tribunals or foreign countries. The bill specifically allows for a Texas court to vacate a registration or refuse recognition and enforcement of an international Hague Convention support order if it would be "manifestly incompatible with public policy." C.S.S.B. 1523 is effective July 1, 2015, if the bill receives a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house.

C.S.S.B. 1523 amends current law relating to the adoption of the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act of 2008.

Deletes existing text requiring that a notice under this section inform the nonregistering party that failure to contest the validity or enforcement of the registered order in a timely manner precludes further contest of that order with respect to any matter that could have been asserted.

(c) Requires that, if the registering party asserts that two or more orders are in effect, the notice, rather than the notice under this section, also:

(1) identify the two or more orders and the order alleged by the registering party to be the controlling order and the consolidated arrears;

(2) notify the nonregistering party of the right to a determination of which is the controlling order;

(3) state that the procedures provided in Subsection (b) apply to the determination of which is the controlling order; and

(4) Makes no change to this subdivision.

SECTION 44. Amends Section 159.606, Family Code, as follows:

Sec. 159.606. New heading: PROCEDURE TO CONTEST VALIDITY OR ENFORCEMENT OF REGISTERED SUPPORT ORDER. (a) Requires a nonregistering party seeking to contest the validity or enforcement of a registered support order in this state to request a hearing within the time required by Section 159.605, rather than within 20 days after notice of the registration. Authorizes the nonregistering party to seek, rather than to seek under Section 159.607, to vacate the registration, to assert any defense to an allegation of noncompliance with the registered order, or to contest the remedies being sought or the amount of any alleged arrearages under Section 159.607. Makes nonsubstantive changes.

(b) and (c) Changes references to registered order to registered support order.

SECTION 45. Amends Section 159.607, Family Code, as follows:

Sec. 159.607. CONTEST OF REGISTRATION OR ENFORCEMENT. (a) Provides that a party contesting the validity or enforcement of a registered support order or seeking to vacate the registration has the burden of proving one or more of certain defenses as set forth.

SECTION 47. Designates Sections 159.609, 159.610, 159.611, 159.612, 159.613, and 159.614, Family Code, as Part 3, Subchapter G, Chapter 159, Family Code, and adds a heading to read, as follows:

PART 3. REGISTRATION AND MODIFICATION OF CHILD SUPPORT ORDER OF ANOTHER STATE

SECTION 48. Amends Section 159.609, Family Code, as follows:

Sec. 159.609. PROCEDURE TO REGISTER CHILD SUPPORT ORDER OF ANOTHER STATE FOR MODIFICATION. Requires a party or support enforcement agency seeking to modify, or to modify and enforce, a child support order issued in another state to register that order in this state in the same manner provided in Sections 159.601 through 159.608, rather than 159.601-159.604, if the order has not been registered.

SECTION 49. Amends Section 159.610, Family Code, to change a reference to registered order to registered support order. Delete a reference to Section 159.615 from references with certain requirements to modify a registered support order.

SECTION 50. Amends Section 159.611, Family Code, by amending Subsections (a), (c), (d), and (e) and adding Subsection (f), as follows:

(a) Authorizes a tribunal of this state on petition, if Section 159.613 does not apply, to modify a child support order issued in another state that is registered in this state if, after notice and hearing, the tribunal makes certain findings as set forth.

Deletes existing text providing that, except as provided by Section 159.615, on petition a tribunal of this state may modify a child support order issued in another state and registered in this state only if Section 159.613 does not apply and after notice and hearing the tribunal makes certain findings as set forth.

(c) Prohibits a tribunal of this state from modifying any aspect of a child support order that may not be modified under the law of the issuing state, including the duration of the obligation of support, rather than prohibits a tribunal of this state, except as provided by Section 159.615, from modifying any aspect of a child support order including the duration of the obligation of support, that may not be modified under the law of the issuing state.

(d) Provides that in a proceeding to modify a child support order, the law of the state that is determined to have issued the initial controlling order governs the duration of the obligation of support. Provides that the obligor's fulfillment of the duty of support established by that order precludes imposition of a further obligation of support by a tribunal of this state.

(e) Creates this subsection from existing text and makes no further change.

(f) Provides that, notwithstanding Subsections (a) through (e) of this section and Section 159.201(b), a tribunal of this state retains jurisdiction to modify an order issued by a tribunal of this state if one party resides in another state and the other party resides outside the United States.

Deletes existing text providing that in a proceeding to modify a child support order, the law of the state that is determined to have issued the initial controlling order governs the duration of the obligation of support. Deletes existing text providing the obligor's fulfillment of the duty of support established by that order precludes imposition of a further obligation of support by a tribunal of this state.

