AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

The 85th Legislature passed significant reforms to combat educator misconduct. Interested parties contend that there are still disparities in reporting for private schools and loopholes that allow an educator who has an inappropriate relationship with a student in a public school district to then move and obtain employment in private school without the new school ever receiving notice of the inappropriate relationship. Interested parties observe that new laws and protections to combat educator misconduct encompass the public school system and by doing so there are children in private school settings who are less protected than their public school cohorts.

The purpose of C.S.S.B. 1230 is to reduce the risks faced by private schools and private school students by closing loopholes and providing penalties for conduct relating to an inappropriate relationship between an educator and a student.

C.S.S.B. 1230 would provide similar changes to law enacted by S.B. 7, by Bettencourt, 85th Legislature, requiring reporting of misconduct in a private school and ensuring access to such reports by private schools. C.S.S.B. 1230 amends current law relating to improper relationships between educators and students and reporting of educator misconduct, creates a criminal offense and expands the applicability of an existing offense, and authorizes an administrative penalty. (Original Author's/Sponsor's Statement of Intent)

S.B. 1230 amends current law relating to the reporting of private school educator misconduct.
