AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

S.B. 699 amends current law relating to the creation and operations of a health care provider participation program by a certain hospital district. Travis County's local provider participation fund (LPPF), created in 2019, is a way for its hospital district to provide indigent care, activating a provision of federal law known as the 1115 waiver which draws down federal funds at roughly a 60:40 ratio. There are currently 19 such funds created under Texas law. The funds cost no state tax dollars, only collecting federal funds and mandatory payments from member hospitals. This local bill simply extends the sunset date of Travis County's LPPF, allowing the arrangement to continue for an additional four years.

S.B. 699 amends current law relating to the continuation of a health care provider participation program by a certain hospital district.