SECTION 51. Amends Section 159.612, Family Code, to change a reference to arrearages to arrears.

SECTION 52. Amends Section 159.613(b), Family Code, as follows:

Provides that Subchapters D, E, F, H, and I (Interstate Rendition) do not apply.

Provides that Sections 159.301 through 159.507 (relating to civil proceedings and compliance with orders) and 159.701 through 159.802 (relating to parentage and rendition), do not apply

SECTION 53. Designates Section 159.615, Family Code, as Part 4, Subchapter G, Chapter 159, Family Code, and adds a heading to read as follows:

PART 4. REGISTRATION AND MODIFICATION OF FOREIGN CHILD SUPPORT ORDER

SECTION 54. Amends Section 159.615, Family Code, as follows:

Sec. 159.615. New heading: JURISDICTION TO MODIFY CHILD SUPPORT ORDER OF FOREIGN COUNTRY. (a) Authorizes a tribunal of this state, except as otherwise provided by Section 159.711, if a foreign country lacks or refuses to exercise jurisdiction to modify its child support order pursuant to its laws, to assume jurisdiction to modify the child support order and bind all individuals subject to the personal jurisdiction of the tribunal regardless of whether the consent to modification of a child support order otherwise required of the individual under Section 159.611 has been given or whether the individual seeking modification is a resident of this state or of the foreign country.

Deletes existing text authorizing a tribunal of this state, if a foreign country or political subdivision that is a state refuses to modify its order or may not under its law from modifying its order, to assume jurisdiction to modify the child support order and bind all individuals subject to the personal jurisdiction of the tribunal regardless of whether consent to modification of a child support order has been given under Section 159.611, or the individual seeking modification is a resident of this state or of the foreign country or political subdivision.

(b) Provides that an order issued by a tribunal of this state modifying a foreign child support order under this section is the controlling order.

Sec. 159.616. PROCEDURE TO REGISTER CHILD SUPPORT ORDER OF FOREIGN COUNTRY FOR MODIFICATION. Authorizes a party or support enforcement agency seeking to modify, or to modify and enforce, a foreign child support order not under the Convention that register that order in this state under Sections 159.601 through 159.608 if the order has not been registered. Authorizes a petition for modification to be filed at the same time as a request for registration or at another time. Requires that the petition to specify the grounds for modification.

SUBCHAPTER H. SUPPORT PROCEEDING UNDER CONVENTION

SECTION 57. Amends Section 159.701, Family Code, to define, in this subchapter, "application," "central authority," "convention support order," "direct request," "foreign central authority," "foreign support agreement," and "United States central authority." Deletes existing text authorizing a court of this state authorized to determine the parentage of a child may serve as a responding tribunal in a proceeding to determine parentage brought under this chapter or a law substantially similar to this chapter.

Sec. 159.702. APPLICABILITY. Provides that this subchapter applies only to a support proceeding under the Convention on the International Recovery of Child Support and Other Forms of Family Maintenance (Convention). Provides that, in such a proceeding, if a provision of this subchapter is inconsistent with Subchapters B through G, this subchapter controls.

Sec. 159.703. RELATIONSHIP OF OFFICE OF ATTORNEY GENERAL TO UNITED STATES CENTRAL AUTHORITY. Provides that the Office of the Attorney General of this state (OAG) is recognized as the agency designated by the United States central authority to perform specific functions under the Convention.

Sec. 159.704. INITIATION BY OFFICE OF ATTORNEY GENERAL OF SUPPORT PROCEEDING UNDER CONVENTION. (a) Requires OAG of this state to, in a support proceeding under this subchapter, transmit and receive applications and initiate or facilitate the institution of a proceeding regarding an application in a tribunal of this state.

(c) Provides that the following support proceedings are available under the Convention to an obligor against which there is an existing support order: recognition of an order suspending or limiting enforcement of an existing support order of a tribunal of this state, modification of a support order of a tribunal of this state, and modification of a support order of a tribunal of another state or a foreign country.

Sec. 159.705. DIRECT REQUEST. (a) Authorizes a petitioner to file a direct request seeking establishment or modification of a support order or determination of parentage of a child. Provides that, in the proceeding, the law of this state applies.

(b) Authorizes a petitioner to file a direct request seeking recognition and enforcement of a support order or support agreement. Provides that, in the proceeding, Sections 159.706 through 159.713 apply.

(c) Provides that, in a direct request for recognition and enforcement of a Convention support order or foreign support agreement a security, bond, or deposit is not required to guarantee the payment of costs and expenses, and an obligee or obligor that in the issuing country has benefited from free legal assistance is entitled to benefit, at least to the same extent, from any free legal assistance provided for by the law of this state under the same circumstances.

