AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

State law provides confidentiality protections for the home address information of certain individuals in property tax appraisal records. Employees of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice (TDCJ) or the Texas Juvenile Justice Department (TJJD) are among those currently covered by these confidentiality protections. However, certain contract employees providing health care services at corrections facilities are not covered because they are not employees of TDCJ or TJJD. H.B. 1911 seeks to extend these confidentiality protections to a current or former employee or contract staff member of a university health care provider at a TDCJ or TJJD facility, as well as to a current or former attorney for the Department of Family and Protective Services.

H.B. 1911 amends current law relating to the confidentiality of certain home address information in ad valorem tax appraisal records.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.