(d) Provides that a petitioner filing a direct request is not entitled to assistance from OAG.

(e) Provides that this subchapter does not prevent the application of laws of this state that provide simplified, more expeditious rules regarding a direct request for recognition and enforcement of a foreign support order or foreign support agreement.

Sec. 159.706. REGISTRATION OF CONVENTION SUPPORT ORDER. (a) Requires a party who is an individual or a support enforcement agency seeking recognition of a Convention support order to, except as otherwise provided in this subchapter, register the order in this state as provided in Subchapter G.

(b) Requires that, notwithstanding Sections 159.311 and 159.602(a), a request for registration of a Convention support order must be accompanied by:

(1) the complete text of the support order or an abstract or extract of the support order drawn up by the issuing foreign tribunal, which may be in the form recommended by the Hague Conference on Private International Law;

(2) a record stating that the support order is enforceable in the issuing country;

(3) if the respondent did not appear and was not represented in the proceedings in the issuing country, a record attesting, as appropriate, either that the respondent had proper notice of the proceedings and an opportunity to be heard or that the respondent had proper notice of the support order and an opportunity to be heard in a challenge or appeal on fact or law before a tribunal;

(4) a record showing the amount of arrears, if any, and the date the amount was calculated;

(5) a record showing a requirement for automatic adjustment of the amount of support, if any, and the information necessary to make the appropriate calculations; and

(6) if necessary, a record showing the extent to which the applicant received free legal assistance in the issuing country.

(c) Provides that a request for registration of a Convention support order may seek recognition and partial enforcement of the order.

(d) Authorizes a tribunal of this state to vacate the registration of a Convention support order without the filing of a contest under Section 159.707 only if, acting on its own motion, the tribunal finds that recognition and enforcement of the order would be manifestly incompatible with public policy.

(e) Requires the tribunal to promptly notify the parties of the registration or the order vacating the registration of a Convention support order.

Sec. 159.707. CONTEST OF REGISTERED CONVENTION SUPPORT ORDER. (a) Provides that, except as otherwise provided in this subchapter, Sections 159.605 through 159.608 apply to a contest of a registered Convention support order.

Requires that, if the contesting party does not reside in the United States, the contest be filed not later than 60 days after notice of the registration.

(c) Provides that, if the nonregistering party fails to contest the registered Convention support order by the time specified in Subsection (b), the order is enforceable.

(d) Authorizes a contest of a registered Convention support order to be based only on grounds set forth in Section 159.708. Provides that the contesting party bears the burden of proof.

(e) Provides that, in a contest of a registered Convention support order, a tribunal of this state is bound by the findings of fact on which the foreign tribunal based its jurisdiction and is prohibited from reviewing the merits of the order.

(f) Requires a tribunal of this state deciding a contest of a registered Convention support order to promptly notify the parties of its decision.

(g) Provides that, a challenge or appeal, if any, does not stay the enforcement of a Convention support order unless there are exceptional circumstances.

Sec. 159.708. RECOGNITION AND ENFORCEMENT OF REGISTERED CONVENTION SUPPORT ORDER. (a) Requires a tribunal of this state, except as otherwise provided in Subsection (b), to recognize and enforce a registered Convention support order.

(b) Provides that the following grounds are the only grounds on which a tribunal of this state may refuse recognition and enforcement of a registered Convention support order:

(1) recognition and enforcement of the order is manifestly incompatible with public policy, including the failure of the issuing tribunal to observe minimum standards of due process, which include notice and an opportunity to be heard;

(2) the issuing tribunal lacked personal jurisdiction consistent with Section 159.201;

(3) the order is not enforceable in the issuing country;

(4) the order was obtained by fraud in connection with a matter of procedure;

(5) a record transmitted in accordance with Section 159.706 lacks authenticity or integrity;

(6) a proceeding between the same parties and having the same purpose is pending before a tribunal of this state and that proceeding was the first to be filed;

(7) the order is incompatible with a more recent support order involving the same parties and having the same purpose if the more recent support order is entitled to recognition and enforcement under this chapter in this state;

(8) payment, to the extent alleged arrears have been paid in whole or in part;

(9) in a case in which the respondent neither appeared nor was represented in the proceeding in the issuing foreign country if the law of that country provides for prior notice of proceedings, the respondent did not have proper notice of the proceedings and an opportunity to be heard, or if the law of that country does not provide for prior notice of the proceedings, the respondent did not have proper notice of the order and an opportunity to be heard in a challenge or appeal on fact or law before a tribunal; or

(10) the order was made in violation of Section 159.711.

(c) Provides that, if a tribunal of this state does not recognize a Convention support order under Subsection (b)(2), (4), or (9), the tribunal is prohibited from dismissing the proceeding without allowing a reasonable time for a party to request the establishment of a new Convention support order, and OAG is required to take all appropriate measures to request a child support order for the obligee if the application for recognition and enforcement was received under Section 159.704.

Sec. 159.709. PARTIAL ENFORCEMENT. Requires a tribunal, if a tribunal of this state does not recognize and enforce a Convention support order in its entirety, to enforce any severable part of the order. Provides that an application or direct request may seek recognition and partial enforcement of a Convention support order.

Sec. 159.710. FOREIGN SUPPORT AGREEMENT. (a) Requires a tribunal of this state to recognize and enforce a foreign support agreement registered in this state except as otherwise provided by Subsections (c) and (d).

(b) Requires that an application or direct request for recognition and enforcement of a foreign support agreement be accompanied by the complete text of the foreign support agreement and a record stating that the foreign support agreement is enforceable as an order of support in the issuing country.

(c) Authorizes a tribunal of this state to vacate the registration of a foreign support agreement only if, acting on its own motion, the tribunal finds that recognition and enforcement would be manifestly incompatible with public policy.

(d) Authorizes a tribunal of this state, in a contest of a foreign support agreement, to refuse recognition and enforcement of the agreement if it finds:

(1) recognition and enforcement of the agreement is manifestly incompatible with public policy;

(2) the agreement was obtained by fraud or falsification;

(3) the agreement is incompatible with a support order involving the same parties and having the same purpose in this state, another state, or a foreign country if the support order is entitled to recognition and enforcement under this chapter in this state; or

(4) the record submitted under Subsection (b) lacks authenticity or integrity.

(e) Requires that a proceeding for recognition and enforcement of a foreign support agreement be suspended during the pendency of a challenge to or appeal of the agreement before a tribunal of another state or a foreign country.

Sec. 159.711. MODIFICATION OF CONVENTION CHILD SUPPORT ORDER. (a) Prohibits a tribunal of this state from modifying a Convention child support order if the obligee remains a resident of the foreign country where the support order was issued unless:

(1) the obligee submits to the jurisdiction of a tribunal of this state, either expressly or by defending on the merits of the case without objecting to the jurisdiction at the first available opportunity; or

(2) the foreign tribunal lacks or refuses to exercise jurisdiction to modify its support order or issue a new support order.

(b) Provides that if a tribunal of this state does not modify a Convention child support order because the order is not recognized in this state, Section 159.708(c) applies.

Sec. 159.712. PERSONAL INFORMATION; LIMIT ON USE. Authorizes personal information gathered or transmitted under this subchapter to be used only for the purposes for which it was gathered or transmitted.

SECTION 59. Requires Section 159.801(a), Family Code, to provide that for purposes of this subchapter, rather than in this subchapter, "governor" includes an individual performing the functions of governor or the executive authority of a state covered by this chapter and makes a nonsubstantive change.

SECTION 60. Amends Section 159.802(a), Family Code, as follows:

(a) Authorizes the governor of this state, before making a demand that the governor of another state surrender an individual charged criminally in this state with having failed to provide for the support of an obligee, to require a prosecutor of this state to demonstrate that, not less than 60 days previously, the obligee had initiated proceedings for support under this chapter or that the proceeding would be of no avail.

Deletes existing text authorizing the governor, before making a demand that the governor of another state surrender an individual charged criminally in this state with having failed to provide for the support of an obligee, to require a prosecutor of this state to demonstrate that not less than 60 days before the date of the demand the obligee had initiated proceedings for support under this chapter or that initiating the proceeding would be of no avail. Makes nonsubstantive changes.

SECTION 61. Amends Section 159.901, Family Code, as follows:

Sec. 159.901. UNIFORMITY OF APPLICATION AND CONSTRUCTION. Requires that, in applying and construing this uniform act, consideration be given to the need to promote uniformity of the law with respect to its subject matter among states that enact it, rather than requiring that, in applying and construing this chapter, consideration be given to the need to promote uniformity of the law with respect to the subject matter of this chapter among states that enact a law similar to this chapter.

SECTION 62. Provides that Chapter 159, Family Code, as amended by this Act, applies to proceedings commenced on or after the effective date of this Act to establish a support order, determine parentage of a child, or register, recognize, enforce, or modify a prior support order, determination, or agreement regardless of the date the order, determination, or agreement was issued or entered.

SECTION 63. Effective date: July 1, 2015 or, if the bill does not receive the necessary vote, the 91st day after the last day of the legislative session.
